Presby Chapel

Outside brick and stone work on the University Presbyterian Chapel goes into place on the $110,000 building, planned for completion and dedication at Easter. The building will house a chapel seating 300, a social hall, recreation room, stage, kitchen and administrative offices. In the background is the Presbyterian-Congregational Student house. Both buildings are for the use of Congregational and Presbyterian university students.

College Episcopal Hold State Meeting

Representatives from five Nebraska colleges met at the University Episcopal Church Friday and Saturday to initiate a unified program for the work of Episcopal Church on Nebraska campuses.

Professor Roma King of the Kansas City University English department led the discussion on the "Challenge from Without" and the "Challenge from Within" the Church. Through this discussion, King made his listeners realize that as individuals they must become shapers of thought patterns along with others such as C. S. Lewis and T. S. Elliot.

At the close of the conference Dr. Ralph Wardle of the University of Omaha led a discussion of recommendations to be made to the Diocesan Committee on College Education.

Premier: NU Singers, Orchestra To Give Elegy Thursday

The University Singers with the University Symphony Orchestra will present the premier performance of the "Elegy for a Dead Soldier" at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the Union ballroom.

This theme of the elegy combined with the musical production produces a new and unusual work. Faculty member instrumental in creating this work are Robert Beadell, composer, who instructs composition and theory at the University; Karl Shapiro, professor of English and author of the Pulitzer Prize winning poem which forms the text of the elegy, Dr. David Foltz, conductor of the Thursday performance and University Singers and Jack Snider, assistant professor of Music, who has helped direct the orchestra.

The Elegy is based on the burial of a soldier in the tropics. The middle of the elegy deals with the retrospect, that is, it tells what kind of a person the soldier was. The final portion of the elegy is climaxed with the proposed epitaph of this soldier.

Soloist for the Elegy is Leon Lishner, bass.

The Singers will appear for the first time with a "new look" according to Dr. Foltz. The girls will wear specialized-created black velveteen cocktail dresses that correspond to the V-neck outline of the boys' tuxedos. "The dresses should present a striking appearance and appear as glossy as any major group on campus," Foltz said.

A committee of three chose the design of the dresses and then Taylor Crafts of Lincoln created the dress material.

Beadell wrote the musical score for the 28 minute performance in a month and a half. He has written other works for orchestras, chorals and bands. Beadell said when asked the question if he had ever considered becoming a composer as a profession "that only on a University campus could one make a living as a composer. It is too hard in the big time."

Truckers Can Lose U.S. Permit In Hot Cargo Case

An examiner has recommended that the Interstate Commerce Commission move to cancel operating permits of truck lines refusing to handle freight labeled "hot cargo" by the Teamsters Union. A "hot cargo" clause is incorporated in most Teamsters' Union labor contracts. Under such clauses, employers agree their workers may refuse to handle goods held by the union to be "unfair" or "hot." Unions use these terms to describe goods coming from establishments involved in labor controversy.

move was the result of administrative approval in Washington, D. C.

Huge Price Tag

A price tag of 73 million dollars has been placed on the section of the Interstate Highway from the Missouri River in Omaha to one mile west of the Lancaster-Seward County line. This estimate was included in a preliminary engineering report of the J. E. Greiner Co., consulting engineers of Baltimore, Md.

Claim Army Weak

A former Army intelligence officer and civilian employee claims the Army is so "shockingly weak" it would face "epic disasters" in any kind of war. The officer, Garrett Underhill, listed in a story for Esquire magazine item after item in an effort to show that the Army lags behind Russia in weapons tactics and organization — and in some cases even behind Israel and Switzerland.

Post Office Moves

April 20th has been set as the target date for the beginning of the move of the Post Office District office in Lincoln to its new site in Omaha, according to John Barkebile, assistant to the regional director in Wichita. The move is designed for economy and faster service of the mail, Barkebile said. The decision to make the
