AWS To Hold Mart In Union

Freshmen women will have their first opportunity to begin working in activities on Wednesday from 2 to 5:30 p.m. in the Union ballroom at the Activities Mart sponsored by the Associated Women's Students, according to Marilyn Pickett, chairman.

Thirteen organizations will be represented in the all-freshman activities mart.

The organizations to be represented in the Mart are Builders, Associated Women Students, All University Fund, Cornhusker, the Daily Nebraskan, Red Cross, Home Economics Club, the Union, Women's Athletic Association, Young Women's Christian Association, Nebraska University Council on World Affairs, Barb Activities Board for Women, City Campus Religious Council and Coed Counselors.

Members of each group will decorate and sponsor a booth which will be used to explain the purpose of the organization. Decorating may begin between 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. Wednesday, Sara Hubka, AWS president said.

A representative of the organization will be in the booth at all times to explain the function of their activity to the freshmen.

Each girl is encouraged to sign up for three organizations, Miss Pickett said. The organizations will in turn contact those interested.

Only two women from any organized house may sign up for AWS workers in order to prevent any disappointment in the spring, but any number of independent women may sign up.

Members of the AWS Board will serve as guides and help with the information booths. Therefore, it will not be necessary for upper-class girls to accompany the freshmen.

NU To Host Social Work Institution

The Nebraska Social Work Institute will hold its 14th annual meeting at the University Thursday and Friday. It is expected that between 100 and 125 State public welfare workers will attend.

The principle speaker will be Dr. Robert Foster, director of marriage counseling and training program. He will deliver the opening address, "Strengthening the Family Life through Public Welfare Services," at 9:30 a.m. These meetings will be held in the Union.

During the two days, six sections will be conducted. They are: "Services in the Public Assistance Program" led by Dr. Garnet Larson, associate professor, University's Graduate School of Social Work.

"The Team Approach to the Care of the Mentally Ill," led by members of the Norfolk State Hospital, Dr. Walter Klopfer, chief clinical psychologist, and Louis E. Moody, social services director.

The Future of American Indian Life, led by Lucile Hamner, area social worker for the U.S. Department of the Interior.

Values of Statistics in Public Welfare Administration and Public Relations, led by Dr. Joseph Meisels, director of the Graduate School of Social Work, University of Kansas.

Meeting the Needs of Children in Institutions, led by Charles Garret, chief of Recreational therapy and group work section, Nebraska Psychiatric Institute.

Placement and Care of the Aged, led by Mrs. Elizabeth Brechenridge, supervisor of Services for the Aged, Illinois Public Aid Commission.

Dance Lessons Set Tonight At Ag Union

The first of a series of dance lessons will be held this evening from 7 to 8 p.m. in the Ag College activities building gym.

Dancing classes are open to all undergraduate students of the University, according to Gary Briggs, chairman of the event.

Instructors from the Fred Astaire Dance Studio in Lincoln will be on hand to teach the different dancing steps.

The classes are sponsored by the Ag Union dance committee.

NU Young Republicans Drive To End Oct. 25

The University Young Republicans membership drive will end Oct. 25, according to Bob Krohn, president.

The drive is set up on a contest basis where the house with the largest percentage of its members joining the club will receive a plaque, Krohn said.

The plaque will be presented to the winning house at the regional Republican convention to be held in Lincoln on Nov. 1 and 2.

High Schools Help To Train Ag Teachers

Seventeen Nebraska high schools are working with the Ag College's Department of Vocational Education this semester to train vocational teachers.

Dr. Howard Deems, department chairman, explained that the Ag College seniors majoring in vocational agriculture or home economics are assigned to a co-operating high school for eight weeks.

Program Expands: Student Loan Service Aids Many University Students

By GARY RODGERS
Copy Editor

It is no longer necessary for a capable and industrious student to be denied the privilege of attending college for financial reasons. Through scholarships, loans and part-time employment each student may earn his way through college.

Student loans this year have reached a new high. It is expected that over $120,000 will be loaned out to students for the school year 1957-58.

During the period of July 1 through Sept. 15, 1957, 196 loans were made totaling $40,900 as compared to the same period in 1956 when 110 loans were made totaling $19,900.

These loans enable many students to borrow the needed funds to provide the education which they may otherwise be denied.

The funds which are available for loans to students are trust funds in the custody of the Board of Regents or the University Foundation. All such funds have been donated by individuals, organizations, or firms, for the exclusive purpose of making loans to needy and deserving students.

During the past academic year, 838 students took advantage of these loans. All loans are made for that respective academic year and are due on the following Sept. 1.

Examples

To give a simple explanation of how students may obtain these loans, the following examples are cited:

Student A. Student A is a junior in Arts and Sciences college and is a veteran going to college under the GI bill. He needs $50 to pay for living expenses until his first government check comes in. To get his loan he goes to the University Services Office, Room 201 of the Administration building, fills out an application, and if found to be fully qualified he can get his loan that same day. His loan does not need a cosigner and if he repays the loan within 30 days there will be no interest charge.

Student B. Student B needs $125 for room and board, which he will repay in monthly installments after he gets a job. B is a sophomore in Business Administration and also has an upperclass regents scholarship. He too will go to the University Services Office and will fill out an application, but he will need a cosigner on his loan. This cosigner may be anyone other than another student or member of the faculty. In B's case it is his father. With the cosigner's signature, he may have his loan that same day that he applied for it. The interest rates are the same and he will have until the following Sept. 1 to repay the loan.

Student C. Student C needs $500 dollars for his tuition, room and board and miscellaneous expenses. He is a senior in Engineering and has a high scholastic standing in his class. Since the sum he requires is larger, in addition to filling application for his loan, Student C. will have to make an appointment to go before the Student Loan Committee for approval. The Loan Committee, which meets at least once each week, will then consider his needs and disapprove or approve his loan. Immediately after he receives their approval and gets his cosigner he will receive his loan. The cosigner is normally the beneficiary of his insurance policy. As a senior, Student C will repay his loan in monthly installments, with interest at a per cent per annum.

Fund Expansion

The number of loans and the amount of money available for students to draw upon has grown steadily in the ten years since the program was started. The total amount now available is $246,000, approximately $120,000 of which was loaned out last year.

The fund grows at the rate of $5,000 per year. This is due mostly through the interest collected, all of which reverts back into the fund. This growth is possible, through the University program which provides all expenses for the administration and collection of loans; no expenses are taken out of the loan funds.

There are no maximum and minimum amounts that a student may borrow, but the money must be used for actual expenses of getting a college education and the applicant must show the ability to pay the loan back.

Loan Committee General Policies

The Student Loans in all cases must meet the approval of the University Student Loan Committee, or in the case of small loans, the approval of the Chairman of that Committee. The general policies of the Committee are summarized as follows:

1. Applicant must have a cumulative average of 4.0 or higher for all hours earned at the University.

2. Applicant must be a regularly registered student in the University for not less than 12 hours for an undergraduate and not less than 9 hours for a graduate student.

3. Applicant must have a cumulative average of 4.0 or higher for all hours earned at the University.

4. The amount loaned to a one student shall be determined by the Committee. But shall not be greater than the applicant's immediate needs to complete the current semester or school year.

5. Loans are expected to be repaid on or before Sept. 1st following the date the loan is made, except in the case of graduating seniors.

6. Loans shall not be made for the purpose of making capital investments and for needs after graduation or after leaving school.

7. Cosigners usually are required for all loans. It is recommended that a cosigner be a parent or relative, and preferably one who is beneficiary of the borrower's life insurance. Chattel mortgages are not accepted as security.

8. Preference will be given to those who have been in attendance at the University for at least one academic year. Loans are not available to entering students.

9. Interest is at the rate of 2 percent per annum while attending the University, 4 percent per annum if not in attendance, and 6 percent per annum after maturity. Interest is payable semi-annually Jan. 1st and July 1st.

The foregoing are but general policies, no hardship rules are set for loans and many exceptions are made to fit the individual student's needs.

Kosmet Klub Alters Fall Revue Routine

Kosmet Klub has announced a change in the procedure for the annual Fall Revue to be held Nov. 22 in the Pershing Auditorium.

The Klub explained Tuesday that "in the interest of a better show and more intense competitive spirit the number of skits in the Fall Revue has been reduced from six to five."

Also the number of curtain acts which has been four in past years has been reduced to three, the Klub stated.

Instead of three trophies to be awarded to the top skits only two will be presented this year "in the hopes of assuring more competition on the part of the houses concerned," the Klub stated.

Tryouts for the Fall Revue will begin Oct. 23 and will continue through Oct. 24, according to Morgan Holmes, Klub president.

So far approximately fifteen skits have been entered, Holmes added.

As in the past the Revue, which will be held for the first time at Pershing Memorial Auditorium, will feature besides the skit performances, the presentation of the 1957 Nebraska Sweetheart and Prince Kosmet.

Candidates are submitted by organizations and reviewed by the Innocents and Mortar Boards who select six Sweetheart and Prince Kosmet nominees respectively.

The audience at the Fall Revue then elects the royalty.

Dave Mosman, chairman of the Kosmet Klub Elections Committee stated that most of the nominations for Nebraska Sweetheart have been turned in.

However, he added that the nominations for Prince Kosmet are somewhat lagging and that the deadline is Tuesday at 9 p.m.

Charlene Ferguson and Don Smidt were revealed as the 1956 Nebraska Sweetheart and Prince Kosmet at last year's Fall Revue which saw over 3000 people in attendance.

Theta Xi won first place in the skit competition while Sigma Alpha Mu topped the curtain act trophy.

Other competing fraternities included Delta Upsilon, Phi Kappa Psi, Phi Gamma Delta, Zeta Beta Tau, and Sigma Phi Epsilon.

The theme of the Theta Xi skit was "USS Misery."

Other curtain act participants included Tau Kappa Epsilon, Beta Theta Pi, and Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Finalists for Nebraska Sweetheart were Jane Jeffrey, Mary Huston, Sara Hubka, Arlene Hrbek, and Marion Janda.

Finalists for Prince Kosmet were Al Dagget, Dyke Newcommer, Lowell Neibaum, Jim Murphy, and Gordon Englert.

Stag To Feature Fashion Director

Sanford Squires, apparel manager of Sports Illustrated's merchandising department, will be among the featured guests to appear at the all-University stag, Thursday night in the Union ballroom.

Only 300 tickets remain unsold for the stag, which will also include an interview with Johnny Logan, shortstop for the world champion Milwaukee Braves. Five hundred dollars worth of Macgregor clothes will be awarded as door prizes.

Squires, a resident of New York City, will narrate the men's fashion show, and afterwards will hold a question and answer period on styles.

Working with both apparel advertisers and retailers in the promotion of their products is among Squires' responsibilities. He also assists stores in taking advantage of Sports Illustrated's editorial coverage of fashion in the world of sport.

Squires previously worked in several areas of Sports Illustrated's Merchandising department and before he assumed his position at Sports Illustrated, he was Field Director of Lifes Retail Representative program. He joined Time Inc. in 1953, and worked as a retail representative in Seattle and as a zone manager in Chicago.

Squires, a native of Pasadena, California received his undergraduate work at Stanford University. While attending the University, he participated in intramural sports. He graduated with a B.A. degree in history and political science.

Prior to joining Time Inc., Squires served a year and a half in the United States Army Medical Corps, including a year in the Aleutian Islands. He was also with the General Petroleum Corporation before moving to New York City.

Queen Candidates

Homecoming queen candidates will be announced at the pep rally Friday night in front of the Union, according to Anne Pickett, Tasseis publicity chairman.

The candidates will be presented to the student body by Jan Schrader, president of Tasseis.

Voting for the queen will be held immediately after the rally in the Union. Only those students having I.D.s will be allowed to vote.

Young GOP Names Spelts As Speaker

Richard Spelts, chairman of the Nebraska Republican State Central Committee and Republican National Committeeman, will be the featured speaker at the University Young Republican meeting to be held on Oct. 23rd in room 315 of the Union.

At 38, Spelts has been very active in civic affairs and state politics. He has been mentioned in Nebraska political circles as a likely candidate for the 1960 GOP gubernatorial candidate.

Although at present he states that he has no desire to run for public office, he believes that everyone should make their contribution to their government, including their political party. Spelts has a Bachelor's Degree in Arts and Science from Hastings College and the University. He began working for the Spelts companies in 1946 and presently is the general manager of Spelts operations in Nebraska.

In 1953, he was named an Outstanding Young Man of the Year by the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Despite the fact that Spelts is a relative newcomer to state politics, he has already served in many capacities. He was Representative Carl Curtis' Fourth Congressional District manager in his race for the Senate in 1954. The year following he was elected Junior Republican Founders Day President.

Despite the fact that Spelts is a relative newcomer to state politics, he has already served in many capacities. He was Representative Carl Curtis' Fourth Congressional District manager in his race for the Senate in 1954. The year following he was elected Junior Republican Founders Day President.

He became Hall County Republican Chairman in 1956 and was elected state chairman after that. This year he was elected to the Republican National Committee.

Spelts is presently working on the preparation of a one-thousand-page Republican Organizational Manual for Nebraska. The manual is being used as a sample by the National Committee to organize other states.

Besides his participation in state politics, Spelts is also very active in civic programs in Grand Island and Boy Scouts.

Along with the speech by Spelts, there will be a business meeting, according to Bob Krohn, president of the University Young Republican Club.

"We know that Dick Spelts will give a very fine speech and we are expecting a very large crowd to be present at the meeting," Bob said. "At present we are carrying on a membership drive and are planning an active and interesting program for the year."

He emphasized that anyone, Democrat or Republican, may come to the meeting and that there will be a question and answer period following the program.

On the business agenda is the appointment of committees and the announcing of plans for the Young Republican convention to be held here the 1st of November.

NU Dodges National Flu Troubles

The flu situation on the University campus remains relatively unchanged, according to Dr. Samuel Fuenning, University Health Services director.

"The situation is the same. There is no general widespread outbreak," Fuenning said.

About the same percentage of cases are coming through Student Health as in the first few days of the flu scare. Fuenning reported that none of the new cases had any of the clinical symptoms of the Asian brand of flu.

"There are one or two places experiencing a little more than normal incidence of flu cases. We are checking on these daily but they are not outbreaks of Asian flu but just generalized cases of flu," Fuenning said.

One of the places hit by the flu bug was the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity house where "six or seven" men were stricken. Seileck Quadrangle also reported about the same number of cases, Fuenning said.

"This (the number of Quad men stricken) is comparatively light because we are dealing with a much larger number of men," Fuenning said.

Elsewhere around the nation colleges and high schools weren't so fortunate. Washington and Jefferson College in Pennsylvania closed Monday because of flu. The college president said the shutdown was ordered as a precaution after 25 per cent of the students were stricken.

Anderson Elected Junior IFC Head

Jerry Anderson, Sigma Chi, was elected president of Junior Interfraternity Council at their meeting held Tuesday, according to Bob Krumme, past president.

Other officers include Chuck Evans, Phi Delta Theta, vice president; Tom Tiestler, Delta Tau Delta, secretary, and Gil Jones, Sigma Nu, treasurer.

Junior IFC represents all the pledge classes of the fraternity system. Their first project of the year will be planning the Pledge Sneak dance.

KK Workers

There will be a meeting of all Kosmet Klub workers in room 306 of the Union at 7 p.m. next Tuesday according to Dave Herzog. Information regarding tickets and advertising will be given, Herzog said.

Talent Show Auditions Set Oct. 28-30

The dates for the Union's All-University Talent Show auditions will be Oct. 28-30, according to Bob Handy, activities director.

The talent show is scheduled for Nov. 17. The winners will receive trophies and will be eligible to participate in the Big Eight Talent Show to be held at Kansas University, Kansas State, Iowa State and Nebraska, 13-15.

Students who wish to participate may contact the Student Activities Office or Barbara Meston, chairman of the entertainment committee, to sign up for audition times and special arrangements in scheduling if necessary.

The contestants will be auditioned by the Union general entertainment committee.
