Ironic as it seems, many of the Huskers have posted the top marks of their careers, yet the Nebraskans are destined to finish near the bottom of the ladder.

For example, senior distance man, Hugh Osmera, has posted times of 4:25.1 in the mile and 1:57.3 in the 880, yet those times

1:57.3 in the 880, yet those times lag far behind such times as posted by Al Frame of Kansas.

Bob Elwood, the sophomore distance runner, has posted the third best two-mile this spring. He ran it in the time of 9:41.

Larry Smith, the Sioux City, lowa senior weight man, who won the discus in 1963, has tossed the platter around the 160-foot mark. Yet ter around the 160-foot mark. Yet a sophomore from KU, Al Oerter, has a toss of 174-3 to his credit. Bob Van Dee of Oklahoma has a throw of 168-8 to his credit.

In the javelin, Dean Brittenham has tossed the spear 199 feet, but this will be offset by such men as-Les Bitner of the Jayhawks, who has the conference's best effort with a heave of 218-6.

The Cornbuskers mile relay team, consisting of Don Ficke, Bob Andersen, Bob Niemann and Charles Gibson, has run the distance in the time of 3:20.9. They bested Iowa State and Kansas Gibson posted his best run in
