

Summer Nebraskaan

Vol. 26, No. 97

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA

Thursday, July 12, 1956

Charm, Beauty:

Caroline Leonetti To Talk At Two Union Programs

Caroline Leonetti, well-known beauty and charm expert will present two programs at the Union next Thursday, at 3 p.m. and at 8 p.m. in the Ballroom.

Although her own Charm School is in Hollywood, Miss Leonetti is well-known throughout the country because of her appearances on Art Linkletter's "House Party," and her own television program "Charm School of the Air."

The techniques which she has developed in her Hollywood school have been so successful that she has been appointed to organize and direct special training programs for many large business firms.

Miss Leonetti has been appointed to many advisory posts: she is department head of psychology of poise and personality development for Marymount College, instructor for the American Institute of Banking, instructor for the Los Angeles Schools Personnel Institute, instructor for the Los Angeles County High School Teachers Association, and has directed special training programs for nurses at the General Hospital in Los Angeles.

In addition to many public lectures, she is active in various charitable groups including the Community Chest, Red Cross, March of Dimes, Welfare Federation of Los Angeles and the John Tracy Clinic. Also, her special project is her work with the Junior Blind Foundation.

According to Bob Handy, Union Activities director, she may give

Friday Luncheon

"Friday International Luncheon" will meet again Friday noon in the Faculty Dining Room of the Union.

Those attending will select their own meals from the menu. Both foreign students and American students may attend.

some hints Thursday as to how she manages all these activities without losing her well-known charm.

The two programs will be a part of the Union series of "Trends in Modern Living."

Diane Knotek: NU Beauty To Appear On 'Friends'

Diane Knotek, University senior who is Nebraska's entry in the Miss America contest, will leave Monday for New York City where she will appear on the Arthur Godfrey "Friends" show on Wednesday.

In the meantime she is appearing in the Lincoln summer opera production of the "Student Prince" in which she plays the feminine lead of Kathie.

The opera, which is held at Pine-wood Bowl in Pioneer Park, will continue through Monday, although Miss Knotek will miss the last night to leave for New York.

During her three years at the University, she appeared in a number of musical productions including the Kosmet Klub show.

August 4 and 5 she will be a guest at the District Jaycees meeting at Columbus.

Then, the first week of September will climax her busy summer, when she goes to Atlantic City to compete in the Miss America contest.

Courtesy Lincoln Star Miss Knotek

Five Numbers:

Summer Sessions Orchestra To Present Concert July 18

The Summer Sessions Orchestra, under the direction of Emanuel Wishnow, will present a concert July 18 at 8 p.m. in the Union Ballroom.

The orchestra, which is composed of about 60 summer school and graduate music students, will perform five numbers.

Opening the concert will be the overture to the opera "Eueyanthe" by Carl Maria Von Weber. The overture, like all of Weber's is closely linked with the principal themes and scenes of the opera.

Mendelssohn's Symphony No. 4 in A major will be performed by the orchestra. This symphony is known as the Italian because its main themes were inspired by Mendelssohn's journey to Italy in 1830.

The second suite of five movements from Rossini, "Mafines Mucules" by Benjamin Britten will follow. The suite, which was written as a part of a ballet, is in five movements: March, Nocturne, Waltz, Pantomime and Moto Perpetuo.

The latter makes fun of the learning of scales and musical intervals as traditionally taught in harmony and theory classes.

Changing moods, the orchestra will present Tragic Overture by Brahms.

According to Wishnow, this is not an overture in the strict sense, in that it is not a piece intended to precede an opera or some other musical work. It's a piece of absolute music not telling a story.

The orchestra will finish the concert with Danse Slave by Chabrier. Chabrier was a Frenchman who wrote most successfully the music of Spain. This piece is reminiscent of his better-known work, "España."

The concert is sponsored by the Union with the co-operation of the School of Music.

Graham:

UN Representative Outlines Program

A United Nations representative Monday afternoon listed a three-fold program as imperative in this atomic age in the pilgrimage of the people for peace.

Dr. Frank P. Graham, United Nations representative for India and Pakistan, outlined the program: "economic development and technical assistance in areas of deepest needs and highest hopes; universal enforceable disarmament; and the peaceful and creative uses of thermonuclear power."

He spoke at the University World Affairs Preview, entitled "The United Nations: Its Work and Its Hope in the Atomic Age."

The first chairman of the Board of the Oak Ridge Institute for Nuclear Research said: "In the very year in which was born the United Nations, atomic power also made its entrance upon the stage of the world."

He called "atomic power in the hands of man in the absolute national state" as one of the most terrible threats "which has come to the existence of the human species on this planet."

Discussing the commercial and industrial revolutions of the 18th and 19th centuries, he said nations "could make slow adjustments and muddle through for the heavy woes and larger weal of the people. But not so in the Atomic Revolution."

"A social lag in the mastery of the Atomic Revolution does not involve the slow processes of centuries for human betterment, but involves international adjustments and controls in present decades for human survival against the immediate potentials of swift and global tragedy for all nations."

Dr. Graham, the former president of North Carolina University, said there is a "widening consciousness of people that a third world war might be started against design by some irresponsible local spark kindled in the global tinder box, or by some local war expanding beyond its boundaries.

"It is the universal prayer of people of all religious communions

Courtesy Sunday Journal and Star Graham

Calendar

- Friday, July 13. "Friday International Luncheon," Faculty Dining Room, Union, noon.
- Summer Opera, "Let's Make An Opera," Union Ballroom, 8 p.m.
- Sunday, July 15. Union Movie, "Home of the Brave," Union Ballroom, 7:30 p.m.
- Monday, July 16. Elementary Ed. Club Luncheon, Union, noon.
- Book Review, "Auntie Mame" by Robert Schlater, Union Book Nook, 4 p.m.
- Tuesday, July 17. Bridge Lessons, Union Parlors A and B, 4 p.m.
- Phi Delta Kappa and Pi Lambda Theta combined dinner meeting, 6:30 p.m.
- Handicraft Lessons, Craft Shop, 7 p.m.
- Wednesday, July 18. Orchestra Concert, Union Ballroom, 8 p.m.
- Air Base Tour, meet at Union, 2:30 p.m.
- Thursday, July 19. Sports Reels on football, Main Lounge, 11:45-12:30.
- World Trouble Spot Forum, Love Library, 2 p.m.
- Handicraft Shop, 7-9 p.m.

Periodical

Film Head:

Mitchell To Visit Campus

A veteran of the communications industry, Maurice Mitchell of Chicago, president of Encyclopaedia Britannica Films, Inc., will visit the University campus Thursday and Friday.

He will deliver a public address Friday at 11 a.m. in Love Library auditorium on "The Role of Films and Other Communicative Media in Higher Education."

Mitchell directs the operation of a unique organization of educational film writers, producers and technicians who produce more than 50 films a year in special studios in Wilmette, Ill. The world's leading educators contribute to the production of these teaching films as collaborators in their subject-matter areas.

He began his professional career in the newspaper field in 1935, and after World War II entered the broadcasting industry as director of press information for the Columbia Broadcasting System in Washington, D.C.

He was elected president of Encyclopaedia Britannica Films in June, 1953. He is author of a number of articles, pamphlets, and recorded lectures on subjects in the communications area.

His visit to the campus is being sponsored by the University's bureau of audio-visual instruction and Summer Sessions.

Journal and Star Courtesy Sunday Mitchell

Craft Lessons

The last of the Handicraft Lessons will be held in the Craft Shop of the Union, Tuesday at 7 p.m.

There is still time to join the class and learn a craft.

and the hope of people in all lands that the muster of nations should decisively shift in time from the lineup of the two worlds with arms and bombs against the family of man to the solidarity of one world of the family of man against arms and bombs."

His visit to the University campus was sponsored by Summer Sessions.

Schlater To Review 'Auntie Mame'

"Aunt Mame" will be reviewed by University television director, Robert Schlater in the Union Faculty Lounge at 4 p.m. Monday.

Schlater will not only review this humorous book, but will act out parts of it as well.

"Auntie Mame" concerns a young man who comes to live with his aunt. Many humorous situations revolve around her efforts to open his eyes to "the facts of life."