Animal Husbandry: New Members Join Ag College Faculty

Three new faculty members of the University Department of Animal Husbandry were introduced to Nebraska swine breeders Friday in conjunction with Rooters Day at the College of Agriculture.

Professor William Loeffel, department chairman, presented Dr. Ernest Peo, Jr., who joined the staff July 23; Dr. Donald H. H. Warren, a member since Aug. 1; and Richard Warren, who joined the faculty Sept. 10.

Dr. Peo and H. Warren will take over the swine nutrition and teaching assignments formerly held by Dr. R. J. Meade and John Hopper.

Dr. Hopper accepted a position in a commercial nutrition laboratory in Chicago earlier this summer. Dr. Meade, a native of Tecumseh, has accepted a position in charge of swine investigations at the University of Minnesota, effective Oct. 20.

Mr. Warren replaces Donald Warner, assistant professor who is taking a year's leave of absence to work on his Doctor of Philosophy degree at Iowa State College.

All the new appointees are assistant professors.

The appointments of Dr. H. Warren and Mr. Warren, the resignation of Dr. Meade, and the leave of absence of Mr. Warner will be presented to the University's Board of Regents Saturday morning.

Jim Reid and end Dick Burns. Reid and Burns are probable starters for the Coyotes. Dryden is in the battle for calling the signals and Walsh might be second string right guard.

Excitement Eliminated For Cornhusker Gridgers

The pep rally was held Thursday evening so that the squad might spend a quiet pre-game evening away from excitement.

The 38-man team will spend tonight at the Paddock Hotel in Beatrice where they will be taped early Saturday.

At 11:30 a.m. tomorrow, the Husker gridgers will leave Beatrice with a police escort and reach Memorial Stadium about 12:45 p.m.

Bill Hawkins, shifted to left half from the tackle position, will start for the Huskers Saturday. Sophomore Larry Naviaux will fill the right half post.

Willie Greenlaw and Bennie Dillard won't compete against the Coyotes tomorrow according to grid boss Pete Elliott.

"I had hoped that either or both would be able to play the game, but neither is physically able," the coach announced.

"Willie may be able to go next week and there's a chance that Bennie will be ready then, too," Elliott added.
