ATO 8, DU 7

Alpha Tau Omega and Delta Upsilon battled to a 7-7 tie Wednesday, but ATO went on to out-ward the DU's in a four-play extra period to win.

Terry Trueblood, sharp shooting tailback, passed to Rod Wolfe in the third quarter for the Tau's lone touchdown. Gunderson got the extra point.

The DU's came back in the fourth period for their touchdown. Merrill "Moose" Mason ran straight up the middle for their score. Moose passed for the extra point.

The win gave the Taus a 1-1 mark for the season. The DU's record now stands at 0-2.

Kappa Sigs 41, B. Palace 6

In Wednesday night action, the Kappa Sigs used the passing combination of Lowe to Dobry to smash an undermanned Brown Palace team 41-6.

Lowe passed to Dobry for four of the Sigs six touchdowns. Bishop and Brand got the other TD's.

The BP's playing against great odds, however, fought hard to the end.

Phi Delta 12, Sigma Chi 0

The Phi Deltas bounced back from the defeat that they suffered at the hands of the Sig Eps last week, to defeat the Sig Chis 12-0.

The game was mostly a defensive battle with both teams hurt by poor receiving and pass interceptions.

Jacobs passed to Cottrell for one touchdown. Leonard got the other touchdown for the Phi Deltas.

Phi Psis 20, Betas 16

In a battle of the giants played Tuesday Phi Kappa Psi edged Beta Theta Pi 20-16.

Both teams had previously been undefeated and unscored upon.

The Phi Psis, defending All-Fraternity and All-University champions, saw their goal line crossed for the first time, but extended their win streak to three.

The Betas had won two games before being defeated.

The Betas started off fast and appeared to be on their way to a third victory before the Phi Psis began to stop the passing of O'Hanlan.

On the first series of plays the Betas moved rapidly downfield behind the fine passing of Jim O'Hanlan. On the third play of the game O'Hanlan pitched to Gary Epley for 6 points. O'Hanlan passed for the extra point.

The Phi Psis were hampered in the first part of the quarter by the fine rushing of Sam Jensen. This time the drive was cut short by John Heassler.

Now it was the Psis turn to score. Jack Irwin, who filled in for Jim Good, threw to Ron Svoboda.

Irwin again found Svoboda open and hit him for the extra point.

Late in the second quarter O'Hanlan again threw for a touchdown this time to Butch Place.

The half ended with the Betas leading 13-7.

On the first play of the third quarter Heassler intercepted one of O'Hanlan's passes and ran all the way untouched for the TD.

Late in the third quarter the Phi Psis made a fine goal line stand. O'Hanlan had moved his team to the five yard line. But, fine defensive work on the part of Kem Billings and Quink Moore kept the Betas from scoring their third touchdown.

The Psis rolled to their third TD on another pass play Irwin to Svoboda.

Boy Eyth took Irwin's pass for the extra point.

The Betas were again stopped short of a touchdown when the Phi Psis held on the five yard line.

The Phi Psis took over on the five, but a bad pass from center cost them a safety.

Both teams were hampered by the absence of several key players.

O'Hanlan and Jensen were the mainstays of a fine Beta team. For the Phi Psis the defensive work of Billing and Moore was terrific.

Other Games

Thursday night action found Newman Club defeating Delta Sigma Pi 12-0.

In other action Methodist Student House forfeited to Navy ROTC and Tau Kappa Epsilon won a 1-0 forfeit victory from Norris House.

Delta Tau Delta appeared to be a shoo-in, in the loser's bracket, after a sound 20-0 victory over the Phi Gammis Friday.

In Selleck Quad play Monday, Mac Lean beat Seaton 19-0.

In another game, Theta Chi forfeited to the Zeta Beta Taus.

Presby House lambasted Phi Epsilon Kappa 35-0 to chalk up their second win of the season. They have lost one.

The Phi Kappas usually a powerhouse in independent play appears headed for one of the poorest seasons in recent years.

In another important game played Wednesday, the Sig Eps knocked the Sig Alphas from the unbeaten ranks by the score of 12-6.

Other games found Alpha Gamma Rho defeating the Ag Men 19-6 and Acacia Fraternity edging Pi Kappa Phi 6-0.

In a tight ball game played

Wednesday Alpha Tau Omega lost a heart breaker to the Phi Deltas 7-6.

The Taus got their 6 points on a pass from Terry Trueblood to Rod Wolfe.

Rex Ekwall Named As Captain For 1956-57 Basketball Season

By BOB WIRZ
Staff Sports Writer

Rex Ekwall, 6'4" center from Holmesville, has been named to lead the 1956-57 Nebraska basketball team.

The big guy is one of eight lettermen returning for the Huskers. As a sophomore in 1954 Ekwall was a regular and was one of the big guns for Jerry Bush in his first year as coach of the Huskies.

Last year Ekwall played an excellent brand of ball and at the close of the season was chosen as a member of the All-Big Seven team.

This is quite an honor for anyone and he did the trick despite the fact that he had to fight off a cold the biggest part of the season. Ekwall also won honorable mention on some All-American teams across the nation.

Bush is expecting great things of him in his senior year. The coach said that he should be a great leader for the Husker five this year. His experience and great desire make him a very capable leader.

Ekwall and seventeen other capable hoopsters began their workouts this week. The squad is still working mainly on conditioning and fundamentals in the early workouts.

Bush said the squad are all looking very good for this early in the workouts. One big difference in the team this year should be that five lettermen who last year were sophomores have picked up some very valuable experience.

The coaches seem to think that some of them who were very nervous and tense last year have picked up a lot of poise.

Bush said that a lot of the success of the squad would depend on the development of the big guys as Ron Parsons of Cleveland, Ohio; Bob Harry, of York; and Terry Howard, of Elkhorn. Parsons and Harry are both sophomores while Howard saw limited action last

NU Non-Conference Test: Big 7 Conference Standings To Undergo Slight Change

BIG SEVEN TEAM STANDINGS
CONFERENCE GAMES
Team	Won	Lost	Tied	Points
Colorado	1	0	0	1,500
Oklahoma	1	0	0	1,500
Kansas	1	0	0	1,500
Nebraska	1	0	0	1,500
Kansas State	1	0	0	1,500
Iowa State	0	0	0	0
Missouri	0	0	0	0

THIS WEEK'S SCHEDULE
Oct. 20 Indiana at Nebraska
Missouri at Kansas State
Colorado at Iowa State
Oklahoma at Kansas

By BOB MARTEL
Staff Sports Writer

With Nebraska the only team playing a non-conference club, the Big Seven standings should undergo a slight change this weekend.

The first place Colorado Buffs will journey to Ames, Iowa, to oppose the last place Iowa State Cyclones. From a Cyclone point of view there has been little joy in the past two meetings, Colorado winning 20-0 and 40-0. The Buffs, riding along as surprise leaders in the conference, have defeated Kansas State 34-0 and Kansas 26-25.

Iowa State has been beaten by Nebraska 9-7 and Kansas 25-14. In both losing causes, the Cyclones looked good but were beaten by last minute tallies. Colorado is a point favorite to annex its third straight conference victory.

The nation's number one football squad will descend upon Lawrence, Kansas, tomorrow to buck heads with Chuck Mather's University of Kansas eleven.

The Oklahoma Sooners, just a jump ahead of an excellent Michigan State team this week in the national ratings, approach the Kansas tiff protecting three precious consecutives: 54 conference games in a row without defeat, 109-straight scored in, and 33 consecutive victories.

The Sooners have only one Big Seven tilt under their belt in which they dumped Kansas State 65-0. The Jayhawkers have a one and one conference record on the season. They dropped a close one to Colorado 26-25 and defeated Iowa State 26-14 last week in Ames. Oklahoma is an odds on favorite to whip the Jayhawkers.

The "close one" of the weekend should be at Manhattan, Kansas, where Missouri tangles with Kansas State. Don Faurot's Missouri eleven will be playing their first Big Seven contest of the season. In non-league battles, the Tigers have defeated North Dakota State, 42-0, while losing to Oregon State 19-13, Purdue 16-7 and SMU 33-27.

Against Purdue and SMU, the Tigers have gained more yardage than Notre Dame did against the same two clubs. Kansas State has won one and lost two in Big Seven play.

The Wildcats lost to Colorado 34-0 and Oklahoma 66-0 but rebounded with a surprise win over Nebraska last weekend in Lincoln. The Missouri-Kansas State contest is rated a toss up.

Four High Schools Awarded Trophies

Four high schools were awarded N Club scholarship trophies for the school year of 1955-'56, Bill Orwig, athletic director at the university, announced.

The winners were Walton, Dodge, Neligh and Lexington.

Awards are made on the basis of a comparison of the grades of the school's lettermen figured against the average grade of the total enrollment.

In each instance, the athletes of the winning schools had higher grade averages than the school average.

The N Club scholarship trophies were first awarded in 1927. They were given annually until 1943-'44 and then discontinued because of the war. The awards were revived a year ago.
