Practice Continues: Cornhusker Gridders Look Towards All-Sports Day

By BOB MARTEL Nebraskan Sports Reporter

The second session of the spring football drills took place yesterday afternoon as the gridders prepared themselves for All Sports Day.

Coach Pete Elliott indicated that spring drills were proceeding as expected and that all the boys were working real hard.

Elliott refused to pick out anyone as outstanding but said that Benny Dillard, sophomore from Mt. Pleasant, Texas, is the fastest man on the squad.

Although they only ran through fundamentals, the line showed a tendency to hit hard.

The coaching staff will continue to use agility drills the remainder of spring practice and throughout next season.

These drills are designed to help movement and reaction and they enable the individual to keep good position at all times.

Coach Elliott stressed position as one of the most important fundamentals of football.

There will be no cuts to A or B squads this season. The better boys will be used as a unit to run plays and prepare themselves for the Alumni tilt.

The squad will drill today and tomorrow and then adjourn until after Easter.
