

Vol. 32 No. 36

Lincoln, Nebraska

Monday, November 18, 1957

MB's Reset Scholastic Average

The scholastic average to govern the selection of next year's Mortar Boards has been set at 6.4...

Six Research Projects Set For Report

Six research projects conducted at the University will be reported at the 50th anniversary meeting of the American Society of Agronomy...

E-Week Finalists

Pictured are finalists in the "Miss E-Week Contest" (left to right) Joan Riha, Charlene Anthony, Sondra Whalen, Jan Olson, Sandy Kellogg, Nadine Calvin, Diane Gease and Mary Ann Harris.

Career Pamphlet

The Alpha Phi Omega scouting fraternity will be distributing to all male seniors a copy of the pamphlet Career for the College Man...

The finalists were chosen by the Engineering Executive Board in cooperation with the Nebraska Blueprint.

Tickets Go On Sale For Military Ball

Tickets are now on sale for the annual Military Ball which will be held in Pershing Memorial Auditorium, Dec. 7 according to Bob Krasne...

Before the drawing of the Honorary Commandant by Governor Victor Anderson a grand march of all ROTC upperclassmen will take place.

New House Competition To Highlight OU Game

A window painting contest, sponsored by the Lincoln Promotion Council in conjunction with the University student body, will be held Saturday morning before the Nebraska-Oklahoma football game...

The window painting committee consists of the co-chairmen, Niebaum, Richard Gustafson and Wendy Makepeace...

The window painting contest is to be held Saturday morning before the Nebraska-Oklahoma football game...

Fall Revue To Feature Skits, Royalty Coronation

This week the finishing touches will be put on the 1957 Kosmet Klub Fall Revue which will be staged in Pershing Memorial Auditorium Friday at 8 p.m.

This year only two prizes will be awarded to the skits instead of the previous three. Also the number of skits has to be reduced from six to five and curtain acts from four to three.

NU Debaters Win Kearney Tournament

Nancy Copeland, junior in Teachers College, and Sara Jones, junior in Arts and Sciences, walked off with the winners trophy at the annual Kearney Debate Tournament Saturday...

The Phi Psi skit is entitled "Inside Russia Confidential Hush Hush Shhh Unexpurgated."

Practical Joker Calls Off Classes

Last night one of the Lincoln radio stations was called by a practical joker and, representing himself as Chancellor Clifford Hardin, informed the station that classes at the University had been called off for today.

Buffalo Stopper

Pictured is Mary Patrick of Alpha Phi Sorority who won the title of "Girl Most Likely To Stop the Colorado Buffalo."

Second in the competition was Beth Toomey, Delta Gamma Sorority.

Wedding Bells:

Married Student Populus On The Rise At Nebraska

Again this year a good percentage of the students at the University are married. Latest figures from the registrar's office show that there are 910 married students registered at the University...

means they are a few years older than the average students. Most of them agree that the biggest problem was getting accustomed to school routine again and especially learning to study.

Moot Court Team To Enter Regional Division Competition

A three-student moot court team will enter the regional division of the National Moot Court competition, according to Allen Axelrod, associate professor of law.

again won the regional contest and was runner-up in the national, receiving a trophy for the best brief of all those submitted.

Sigma Delta Chi To Initiate Eight

The University chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity, will conduct its fall initiation ceremonies at 5:30 p.m. Friday at the Cornhusker Hotel.

Exhibition Features American Art

Examples of the work of an American artist, Marsden Hartley, who devoted his professional life to mountain subjects are on exhibition at the University Art Galleries.

British Ecologist To Give Lecture

Dr. William Peter Crowcroft, a representative of the British Museum of Natural History, will speak on "Some Studies on British Small Mammals" Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in Bessey Hall auditorium.

Pinning Illegal

A coed in Wyoming is taking a chance when she accepts a boy's fraternity pin—she's breaking the law.

Outlook Conference

Two members of the Agricultural Extension Service Staff will take part in the National Outlook Conference this week in Washington, D.C.

Earth Science

Sigma Gamma Epsilon, National Earth Science honorary, will hold an open house Thursday at 8 p.m. in Morrill Hall.

Symbol Contest

Four members of the KNUS radio staff take a look at a few of the entries received in the

KNUS symbol contest. They are (from left to right), Pete Laughlin, Dixie Helms, Al Anderson and Phyllis Bonner.