Ivy Day Sing: KK Votes To Invite RAM Chorus As Guest

Kappa Delta voted to invite the Salvation Association for a Kent Day. It was voted by a five-to-four majority, with four abstentions, to invite the branch of the Salvation Association to perform at their November meeting next year. The idea was brought forward by Gerald King, a junior from Kansas City, Mo., and backed by Fred Regent, head of the Kappa Delta dormitory. The proposal was voted on by the Kappa Delta board in theStick Wadley, 21, a second-year student from Los Angeles, Calif., was chosen as the new president of the University of Nebraska Student Association. He was elected by a vote of 76 to 36 over his opponent, second-year student Robert A. Smith, 21, of Lincoln. The Student Association is the official voice of the student body and represents its interests to the university administration. The election took place during the first Student Council meeting of the semester, which was held on October 25, 1956. Wadley, a member of the National Honor Society and a member of the Kappa Delta Chi fraternity, has been active in campus affairs and has served as a member of the Student Senate. He plans to work towards improving student services and facilities and increasing student involvement in campus activities. The Student Association's duties include representing the student body to the university administration, advocating student interests, and organizing events and activities. Wadley's victory is a significant achievement for him and the Student Association, and it is expected to bring positive changes to the university community.
