HC Queen Candidates Express Their Delight

By BOB IRELAND

How does it feel to know you might be the 1957 University Homecoming Queen?

Well, in the words of this year's five candidates its "exciting," "dumfounding," "tremendous," "thrilling," and "wonderful."

This year's crop of candidates for the coveted queen title are not only true blue campus leaders engendered with a firm conviction to aid the University but also, and what is more important to the average campus male, very attractive young ladies.

All of the candidates, Nadine Calvin, Judy Chapman, Judy Douthit, Karen Krueger, and Barbara Lantz will appear Saturday during the half-time ceremonies of the Nebraska-Kansas Homecoming. Four will be attendants and one lucky girl will reign as queen.

All of the candidates interviewed expressed approval of the newly revitalized system of selecting queen finalists. As one girl put it: "the system allows for a better campus representation."

Among the qualifications for Homecoming Queen listed by the candidates interviewed which they thought necessary for student consideration were, 1) service to the University, 2) scholarship, 3) service to students through campus activities and 4) interest in campus affairs.

Likewise the student council recommendation to Tassels proposing a longer and more publicized voting period for Homecoming Queen was heartily endorsed by the candidates interviewed. One girl stated that "many people who came to vote for Queen were discouraged from doing so by the long lines to the ballot boxes."

The candidates revealed that each have had a barrage of well-wishers, telegrams and long distance phone calls during the past few days. One girl was honored at a party.

All of the queen finalists stated that the preliminary interviews which were held by the special selections board were conducted in a competent and fair manner. Members of the nominating board included; the 1957 Tassels officers;

Jan Shrader, president; Donna Sawvell, vice-president; and Marilyn Waechter, secretary; N-Club president, Bill Hawkins; Don Clifton, assistant professor of education; Gordie Warner, president of Corn Cobs, and Bill McQuistan, yell king.

The five queen candidates and their parents will be feted at a luncheon in the University Club, Saturday at which time the new queen will be announced. They will also take part in the Saturday morning parade.

Activities of the candidates include:

Miss Calvin, is a junior in the College of Agriculture majoring in Home Economics. She is a member of Phi Epsilon Omicron, Alpha Lambda Delta, Home Ec Club and Council, Newman Club. She is AWS Board Secretary, a member of Tassels and is Scholarship Chairman of Love Memorial Hall.

Miss Chapman is a junior in Teacher's College, Tassels notification Chairman, Secretary of Student Council, member of Builders Board, and Rush Chairman of Alpha Phi.

Miss Douthit, is a junior in Teacher's College, a member of Union Board, Young Republicans, Tassels and Social Chairman of Delta Delta Delta.

Free Union Dancing Set Tonight

A free Homecoming Eve Dance sponsored by the Union will feature the Collegians, a five piece band and will be held from 8:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m.

Students and alumni are invited to attend, according to Bob Handy, Union activities director.

The dance will be held in the Union ballroom to accommodate a large crowd, according to Sally Downs, dance committee chairman. Students are invited to come in after they visit the homecoming decorations, Miss Downs said, and it will be a come as you are event.

Bob Handy explained that the Union is sponsoring a free dance this year, because many people go through the Union on Homecoming Eve and this will give them something to do.
