

On TV:

Cornhuskers Off To Iowa State; Hope To Pick Up Second Win

After two successive heart-breaking losses, the Nebraska Cornhuskers are travelling to Ames, Iowa, to try to snap their losing streak at the expense of the

Co-Captain Don Rhoda

Iowa State Cyclones. Bill Jennings has attempted to whip his squad into top shape for this unpredictable Cyclone eleven who played a whole of a game against Oklahoma losing only 13-0, then turned right around and dropped last week's tilt to Drake University by a lopsided score.

The Huskers will have their hands full with Dwight Nichols. The 163-pound halfback ranks fourth in rushing in the Big Eight with 423 net yards gained in 140 carries. His 140 carries are tops in the Conference. Nichols also leads the Big Eight in passing (excluding Oklahoma State) with 32 completions in 64 attempts for 440 yards.

Omaha Benson graduate Frank Powell draws the starting nod at the quarterback slot. The Cyclones use the single wing offense in which Powell will function as a blocking back. Powell, who started the season as a center, is the Big Eight 167 pound wrestling champion.

In the line, the Cyclones have what they call the "Fearsome Foursome." Bob Bird and Ralph Losee, left guards, and Dave Munger and Jerry Schoenfelder, right guards average only 182 1/2 pounds. They tip the scales this way: Schoenfelder, 192; Losee 180; Bird, 179; and Munger, 172.

According to coach Jim Myers, the pony guards are doing a fine job for Iowa State.

"Munger, the kid who played fullback until this year," said Myers, "has a terrific knack of getting in for the ground-losing tackle every game. He blocked Kansas' try for the extra point at a crucial point in that game."

"Bird, the steady senior, just never seems to be out of position. Losee, who played 40 straight minutes at Syracuse when Bird was hurt, came up with the key tackles on three occasions that day."

"Schoenfelder has blocked punts and recovered fumbles on key occasions."

"The guard slot was a position that we figured would be our weakest," Myers said. "We were really worried when the fall started. Now it is one of the strongest spots on our team."

Captain of the Iowa State eleven is center Jack Falter. Coach Myers calls him, "My type of football player. He has taken to single wing football like he had invented it. He's big enough to hurt you, small enough to be extremely mobile, fast enough to get his job done and tough enough to take on all comers."

Meanwhile back in the Husker camp, Jennings made a few precautionary changes. Tackle Don Rhoda, guard LeRoy Zentic and end Max Maritz were shaken up in scrimmage and may not be ready for action on Saturday. Nebraska's leading ground gainer Doug Thomas is still nursing bruises and is a question mark starter.

Ends Roger Brede and Stu Howter, guard Duane Mongerson and halfback Carroll Zaruba were shuffled into the uncertain positions.

The Huskers held their last scrimmage on Wednesday. The drill was devoted to a general review of offense and defense, with a special emphasis on passing and pass defense.

Game time is 2:00 p.m. The contest will be carried on both radio and television. Bill King will be mike side over KFOR, while Sam Molen will describe the televised action on KMTV Channel 3 in Omaha.

THE NEBRASKAN SPORTS

First Big Eight Meet At Ames; Cross Country Event Minus Mullins

Iowa State has the distinct honor to host the first Big Eight Conference meet since the remodeled league came into existence.

Representatives of all eight schools will take part in the Big Eight Cross Country meet. Oklahoma State University recently lost in a dual meet with Kansas, the Conference champions for the last 10 years.

The Husker's cause will be hurt by the absence of their track ace Joe Mullins. Mullins has the flu and is not likely to make the trip. Husker warriors lost only one test this fall during the dual meet season.

Runners likely to make the trip, according to Coach Frank Seivigne are Mike Fleming, Bob Elwood, Bill Melody, George Rolofson, Ken Ash and Knolly Barnes.

Iowa State will offer Gary Haltmeyer, John Darby, Leo Tegtmeier and Ron Swanson. All have run the Iowa State 3-mile course in less than 16 minutes. Haltmeyer's best time is 15:26. Colorado will offer Bernie Frakes and Jack Hughes who have been under 16 this year, Kansas State's Duane Holman and Tom Rhodda are other men under the 16 minute mark. Holman has a 15:27.5 timing in his last meet at Lincoln.

MECHANICAL ENGINEERS & INDUSTRIAL MANAGEMENT MAJORS THE MAYTAG COMPANY

world leadership in home appliances, offering assignment on our engineering training program, or direct assignment to permanent position within our engineering departments, will have representatives on your campus, November 8. Please contact your engineering placement office for interviews.

Make Your Plans Early!

Dont' miss the opportunity of dancing to the music of the fabulous JIMMY DORSEY ORCHESTRA

Coming November 15th

Turnpike Ballroom

And remember, Turnpike this Saturday, November 9 is featuring BILL ALBERS

K-State Opposes Jayhawks

A pair of gridteams that have muddled the selections of "Pickers" most of the way this season figure to keep the experts guessing when they collide in their annual do-or-die scrap at Lawrence Saturday. Kansas State meets Kansas with a 1:30 p.m. kickoff.

The two have had four common opponents this season, but results against those (all Big Eight foes) would leave anyone guessing. Against Colorado, for example, the Jayhawks earned a big edge with a 35-34 defeat and K-State's 42-34 loss to CU. And against Nebraska, K-State went down, 14-7, while KU earned a 14-12 decision. On the basis of those two, the "Hawks appear as definite favorites.

Yet when you weigh the results of the other two common foes—Oklahoma and Iowa State—the puddle is muddy again. Iowa State dropped the Jayhawks, 21-6, but lost to K-State, 14-10. Oklahoma beat KU 47-0, but was pressed all the way by K-State before gaining a 13-0 decision last Saturday.

On the basis of the overall series, too, there is little on which to lean to either team. True, KU has won 34 times since the annual has been victor only 17 times. But in the last five meetings, K-State has won three.

Maybe the home team advantage figures here. Yet a quick poke through the records will show K-State victorious in the last two games at Lawrence. Last time there the Wildcats swept to a 46-0 win—biggest margin they have ever enjoyed over the Jayhawks.

Both teams go into this one with identical, 2-4-1, records. Only margin is in favor of anyone here is that the Hawks won both their victories within the conference to gain third place. K-State took one decision from Iowa State and gained the other over BYU (06-7).

Probable Starting Lineups

| Iowa State (2-4-1) | Nebraska (1-6-0) |
|--------------------------------|-----------------------|
| Chuck Lattig (173) LE | Bill Hawkins (180) |
| Andris Poncius (204) LT | Don Rhoda (214) |
| Bob Bird (180) LG | LeRoy Zentic (190) |
| Jack Falter (204) C | Dick McCashland (196) |
| Dave Munger (175) RG | Jerry Wheeler (234) |
| Gale Gibson (185) RT | Don Olson (204) |
| Jim Saelke (180) RE | Mike Lee (183) |
| Frank Powell (187) QB | Roy Smetten (174) |
| Dwight Nichols (163) LH | Doug Thomas (174) |
| Roger Spaulding (171) RH | Larry Naviaux (170) |
| Bob Harden (164) FB | Jerry Brown (205) |

Yearlings In Action; Face Wildcats

The Husker yearlings will square off against the Kansas State freshmen this afternoon at Manhattan, Kansas in their finale of the season.

Last week, Nebraska was beaten by Iowa State 23-19 in a muddy tilt played here in Lincoln.

Both Husker quarterbacks were hurt in the Iowa State fracas but Dean Comine should be ready for action this afternoon.

Five freshmen, Bob Daniels, Sid Cookerly, Pat Fisher, Don Fricke and Dick Podlashes, who missed the first Husker yearling test because of injuries also will be sitting this one out. Dick Play and Clay White, who also missed last week's contest, should be ready for the Wildcat juniors, however. Fla has hit the Kansas State camp.

Ten Wildcat freshmen, in addition to Freshman Coach Ed Cavanaugh, were out with the illness early this week.

"For that reason we aren't at all sure of our starters," Cavanaugh said.

Kansas State will be trying for its second victory as the yearlings won over Kansas in their opener 21-13.

Cavanaugh listed as backfield probables an all-Kansas unit of quarterback Ron Blaylock, halfbacks Larry Jussen and Len Munger and fullback Ray Kovar.

The selection of the starting line will be a last hour affair, because of the flu.

Last season the young Wildcats upended Kansas 36-15 only to suffer a 15-7 loss to Nebraska.

Co-Captain Jerry Wheeler

Dick Monroe . . . Fresh Coach

Soccer Slated

The University Globe Soccer Team plays host to Omaha Lithuanica A on Sunday at 2:00 p.m. in Peter Pan Park. The Lithuanica booters are the League champions.

Probable starters are Taloradi, Mustaffer, Carracedo, Lagos, Heartcote, Bone, Edwards, Takacs, Arriguiga, Bowden and Bifarin.

We give and redeem Green Stamps

Fashion As I See It

by Wendy Makepeace

Exciting News!

Something new has been added in current fashions, the unique sweater lining! Red, white and black is the color scheme in this particular car coat by Capri-Juniors. This new lining is styled after the popular bulky knit sweater and is twice as warm.

The coat is a gray, white and black wool tweed. A knit shawl collar of black wool make this car coat even more perfect for campus wear.

Sizes range from 5-15 for only 25.00.

Gold's has this and many other styles of car coats for you. Visit the Coat and Suit department on second floor. I'll be glad to help you!

To ward off winter shivers but be definitely feminine . . .

Cotton Challis Sleepwear

Special Purchase of 3.98 styles 2.99

Comfort and warmth the easy-care way . . . for these winter pretties wash in a wink and need no ironing . . . and they're practically weightless. Buy for you and for delightful giving.

A GRANNY GOWN in delicate pastel rosebud print. Sizes 34 to 46.

B. BABY DOLL P. J. with its own little bloomer. Yellow, pink or blue print on white. Sizes S, M, L.

C. PEDAL PUSHER P. J. complete with cunning night cap (keeps pins in place). Pink, blue print on white. Sizes S, M, L.

GOLD'S Lingerie . . . Second Floor

First Floor

MAGEE'S

Women's Handsewn Loafer Sale!

$5 Reg. $6.95

Black, brown, red, gray or beige leather. Black, tan, grey suede.

MAGEE'S 55TH ANNIVERSARY SALE!

WE NEED HELP! DO YOU?

We have job openings for men and women students on a part time basis. We can supply you with 10 to 20 hours of employment a week in agreeable surroundings, working with the best bunch of college students in town.

We can schedule work over the noon hours, or afternoons, or evenings.

If you need a job—WE NEED YOU.

Apply Now
Room 1 Student Union
Mr. Bennett