NU Sororities Plan Small Fund Drives

University sororities have arranged various oddities including auctions, dinners and yard work in order to raise money for the All University Fund, according to Donna Scriven, AUF board member in charge of sororities.

Kappa Alpha Theta members sold cokes, sandwiches and apples in place of the "goodies man". A slumber party, during which the girls auctioned off jewelry, blouses and home-made cookies to each other also provided needed funds.

A dime contest between classes is being sponsored by the Chi Omegas. The girls made a blackboard with four rows of white tape on it, one for each class, on which the dimes are stuck. Each day the amounts are tallied to determine which class contributed the most money.

Members of the Sigma Kappa sorority doing yard work for their alumni and any Lincoln families who need some ward work done.

Delta Gamma and Sigma Delta Tau sororities are both planning white elephant sales. Most of the sororities have given up a meal and have contributed this money to AUF.

Two girls in each organized house are handling special events and individual contributions. The girls and their respective houses are: Marilyn Abrahamson and Barbara Bible, Alpha Chi Omega; Carolyn Keiss and Pat Langdon, Alpha Omicron Pi; Sandra Ellis and Martha Crocker, Alpha Phi; Sheila Scott and Jean Curns, Alpha Xi Delta; Diane Green and Sharon McCormick, Chi Omega; Emily Bresler and Mary Larson, Delta Delta Delta.

Ruthie Prochaska and Anita Hall, Delta Gamma; Judy Easter and Janet Pohlman, Gamma Phi Beta; Linda Walt and Sylvia Rigg, Kappa Alpha Theta; Malou Parrott and Sid Johnson, Kappa Delta; Karen Van Amburg and Pris Eckridge, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Becky Colwell and Emmie Limpo, Pi Beta Phi; Carole Frank and Jan Nisker, Sigma Delta Tau; Kay Swartz and Deanne Diedricks, Sigma Kappa; Mary Otto and Pat Everett, Towne Club, and Trudy Jarvis and Irma Kluge, Zeta Tau Alpha.

Honey Producers Hold Meeting Here

The annual two-day meeting of the Nebraska Honey Producers Assn. will close today at the University Ag campus.

The first day's program was designed especially for beginning and small beekeepers. The program featured demonstrations in assembling new equipment, feeding bees, and handling package bees.
Election of officers, presentation of honey queens, inspectors' reports, a business meeting and banquet will highlight today's program, according to Charles Moorman, president of the association.

'Learn To Swim' Classes Slated

Adult "Learn to Swim" classes will be conducted by Red Cross instructors Ken Studier and Fred Hollingsworth beginning Thursday.

Classes will be held from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. each Thursday at the Southeast High School pool.
These free sessions will run for 10 weeks and will be open to all adults. To register, merely report to the Southeast High School pool at 7 p.m. next Thursday.
Swimmers must furnish their own suits and towels.

Company To Hold Designing Contest

Forty-six cash prizes will be awarded to undergraduates in the James Lincoln Arc Welding Foundation's annual mechanical and structural design competition.
The awards are made in two separate competitions, one for mechanical designs and one for structural designs.
Open to undergraduates only, the competition offers awards for the best designs of a machine, machine part, structure or structural component which makes a significant use of welding.
Top award is $1,250. Designs made as a part of regular school work may be used.
Entries may be submitted after graduation or the close of school term. Rules are available from the James Lincoln Arc Welding Foundation, Cleveland 17, Ohio.

YWCA-RAM To Sponsor Queen Contest

Peanuts Queen will be selected at the Peanuts Party to be held Friday night at 7:30 p.m. in the Selleck Quad dining room, according to Nancy Spiker, chairman.

Candidates for the title are being named in each of the organized houses on campus and the queen will be elected on a basis of both pennies contributed and the number of persons voting.
A trophy will be presented to the queen and the proceedings will go to help support the co-sponsors of the activity, City-Campus YWCA and RAM Council, Miss Spiker said.

Johnny Cox will provide the music and the dining room will be decorated with the theme of the Peanuts comic strip.
Admission is 50 cents per person according to Miss Spiker.

Fashion As I See It

Exciting News!
Slacks and a comfortable blouse are a must in any girls wardrobe. Even Picone slacks are always popular with any co-ed. These smooth fitting slacks have a side zipper, matching belt and tapered legs for figure flattery. In sizes 10-18 for 14.95 these 100% wool slacks come in the ever popular charcoal.

An other campus favorite is the Ivy shirt in sizes 12-18. In a white and powder blue this shirt goes with the slacks for a perfect play time outfit.
Many of your favorite fashions can be found in Gold's second floor sportswear.
