

Pi Tau Sigma Initiates 14 New Members

Fourteen Engineering students were initiated into Pi Tau Sigma, National Mechanical Engineering Fraternity, Tuesday night. The pledges were selected from the junior and senior class on the basis of sound engineering ability, scholarship, and personality. The initiates were: Gary Cadwallader, Russel Steeves, George Harding, John Kern, William King, Robert Smidt, Arthur Witte, Larry Schumacher, Thomas Smith, David Hawke, Bob Peters, Marion Groteluschen, Roger Berger, and Edwin Fisher.

On The Social Side: Activities Hit Campus

A flurry of activities—including hour dances, game functions, open houses, the Kosmet Klub show and the Farmers Formal—will involve many of the students at the University this week end. More beards have been seen on campus as the Phi Delta Thetas prepare for the "Phi Hobo Convention," one of the six house parties to be held Saturday.

NU Fall Concert To Feature Bogin

Abba Bogin, concert pianist, will appear as guest soloist with the University symphony orchestra at the orchestra's annual fall concert Sunday at 8 p.m. in the Union Ballroom.

Tickets have been sold out for the concert, according to Karen Peterson, Union music committee chairman.

Bogin's selections will include the Brandenburg Concerto No. 5, accompanied by Gretchen Blum, flutist, and Emanuel Wishnow, violinist, and Concerto in F minor.

Married Student Mixer Slated Sunday

A married students' mixer will be held Sunday at 3 p.m. in the Ag Union Lounge.

All married students on Ag Campus, including those living in the married students units are invited to attend.

The purpose of the party is to give these students an opportunity to become better acquainted. A door prize and entertainment are included in the program. A nursery will be provided for children. The event is sponsored by the Ag Union Hospitality Committee.
