KUON-TV:

Afternoon Telecasts Scheduled

The University educational television station, KUON-TV, will begin afternoon programs one hour each day starting Jan. 23.

The morning programs will be telecast from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. In the afternoon, KUON-TV will be on the air from 2:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. The Saturday schedule will be from 9 a.m. to 11:30 p.m.

One of the reasons KUON-TV moves into afternoon programming is to make educational television available to a new audience which is not now able to view morning programs.

The following programs which have proved to be popular to morning audiences will be seen in the afternoon at 3 p.m.

On Monday, "The Flower Box" and "Home Agent Calling." On Tuesday, "Yesterday in Nebraska." On Wednesday, "The Art Galleries." On Thursday, "Conversation Piece." And on Friday, "The Museum Story," a new program from the University State Museum.

Aware that viewers discover many times that they have missed a favorite program, KUON-TV will re-run some of its morning series from other universities in the afternoon at 2:30 p.m. These programs include "The Modern U.S.A.," "Art and the Artists," "Spotlight on Opera," "Parents and Dr. Spock," and "Religions of Man."

Because of the new programs and new time schedules, viewers are to consult program listings in the newspapers or "Program Preview," the KUON-TV monthly program log. Viewers may request this publication by writing to KUON-TV at the University.

Fulbright Interviews Scheduled

Alison Smith, representative of the Institute of International Education, will be on campus, Feb. 27 and 28 for the purpose of interviewing American students who are interested in applying for Fulbright Fellowships for foreign study during 1957-58, Harold E. Wise, Assistant Dean and Fulbright Advisor, announced.

To be eligible for a Fulbright Award, a student must have at least a Bachelor's degree or the equivalent by the time he begins study under the program, Wise said.

Students interested in making appointments for interviews with Miss Smith should leave their names at the Graduate Office, Social Sciences 111, before Saturday, Feb. 25, Dean Wise said.

Expansion Of TV Field Announced

Opportunities for students to gain experience in the TV field may be obtained by participating in the newly expanded program schedule of KUON-TV, Clarence Flick, director of KUON-TV announced.

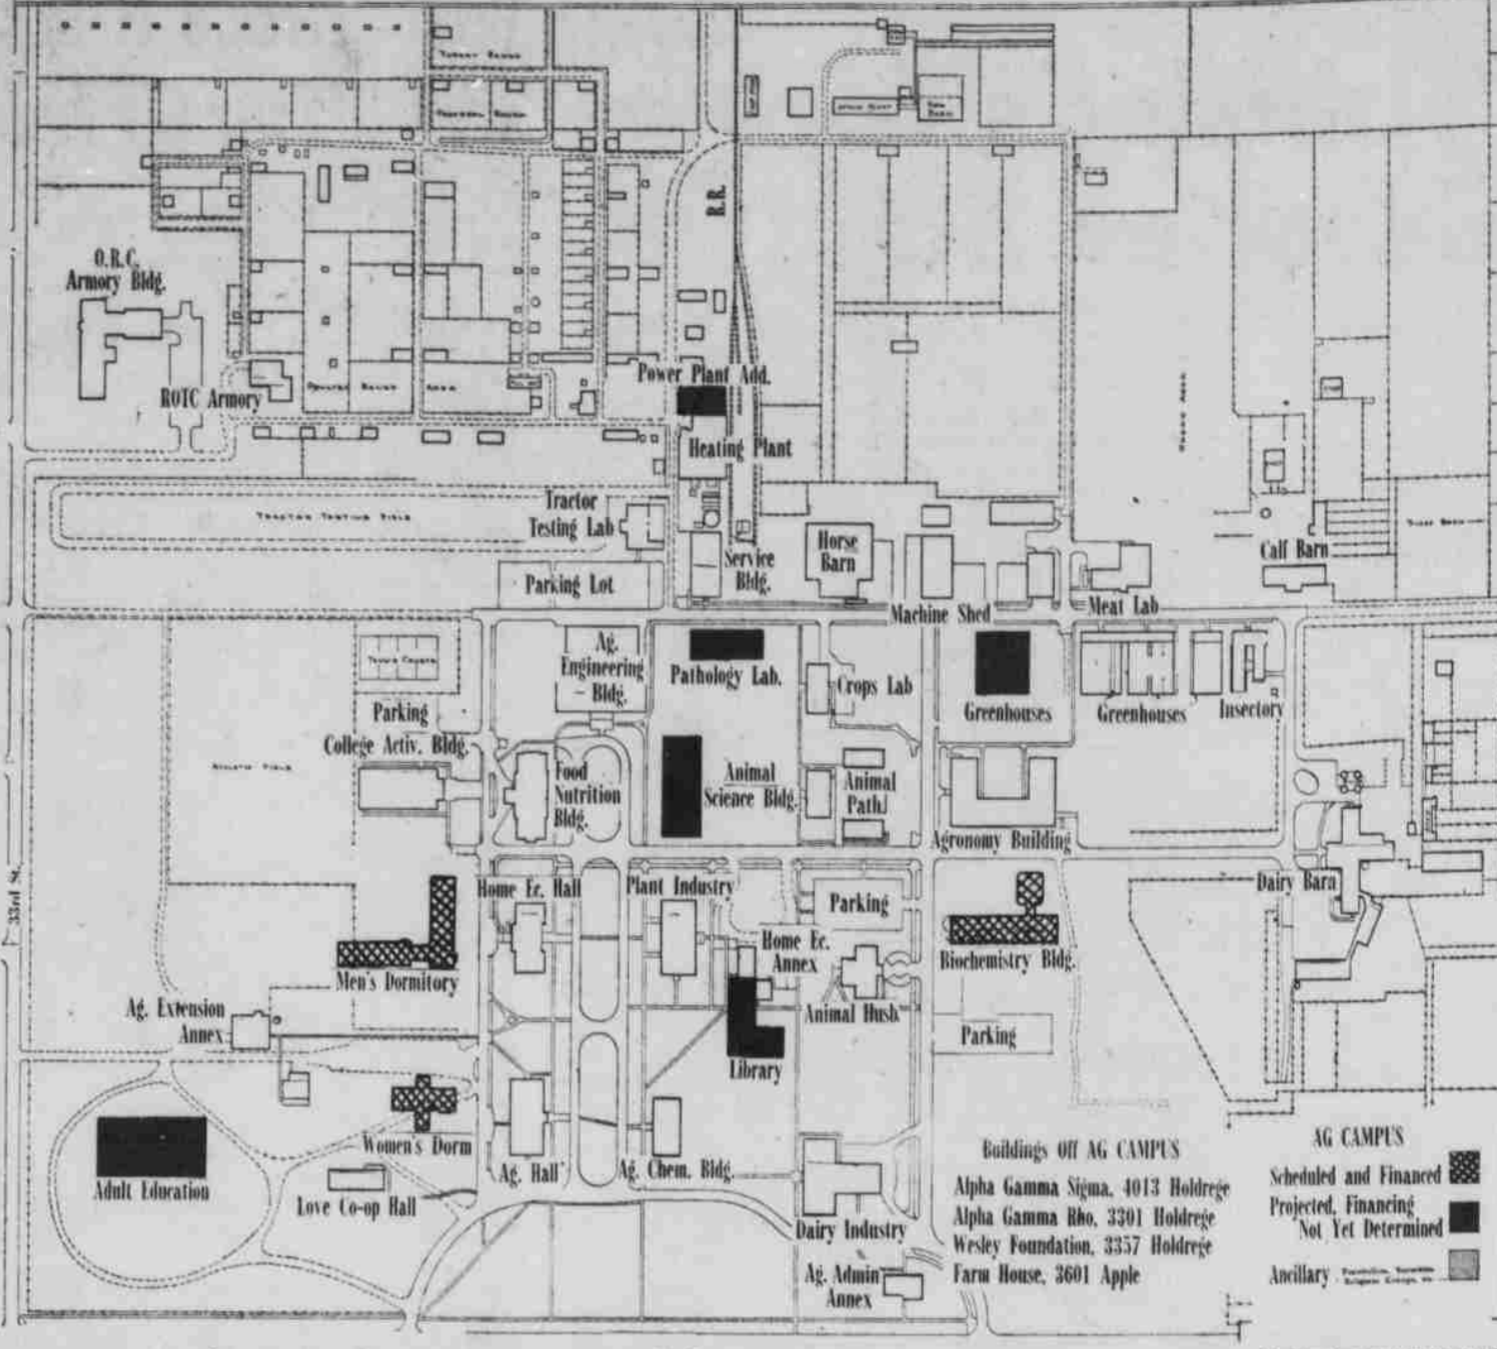

Participation on the television production crews may be an extracurricular activity. A course in television is not necessary, the station's directors announced.

Studio operations will now be from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. Monday through Saturday, and 2 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Students interested in working in studio operations contact Dr. Clarence Flick, assistant professor of speech, in Temple Building.

Proposed Ag Campus Buildings

Pictured above are financed and proposed changes in the physical plant of the Ag College. Projected buildings on the Ag campus as well as the city campus, are designed to meet the expected enrollment increase. University officials have estimated that the total enrollment on both campuses will reach 25,000 by 1965, saying that this is a conservative estimate and the figure could go as high as 30,000 by 1965. Ag campus, unlike city campus, has the land for expansion purposes, considerable facilitating the necessary building projects. Among projected buildings for Ag campus are an adult education building, a centralized library, pathology laboratory, animal science building, new greenhouses, and an addition to the power plant. Buildings financed and to be constructed in the near future include a men's dormitory, a women's dormitory, and a biochemistry building. For the next ten years, approximately $13,000,000 of state funds is expected to be needed if minimum building requirements are to be met.

Buildings Off AG CAMPUS: Alpha Gamma Sigma, 4013 Holdrege; Alpha Gamma Rho, 3301 Holdrege; Wesley Foundation, 3337 Holdrege; Farm House, 3601 Apple. AG CAMPUS: Scheduled and Financed (hatched), Projected, Financing Not Yet Determined (solid black), Ancillary (dotted).
