'Howdy Neighbor'

Ag Union To Feature Fall Dance

Movies, campus organizational displays and a dance will be featured at the Ag Union's Fall Roundup, Friday at 8 p.m., in the College Activities Building.

The event, which is open to the public, will begin with a reception line composed of University administration personnel, Ag College faculty members, the Union Board of Managers and Ag Innocents and Mortar Boards.

Short films in color and sound will be shown in the TV Lounge. Troy Fuchser is in charge of the showings. Movies to be shown include: "Begone Dull Care", "Bronco Busters", "Pheasant Fever" and "Grand Canyon".

Ag organizations will have displays set up in the Gym.

The dance will begin at 9 p.m. in the gym. Bill Albers' Orchestra will provide the music. Intermission entertainment will be a trio consisting of Shirley Chab, Sharon Hoska and Sandra Sobolick.

Roger Wehrbein and Nola Obermire are in charge of refreshments for the evening. Committee chairmen for the open house are Bill Spilker, Ag Union Board chairman; Gary Briggs, dance; Don Schick, entertainment; Marilyn Jensen, hospitality; Chris Johannsen, publicity; and Keith Claubius, student-faculty.

Planning committee members include: Miss Jensen, Mrs. Kathryn Peters, Ag Union Activities Director, LaVonne Rogers and JoAnne Fahrbruch.

PERSONAL—Are you dead after Exam week? Bring your corpse to the Sigma Nu "Monster Rally" Saturday night at sundown. If we can't reanimate your spirit we guarantee a decent burial. A spirited combo will offer music for the undead.

Different Tastes
By now, I'm sure all education majors will know what I'm talking about when I mention the term "individual differences". (If you don't you better look it up because it's bound to be on a test). Anyway, that's the topic of the day. (Individual differences, not tests)
You See King's Drive-In's have provided for these individual differences by offering different foods to satisfy different tastes. Some people for instance, would rather have a creamed orange and french fried onion rings (not together, perhaps) instead of a rootbeer float and french fried potatoes. And they can get these foods at any time at Kings.
Try all the different foods now at Kings!

Honorary Producer Candidates Named

Names of candidates for University Theatre's Honorary Producer campaign were released yesterday by Joe Hill, student head of the contest.

According to Hill, "The number of houses entered in the campaign has been gratifying, and we hope that the competition will be of benefit to both the houses and to the theatre."

cock House, Gary Miller; Kappa Sigma, Ken McCallop; Bessey House, Dale Knotek; Alpha Tau Omega, Steve Leeper; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Jim Roman; Theta Chi, Frank Gillen; Delta Tau Delta, Dave Pennington, Acacia, Bart Bredenkamp.

The Honorary Producer campaign is decided on the basis of the number of tickets sold in proportion to the membership of the house. Last year's winners were Phyllis Chard, Alpha Xi Delta, and Larry Carstenson, Theta Xi. Details of the presentation, which will be in conjunction with University Theatre's first production, will be released next week, according to Steve Schultz, Masquer's publicity director. The date of the presentation will be Oct. 23, the opening night of "What Every Woman Knows."

Fashion As I See It

by Wendy Makepeace

Slacks are a campus favorite this year, especially when worn with a crew neck sweater or a perky white blouse.

Vic Gene slim line slacks are the ones for you. This smart pair of corduroy slacks has a back zipper for a perfect fit. Two small pockets lead the way to hip line flatery. Your waist line will have a slim look when you add the matching corduroy belt. Ankle length pants with a zipper cuff make this outfit ideal for any co-ed. The solid tones of red, coco, aqua, and black mix well for various color combinations
