ZBTs At Bay: Possum Invades Fraternity

By GARRY LAUPHEIMER
Staff Writer

Frisbee? Sputnik? Afternoons in the Delt Woods? Beans? But who ever heard of playing possum in a fraternity house livingroom.

Sound funny? It should. And it did late Thursday night in the Zeta Beta Tau house when a homeless creature of Mother Nature matched wits with "would be" college hunters.

Several men sat in the living-room watching television when

Courtesy Lincoln Journal Dave Herzog exclaimed he saw something dash across the floor and take refuge under a corner radiator.

In a matter of seconds every member of the house was down stairs cautiously eyeing the grey and brown mass of fur beneath the radiator.

When the visitor displayed his naked tail, Steve Cohen immediately classified it as a rat. A well developed set of teeth promptly stopped all further attempts at a closer inspection.

From a distance, the animal appeared to be about two feet in length, was covered with grey-brown fur, had a horrible disposition and a long pink tail. Never once did his beady eyes leave the startled members.

John Goldner suggested an immediate call for the fire department to dispose of the animal. They referred the problem to the police department, who referred it to the campus police. Finally Officer Warren Flanders arrived on the scene and properly classified the beast as a harmless opossum.

Facing the animals slashing claws and razor sharp teeth, Herb Belkin, armed with only a heavy leather glove, put the visitor in a box and returned him from whence he came. Outside!

Then, life again resumed its normal pater as the ZBTs door was secured for the night. Possum any one?

If you answered "No" to all questions, you obviously smoke Camels—a real cigarette. Only 6 or 7 "No" answers mean you better get onto Camels fast. Fewer than 6 "No's" and it really doesn't matter what you smoke. Anything's good enough!

But if you want a real smoke, make it Camels. Only Camel's exclusive blend of costly tobaccos tastes so rich, smokes so good and mild. No wonder more people today smoke Camels than any other cigarette. How about you?
