

Final Home Game:

Five Seniors On Starting Eleven

By BOB MARTEL
Staff Sports Writer

The Nebraska Cornhuskers will go hunting again tomorrow. The past two Saturdays they were successful in bagging the big Missouri Tiger and shooting down the Kansas Jayhawk.

This week the rifle arms of George Harshman, Willie Greenlaw and Frank Nappi will be aimed at the gigantic Baylor Bear.

The hunt will be confined to the limits of Memorial Stadium and the initial encounter should occur at 2 P.M. The Baylor squad, still in the running for a bowl bid, will be invading Lincoln for the second time. They roared into Capitol City back in 1939 and were "skinned" 20-0 by a razor sharp Nebraska eleven.

Husker football fans will get a chance to see two of the Southwest Conference's most highly regarded All-America candidates in tomorrow's Parent's Day battle. One of the pair, Bill Glass, giant Baylor guard, will make many of the All-America teams on his consistent great play. Left Halfback Del Shofner is remembered by Midwest fans for his track work last spring.

Glass, a massive 6 foot 5 and 230 pounds, is Baylor's swiftest and most agile lineman, and, like Shofner among the backs, probably should be rated as the most versatile lineman Baylor ever has produced.

Shofner, the team's leading scorer, is a very versatile ball player. He gave up his chance for All-America honors by agreeing to alternate between halfback and end. Shofner has been used a great deal as an offensive end and is Baylor's leading pass receiver.

Quarterback Doyle Traylor, who has been injured during most of his football career, is fully recovered and will be ready to go against the Huskers. An excellent ball handler and accurate passer, Traylor has been very successful at directing the Bear's offense.

Pete Elliott has announced that there will be no changes in the starting lineup when the Huskers take the field against their inter-sectional foes.

The same backfield combination of Harshman, Greenlaw, Nappi and Jerry Brown will be carrying the leather for the Big Red.

Nappi and Greenlaw remain definite threats due to the puzzling option plays which Nebraska has been able to capitalize on the past two Saturdays. Both are hard runners, accurate passers and able receivers, which have prevented the opposition from setting up any sort of definite defensive formation to counter this tricky option play.

Brown, third in Big Seven rushing statistics, is the Husker bread and butter man. He hasn't found a line this year that he couldn't crack. When Nebraska needs a couple of yards for a first down, Brown is the man that usually gets them.

The Nebraska forward wall will comprise of Stu Howerter and Marling Hilding at the ends, Jack Fleming and Don Kampe at the tackles, Jim Murphy and Laverne Torczon at the guards and Bob Berguin at center.

Tomorrow's contest will mark the last home appearance of eight Nebraska seniors.

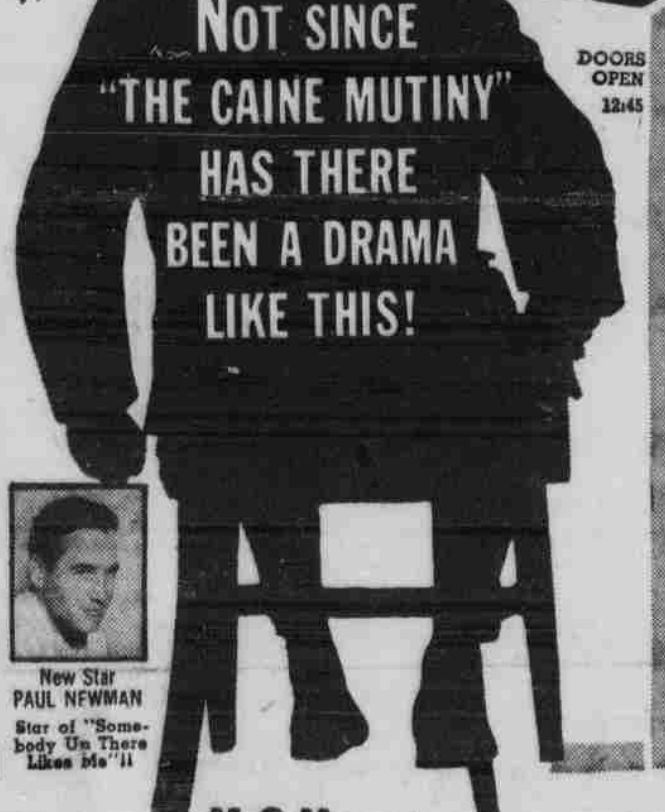

Fleming, Greenlaw, Berguin, Torczon, Murphy, Gordie Englert, Max Kitzelman and Larry Jones will graduate in June.
