

End Home Stand:

Nebraska Wins 9-4; Gleason Wins First

By BOB WIRZ

Staff Sports Writer

Nebraska baseball coach Tony Sharpe shifted his lineup yesterday and some of the younger squad members responded in good fashion. The final outcome had the Huskers winning a 9-4 game from Drake and an even break in the two game series. Drake won the Monday game 7-2 in 14 innings.

Sophomore hurler Bob Gleason picked up his first win of the season. Gleason started on the mound for Nebraska and hurled six innings giving up six hits and four runs. Two of the marksmen came on a long home run blast by third baseman Jim Deets with John Frazee on first base in the sixth inning. This was Gleason's second start of the season and he racked up six strike outs in the six frames that he worked. Another sophomore Dwight Siebler came on for the Huskers in the seventh and did not allow a Drake hit the final three innings.

Nebraska rounded out the scoring with a four run burst in the seventh. All Nebraska runs were scored at the expense of Drake starter Bill Fain. He was lifted in favor of lefty Dale Bennett in the seventh inning upsurge. Bennett had been working in the bull pen most of the afternoon as well as most of the time yesterday and Gene Torczon greeted him with a long double to left.

The contest was halted for about ten minutes after the seventh inning when Lincoln was blessed by a short thunder shower.

Nebraska's next appearance will be May 19-21 at Columbia, Missouri. Oklahoma will visit Nebraska May 17-18.

Golfers Face Wildcats; Tied In Last Encounter

The Cornhusker golfers swing into action this afternoon when they take on the Kansas State aggregation here in Lincoln.

This marks the third year for Bush, Nebraska's varsity basketball coach, as coach of the Husker golf team. Bush is a long ball hitter in golf, and coached the sport at Toledo before coming here.

Last season, the Cornhuskers had a 6-6, win-loss-tied dual meet record. The 1957 Big Seven Tournament will be held in Lincoln on May 16-17-18.

	1957 Nebraska Varsity Class	Golf Roster	Hometown
Bauman, Keith	Sr.	Tidmarsh	Ag
Berge, Pete	Sr.	Norfolk	Ag
Butterfield, John	Sr.	Norfolk	Ag
Christenson,	Sr.
Wright, G.	Sr.	Lincoln
Epley, Gary	Sr.	Des Moines, Ia.
Fitzgerald, Don	Jr.	North Platte
Hannan, Bill	Jr.	Lincoln
Kline, Tom	Jr.	O'Neill
Lindberg, Ted	Soph.	Lincoln
McCutcheon, Mike	Soph.	Lincoln
Miller, Tom	Soph.	Falls City
Miller, Jerry	Jr.	Grand Island
Moore, Jack	Jr.	Lincoln
Stuart, Ken	Soph.	Lincoln
Treadway, Don	Sr.	Kearney
*Letters won.

*Letters won.

"My goal for the future is 200 feet," says KU's Al Oerter. He is talking about the discus. How he plans to do it, no one knows, but he believes that he can do it.

The 6-3, 222-pound junior from New Hyde Park, N. Y., now holds the Olympic title with a heave of 184 feet 10 1/2 inches.

Oerter is not alone in his confidence. The KU Daily Kansan says "A 200-foot discus might be considered today just as improbable as the 4-minute mile was a few years ago . . . but Kansas might have the man who can accomplish this feat."

Strictly Sportstalk

By BOB MARTEL

Sports Editor

The University of Oklahoma spring football report arrived at the office over the weekend. The Sooner brass is taking no chances and lists the 1957 outlook as "uncertain."

Wilkinson has lost 18 lettermen, seven of whom were starters. Gone are quarterback Jimmy Harris, left halfback Tommy McDonald, fullback Billy Pricer, left tackle Ed Gray, center Jerry Tubbs, right tackle Tom Emerson and right end John Bell. Also Wayne Greenlee, starting left tackle, who broke his leg in the opening North Carolina game. The Oklahoma coach will have to build his team around left end Don Stiller, left guard Joe Ojesky, right guard Bill Krisher and right halfback Clendon Thomas.

In addition to Big Seven schools, the Oklahoma 1957 schedule will include Pittsburgh, Texas, Notre Dame and Oklahoma A&M. Sensors-Redoxa PA . . .

The player swap between the Washington Senators and the Boston Red Sox could be beneficial to both teams. The Senators have one of the better fielding shortstops in the majors in their lineup, but Milt Bolling would insert a little more batting punch. Faye Throneberry, a good hitter was very popular in Boston, and could become the key player in the deal should playing regularly agree with him. Russ Kemmerer, who spent last year with San Francisco, is just an incidental in the deal, although he can do nothing but help the sagging Washington pitching staff.

As far as "Pinky" Higgins is concerned, Dean Stone is the man the Bosox skipper is really interested in. What with only two left-handers on the roster, the 26 year old southpaw should step into a regular starting assignment. As far as I'm concerned, Bob Chakales will be the big surprise for Higgins. Chakales was quite busy as a reliever last summer as he was called upon time and time again by Charlie Dressen to try and save the floundering Senators. On paper it looks like the Senators have the best of the trade, but you can never tell in baseball.

Big Surprise . . .

Everyone concerned received a stiff jolt at the Drake-Nebraska baseball game Monday afternoon. The Drake squad consisted of only 12 men dressed in battered uniforms. The first impression I got was that Tony Sharpe would have a hard time keeping the score down. After I found out that the leading hitter was left at home, I was ready for an overwhelming Nebraska victory.

Once the game got rolling, however, it was a different story. Drake took advantage of their scoring opportunities and fought the Huskers on even terms for 13 innings. In the fourteenth inning, Drake tallied five times to pull the big upset.

A big pat on the back is in order for Bulldog pitcher Frank Anderson, who went the route to pick up his first win of the season. He was very effective and seemed to get stronger as he went along. Dean Flock and Jim Kubacki hurled creditable ball for the Huskers, but you can't win ball games when you boot the ball around or take a third strike when you have runners in scoring position.

Courtesy Lincoln Journal

Husker Vaulter

Nebraska Thinelad Readies for Conference Meet . . . Ken Pollard, Nebraska Pole Vaulter, is getting ready to display his talents before the home crowd when the Husker host the Big Seven Track Meet on May 17 and 18. Pollard, only a sophomore, is rapidly improving and should eventually become one of Frank Sevigne's brighter track stars.

Nelson Second:

Phil Hall Wins Meet; Named I-M Gym Champ

By MIKE LOUGH

I-M Sports Editor

Phi Epsilon Kappa ran away with the team championship at the Intramural Gymnastics meet held last Friday. The Phi Eps compiled 3018 points to knock out second place Presby House which came through with 2737 points.

Phil Hall of Presby House pocketed the individual championship ahead of Darrell Nelson, an independent who took second and third place Jerry Landwehr, a Phi Ep.

In Side House competition, Dick Byers, another independent finished ahead of second and third place Landwehr and Hall. Hall coppered another first in tumbling. The tumbling field included Don Ellison of Presby House at second and Landwehr in the third slot.

Nelson forged out in front on the horizontal bar. Hall finished second and there was a third place tie between Ellison and Paul Heffelfinger, who added more bacon to the Phi Ep score.

Landwehr got his first place on the parallel bar. Hall and Nelson were second and third, respectively. Hall showed his bouncing skill on the trampoline as he nudged second man Byers and a Phi Ep, Bill Wax.

Bill Black, the third independent scorer skinned the rope climb in top time. He was followed by Ellison and Byers, in that order. The meet was originally scheduled for April 6 but was postponed because of a conflict with All Sports Day.

Bobby Dobbs in football and Bill Strannigan in basketball will be the guest coaches at the annual Nebraska Coaching School to be held at the University of Nebraska August 12-14.

Dobbs, for the past three years head coach at the University of Tulsa, is a former backfield coach for Col. Earl Blaik at West Point.

In Side House competition, Dick Byers, another independent finished ahead of second and third place Landwehr and Hall. Hall coppered another first in tumbling. The tumbling field included Don Ellison of Presby House at second and Landwehr in the third slot.

Nelson forged out in front on the horizontal bar. Hall finished second and there was a third place tie between Ellison and Paul Heffelfinger, who added more bacon to the Phi Ep score.

Landwehr got his first place on the parallel bar. Hall and Nelson were second and third, respectively. Hall showed his bouncing skill on the trampoline as he nudged second man Byers and a Phi Ep, Bill Wax.

Bill Black, the third independent scorer skinned the rope climb in top time. He was followed by Ellison and Byers, in that order. The meet was originally scheduled for April 6 but was postponed because of a conflict with All Sports Day.

Bobby Dobbs in football and Bill Strannigan in basketball will be the guest coaches at the annual Nebraska Coaching School to be held at the University of Nebraska August 12-14.

Dobbs, for the past three years head coach at the University of Tulsa, is a former backfield coach for Col. Earl Blaik at West Point.

In Side House competition, Dick Byers, another independent finished ahead of second and third place Landwehr and Hall. Hall coppered another first in tumbling. The tumbling field included Don Ellison of Presby House at second and Landwehr in the third slot.

Nelson forged out in front on the horizontal bar. Hall finished second and there was a third place tie between Ellison and Paul Heffelfinger, who added more bacon to the Phi Ep score.

Landwehr got his first place on the parallel bar. Hall and Nelson were second and third, respectively. Hall showed his bouncing skill on the trampoline as he nudged second man Byers and a Phi Ep, Bill Wax.

Bill Black, the third independent scorer skinned the rope climb in top time. He was followed by Ellison and Byers, in that order. The meet was originally scheduled for April 6 but was postponed because of a conflict with All Sports Day.

Bobby Dobbs in football and Bill Strannigan in basketball will be the guest coaches at the annual Nebraska Coaching School to be held at the University of Nebraska August 12-14.

Dobbs, for the past three years head coach at the University of Tulsa, is a former backfield coach for Col. Earl Blaik at West Point.

In Side House competition, Dick Byers, another independent finished ahead of second and third place Landwehr and Hall. Hall coppered another first in tumbling. The tumbling field included Don Ellison of Presby House at second and Landwehr in the third slot.

Nelson forged out in front on the horizontal bar. Hall finished second and there was a third place tie between Ellison and Paul Heffelfinger, who added more bacon to the Phi Ep score.

Landwehr got his first place on the parallel bar. Hall and Nelson were second and third, respectively. Hall showed his bouncing skill on the trampoline as he nudged second man Byers and a Phi Ep, Bill Wax.

Bill Black, the third independent scorer skinned the rope climb in top time. He was followed by Ellison and Byers, in that order. The meet was originally scheduled for April 6 but was postponed because of a conflict with All Sports Day.

Bobby Dobbs in football and Bill Strannigan in basketball will be the guest coaches at the annual Nebraska Coaching School to be held at the University of Nebraska August 12-14.

Dobbs, for the past three years head coach at the University of Tulsa, is a former backfield coach for Col. Earl Blaik at West Point.

In Side House competition, Dick Byers, another independent finished ahead of second and third place Landwehr and Hall. Hall coppered another first in tumbling. The tumbling field included Don Ellison of Presby House at second and Landwehr in the third slot.

Nelson forged out in front on the horizontal bar. Hall finished second and there was a third place tie between Ellison and Paul Heffelfinger, who added more bacon to the Phi Ep score.

Landwehr got his first place on the parallel bar. Hall and Nelson were second and third, respectively. Hall showed his bouncing skill on the trampoline as he nudged second man Byers and a Phi Ep, Bill Wax.

Bill Black, the third independent scorer skinned the rope climb in top time. He was followed by Ellison and Byers, in that order. The meet was originally scheduled for April 6 but was postponed because of a conflict with All Sports Day.

Bobby Dobbs in football and Bill Strannigan in basketball will be the guest coaches at the annual Nebraska Coaching School to be held at the University of Nebraska August 12-14.

Dobbs, for the past three years head coach at the University of Tulsa, is a former backfield coach for Col. Earl Blaik at West Point.

In Side House competition, Dick Byers, another independent finished ahead of second and third place Landwehr and Hall. Hall coppered another first in tumbling. The tumbling field included Don Ellison of Presby House at second and Landwehr in the third slot.

Nelson forged out in front on the horizontal bar. Hall finished second and there was a third place tie between Ellison and Paul Heffelfinger, who added more bacon to the Phi Ep score.

Landwehr got his first place on the parallel bar. Hall and Nelson were second and third, respectively. Hall showed his bouncing skill on the trampoline as he nudged second man Byers and a Phi Ep, Bill Wax.

Bill Black, the third independent scorer skinned the rope climb in top time. He was followed by Ellison and Byers, in that order. The meet was originally scheduled for April 6 but was postponed because of a conflict with All Sports Day.

Bobby Dobbs in football and Bill Strannigan in basketball will be the guest coaches at the annual Nebraska Coaching School to be held at the University of Nebraska August 12-14.

Dobbs, for the past three years head coach at the University of Tulsa, is a former backfield coach for Col. Earl Blaik at West Point.

In Side House competition, Dick Byers, another independent finished ahead of second and third place Landwehr and Hall. Hall coppered another first in tumbling. The tumbling field included Don Ellison of Presby House at second and Landwehr in the third slot.

Nelson forged out in front on the horizontal bar. Hall finished second and there was a third place tie between Ellison and Paul Heffelfinger, who added more bacon to the Phi Ep score.

Landwehr got his first place on the parallel bar. Hall and Nelson were second and third, respectively. Hall showed his bouncing skill on the trampoline as he nudged second man Byers and a Phi Ep, Bill Wax.

Bill Black, the third independent scorer skinned the rope climb in top time. He was followed by Ellison and Byers, in that order. The meet was originally scheduled for April 6 but was postponed because of a conflict with All Sports Day.

Bobby Dobbs in football and Bill Strannigan in basketball will be the guest coaches at the annual Nebraska Coaching School to be held at the University of Nebraska August 12-14.

Dobbs, for the past three years head coach at the University of Tulsa, is a former backfield coach for Col. Earl Blaik at West Point.

In Side House competition, Dick Byers, another independent finished ahead of second and third place Landwehr and Hall. Hall coppered another first in tumbling. The tumbling field included Don Ellison of Presby House at second and Landwehr in the third slot.

Nelson forged out in front on the horizontal bar. Hall finished second and there was a third place tie between Ellison and Paul Heffelfinger, who added more bacon to the Phi Ep score.

Landwehr got his first place on the parallel bar. Hall and Nelson were second and third, respectively. Hall showed his bouncing skill on the trampoline as he nudged second man Byers and a Phi Ep, Bill Wax.

Bill Black, the third independent scorer skinned the rope climb in top time. He was followed by Ellison and Byers, in that order. The meet was originally scheduled for April 6 but was postponed because of a conflict with All Sports Day.

Bobby Dobbs in football and Bill Strannigan in basketball will be the guest coaches at the annual Nebraska Coaching School to be held at the University of Nebraska August 12-14.

Dobbs, for the past three years head coach at the University of Tulsa, is a former backfield coach for Col. Earl Blaik at West Point.

In Side House competition, Dick By