

Third Place At Stake:

Husker Squad Off To Ames; Face Hot And Cold Cyclones

By BOB WIRZ Staff Sports Writer Coach Jerry Bush and his Nebraska basketball team leave today for Ames, Iowa and their important Big Seven contest against Iowa State.

Nebraska must also win the game to remain above the .500 mark overall. The Huskers are 9-8 in all games so far and 3-3 in loop play.

thus far to defeat Dick Harp's Kansas Jayhawks.

Iowa State coach Bill Strannigan has indicated that changes will be made for the Cornhusker tilt in order to bolster the team offense.

Forward Chuck Vogt and center Don Medsker have each scored 143 points so far this season.

Thompson's running mate at guard Lyle Frahm is the number three Cyclone scorer for this season with 206 markers.

Also expected to see service for Strannigan's crew are 6'7" reserve center John Krochieski and forward Gary Davis.

Bush will probably go with his starting five much of the way. Gary Reimers and Rex Ekwall continue to lead the Huskers in scoring.

needs only 39 more points in the six remaining games to become Nebraska's all time scoring leader.

He has racked up a total of 783 points in three years as compared to Jim Buchanan's record of 821.

The much improved Lyle Nannen will again be the other Husker starting guard post.

The Huskers return home Monday night to entertain Kansas State.

Jim Denton . . . Oklahoma hurdler expected to give Keith Gardner a run for his money in the low hurdles.

Records Should Fall:

Thinclads Gamble Record

Coach Frank Sevine's cinder crew will play host to the Oklahoma thinclads this Saturday as the Sooners will be trying to accomplish what no other Big Seven Indoor track team has been able to do thus far this season.

Other strong contenders for posting blue ribbons for the Husker squad are Don Ficke, 440 yard run; Lee Carter, two mile; Ken Pollard, pole vault.

Nebraska's shot put hopes were bolstered when Clarence Cook, Nebraska football end, reported for duty this week.

The Oklahoma crew will be returning to Lincoln with Jim Denton, Bill Pritchett, Phil Frazier, Gary Parr, Dick Dudley, and George Church who are all returning veterans who scored points in last year's meet.

On the Husker side of the picture, we find many of the thinclads capable of setting new records. Among these are Bob Elwood, miler; Keith Gardener, hurdler and sprinter, who will have a race on his hands when he meets Phil Frazier in the high hurdles.

Playoffs Nearing:

Betas, Canfield, Newmanites Lead Respective Loops

By DEL RASMUSSEN Staff Sports Writer

With the Intramural Basketball tourney coming up March 4, the basketeers of their respective teams are hustling to improve their league status as to compete in the coming playoffs.

As the season draws to a close many of the leagues are becoming tighter but in others, the lead teams outclass by far the rest of the competitive cagers. The most outstanding of these teams is the A-Chemists of Independent League 14 who seem to be by far the best team in their league.

The tight race of all the Leagues seems to be the 4A Fraternity League where the top four teams still have a chance to come out on top of the heap.

These four teams are Delta Tau Delta and Delta Upsilon who are presently tied for the lead position, Phi Gamma Delta who is holding third place and the Alpha Tau Omega cagers who are bringing up fourth position.

The completion of the standings:

Table of league standings for League 2 A Selleck, League 4-A Fraternity, and League 5-A Fraternity.

Table of league standings for League 8 B Fraertrnity and League 9 B Fraternity.

Wrestlers Hit Road:

Matmen, Swimmers, Gymnasts Face Top Foes On Weekend

By STAN WIDMAN Staff Sports Writer

This weekend will again be a busy one for the wrestlers, swimmers and the gymnasts.

The boys will be trying for their second win of the season, the first coming at the expense of South Dakota State here in Lincoln last week.

Others making the trip will be Jack Bryans, 177 pounds, John Anderson 167 pounds, Norm Cooper, 157 pounds, and Gail Baum, 137 pounds.

On Saturday, the Husker tankmen will meet Minnesota in the Coliseum pool.

er and Captain LaRue Johnson, backstroke.

The Husker gymnasts will meet Kansas State on Saturday here in Lincoln.

The Huskers will be trying for their fourth win in five meets, their only loss coming last week to Iowa.

Husker Frosh To Race; Mullins Lauded In 660

Joe Mullins, Mike Fleming, Ken Ash, Bill Melody and Rick McVickers will run a Special 660 yards race as an added attraction to the Oklahoma-Nebraska track meet.

Six weeks ago in a workout, Mullins sped the distance in 1:23. With six weeks more work under their belt, Sevine feels the boys will be much sharper.
