games during the 1956 campaign. They went through the tough "A" Fraternity League unbeaten, a feat seldom accomplished. The only close games on the Ep schedule was a tight squeeze past the Phi Psis 6-0 and the win over the Dents.

In Wednesday's game, Gene Souponchick again provided the spark for the Eps. He passed for two touchdowns and ran for the other. One of his passes was to Rich Mason. Mason has caught seven touchdown passes during the three play-off games. The other TD pass was to Don Appleby. Soup ran for the Sig Eps other touch-

Equally brilliant was the Dent's Phil Eyen. He passed for two touchdowns and kept the Ep defense on their toes.

The Eps scored a touchdown and extra point in the first quarter to lead at the quarter 7-0. But, the Dents came right back and scored 6 points on a touchdown pass from Eyen. The half ended 7-6 Sig Eps. Both the Eps and the Dents added
