

Orangemen Roll Over Improved Husker Squad

Nebraska Flirts With Syracuse, Then Drops 29-7 Game To Orange

A total of 39,000 Nebraska football fans, yesterday saw the Cornhusker football team defeated 26-9 in a game marred by fumbles, pass interceptions and ragged defense.

The Orangemen of Syracuse lost no time in displaying their offensive talent which has them rated high among the nation's best football teams. As they marched from the opening kickoff to the Nebraska goal line and crossed into play dirt for the first score of the game. Lasse kicked the conversion for the Orangemen and they led 7-0 with 4:06 gone in the ball game. Thomas received the Syracuse a pass interception by Gene Sandage on a beautiful diving catch between two enemy receivers had squelched the bid on the two yard line. Then on two quarterback sneaks, Stinnett had moved the ball out to the 16 yard line for a first and 10. Naviaux ripped off 13 yards to move the ball up to the 29 yard line and another first down. An offside penalty was regained when Jerry Brown moved the ball again to the 29 yard line. But the move ended here when Stinnett fumbled the ball and the Syracuse squad recovered on the 27 yard line. From here Tom Stephens took over for the Orange and drove his way down to the seven yard line of the Scarlet. On the next play Chuck Fogarty slipped into the endzone to put the Syracuse team back in front and they never again were threatened. A bad pass from center fouled up the conversion try and the Huskers again trailed 13-9.

teams as Missouri, Kansas, Colorado and Iowa State which should, although they will not be any pushovers, be considerably easier teams than Washington State, Army, Pittsburgh, and Syracuse have been.

After the game Syracuse Coach Ben Schwartzwalder said the Nebraska team was tougher than Iowa State—and the Cyclones tied the Orange, 7-7. Schwartzwalder went on to praise the Cornhuskers for their line work.

"That Cornhusker line was rough in there. They moved around a lot and that makes it tough."

"That fullback (Jerry Brown) is a real rugged kid. He played a fine game."

kickoff and ran back to the Husker's 30-yard line before being stopped. On the next play Husker blocking almost sprung Thomas loose but he was hauled down from behind on the mid-field stripe. On the tackle a Syracuse player was called for a personal foul and the ball was put in play on the Orangemen's 35-yard line. On the third down Thomas ran to the 23 to give the Huskers a first down deep in Orange territory. Brown ran to the 15, another Husker plunged up the middle to the 13 for a first down, Stinnett kept the ball to the seven, Thomas lugged the skin to the six, and Brown carried the next two times scoring on his second try to give the Huskers their first and only touchdown. Prussia's kick was no good and the Scarlet trailed 7-6.

After a series of exchanging punts the Huskers regained the football and started what looked to be a touchdown drive. The drive ended abruptly when a Husker pass from Stinnett was intercepted on the Orangemen's 29 yard line by Chuck Fogarty and ran back to the 40. A few short plays later found the team from the east resting on the Husker 9 with only 18 seconds remaining in the first half. The move was made by two passes, one from Zimmerman to Coffin and the other from Jackson to Stephens. The very next play was the play that might have snuffed the fire the Huskers displayed the entire first quarter.

Huskers Tally... Nebraska fullback Jerry Brown is shown here plunging over from the one yard line for the only Cornhusker touchdown of the afternoon. A short time later Dick Prussia kicked a field goal to give the Big Red a temporary 9-7 lead.

Larry Naviaux had already batted down one pass on the two yard line to stave off one touchdown and this play seemed almost identical but he was called for interference and the ball was placed on the one yard line with six seconds remaining in the second period. Coffin drove over for the TD on the next play to push the Syracuse point tally to 19 as opposed to 9 for the Huskers. Zimmerman ran for the point after to end the half with the score 20-9.

Dick Prussia kicked off for the Huskers to Ernie Jackson, right halfback for the Orange, who ran the ball to the 25 where he was hit by Husker wingman Bill Hawkins. Jackson bobbled the ball and it fell into the arms of guard Stu Howter who grabbed the ball and ran towards the Syracuse goal line. He got to the 12 yard line before an Orange player caught up with him and hauled him down. From here Thomas smashed to the 10 and Gene Sandage ran to the seven. Then Roy Stinnett was thrown for a loss back to the nine. At this point Dick Prussia put on his "toe" and proceeded to drive home a field goal from the 21 yard line to put the Cornhuskers in front, 9-7 with 9:29 gone in the ball game. The first quarter ended with the score remaining the same and the Huskers looking like they might pull and upset. Their offense up to this point was razor sharp and their defense was at a fairly good stage. But in the second quarter they fell apart and the Orangemen pushed across two big touchdowns to dim the Husker chances immensely.

The third chapter provided a defensive game with Jerry Brown playing magnificent ball and stopping a Syracuse drive. After exchanging punts with the opposition, Nebraska finally put together a fired bid that might have gone all the way but it could not be sustained long enough to give the Huskers the points.

The first Syracuse score came with 6:50 played in the second chapter of the game.

Nebraska had taken over on their own 22 and a Stinnett to Sandage pass boosted the ball to the Orange 47. Here, however, another aerial attempt by Stinnett failed to get past alert Dave Baker who intercepted the pass on the Orange 26 to end the rally.

Touchdowns were the order of the day Saturday, as six of the Big Eight clubs squared off against one another. Nebraska and Oklahoma State were pitted against non-conference foes.

Paced by halfbacks Bob Stransky and Eddie Dove, the Colorado Buffs racked off a 42-14 victory over Kansas State. Stransky and Dove each scored three touchdowns to put a damper on the Wildcats homecoming celebration. The Buffs gained a total of 647 yards to set a new school mark.

Stransky tallied on runs of 45, 8 and 7 yards while Dove added his scores on strolls of 5, 19 and 29 yards. Kansas State compiled its total in the fourth quarter. Ralph Pfeifer intercepted a Colorado pass and ran it back for the first Wildcat tally. Dick Corbin plunged over from the one yard line to add the second touchdown.

In a second half show of power, Missouri clawed the Iowa State Cyclones 35-14 in Saturday's contest at Ames.

Utilizing fullbacks Hank Kuhlmann, Roger McCoy and Fred Henger, the Tigers marched 52, 53 and 77 yards to score three of their touchdowns from the one yard line. Quarterback Phil Snowden sneaked over for a pair while Kuhlman got the other.

The Cyclones tied the contest at 7-7 shortly before the half was over when halfback Dwight Nichols shot over from the one. They added a TD in the final period when center Jack Falter fell on an Iowa State fumble in the end zone.

Missouri took to the air in the final quarter to clinch the ballgame. Snowden flipped passes to Charlie James and Jerry Cutright to end the scoring.

Oklahoma continued its domination. The Nebraska Cornhuskers rusher gathering 120 yards in 15 attempts.
