

Nebraska Beaten; Face Notre Dame

The Nebraska Cornhuskers lost their first game of the season Saturday night as they fell before the Michigan Wolverines, 81-57. It was the first win for Michigan which lost to Pittsburgh in its opener last Wednesday.

The Bushmen's zone defense was shattered in the first half by the fine outside shooting of M.C. Burtoe and Billy Wright.

Michigan led throughout most of the contest and piled up a 36-31 intermission edge.

The Huskers went to a man-to-man defense in the second half, but the Wolverines spread the gap through some fine driving by Pete Tillotson and George Lee.

Nebraska pulled within four points of Michigan shortly after the half, but Tillotson tossed in 10 quick points to give the Wolverines a comfortable edge.

Tillotson led the game scorers with 23 points while Willie Fitzpatrick was tops for Nebraska with 14. Jimmy Kubacki had 13 and Gary Reimers 10.

The Huskers move on to South Bend, Ind. for tonight's game with the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame.

The Irish, ranked seventh nationally last season, have four of last season's starting quintet back.

Tow Hawkins is the man the Huskers will have to hold down if they expect to pull a victory out of the fire. Hawkins' only a junior, was a sensational scorer for the Irish last season. He scored 26 points against Wisconsin Saturday night.

Bush will probably go with the same opening five that have started thus far. Don Smidt and Willie Fitzpatrick will be at the forwards, Bob Mayo at center and Lyle Nannen and Gary Reimers at the guards.

The Huskers transfer the cage wars to the Coliseum Saturday night when they host the Big Ten Purdue Boilermakers. Game time is 8:05 p.m.

Conference Cage Teams Swing Into Action With Six Weekend Victories

The Big Eight basketball clubs were successful over the weekend winning six out of nine contests. The only idle club was Iowa State who was nipped by Minnesota on Thursday night.

In Friday night action Missouri topped Marquette 57-56 while Oklahoma downed Southern Cal. 70-66. Both were spine tingling contests.

On Saturday night, Kansas downed Northwestern 71-65, Michigan defeated Nebraska 81-57, Kansas State topped Indiana 66-61, Oklahoma State beat Texas Western 65-43, Colorado trimmed Montana 77-60, Purdue ripped Missouri 76-49 and UCLA dumped Oklahoma.

A free throw in the last four seconds enabled Missouri to pull a 57-56 victory out of the fire against the luckless Marquette Warriors. The Warriors, whose football team hasn't won a game in two years, have now lost three in a row.

Sonny Siebert, who sank the game winning basket, led the Tigers with 16 points.

Tigers Come From Behind
Missouri was behind 37-27 at halftime and didn't take the lead until the 3:20 mark of the final period.

The Warriors had an opportunity to go ahead with 11 seconds left but Mike Kirksey missed a free throw and the score remained 56-36.

Marquette forward Jim McCoy was the game's high scorer with 17 points.

In another exciting contest Friday night, the Oklahoma Sooners downed Southern California 70-66. Don Schwall's towering jump shot from the corner with 16 seconds remaining proved to be the winning tally. The Sooners added two free throws after the gun had sounded to give them their four point margin.

It was a tight game all the way with the Trojans holding the edge at intermission, 31-30.

King Leads Scorers
Joe King, Oklahoma star, led the scorers with 20 points, while Jim Pugh was high for the losers with 20.

Wilt Chamberlain was the whole show as the Kansas Jayhawks tripped Northwestern 71-65 Saturday night.

Chamberlain dumped in 27 points and knocked down Wildcat basket attempts to lead his teammates to their third victory of the campaign.

The game was close throughout the first half with both teams tallying 30 points in the initial stanza. But the Jayhawks roared back to score 11 points in the first four minutes of the second period to go out in front for good.

Still Busy
Northwestern triple-teamed Chamberlain in the first half and held the All-American to eight points, but the Wildcats couldn't contain him in the second half.

Chamberlain batted down at least 25 per cent of Northwestern's shot attempts.

Joe Ruklick tied Chamberlain for game scoring honors with 27 points. Ron Loneski added 13 to the Kansas total.

Boozer Stars
Bob Boozer, who was a second team All-American choice in Sport magazines pre-season selections, made a strong effort to prove that he deserved the honor by dropping in 27 points to lead the powerful Kansas State Wildcats to a 66-61 victory over the Indiana Hoosiers.

The Hoosiers jumped off to a quick 20-9 lead and held an edge until midway in the second canto Don Matuszak fielder knotted the count at 40-40 and Boozer's tip in put the Wildcats in front to stay.

Archie Dees tallied 17 points for Indiana, while Jack Parr chipped in with 16 for the Wildcats.

Arlen Clark led the Oklahoma State Cowboys through a strong second half and enabled the Cowboys to pick up their first win of the season by defeating Texas Western 65-43.

Clark dropped in 22 points, while Charlie Brown was tops for the Miners with 15.

A red hot Colorado ball club hit from all angles Saturday night to trump the Montana Grizzlies 77-60.

On their way to victory, the Buffaloes hit 30 of 52 field goal attempts and controlled both backboards.

The Buffs led 38-26 at halftime. On their way to victory, the Buffaloes hit 30 of 52 field goal attempts and controlled both backboards.

The duckpins tournament is in the semi-final stages now and the contest should be completed this week.

On Tuesday, the Tri Deltas, team 2, defeated the Thetas, 4; the A O Pis beat the Thetas, 2; the Alpha Phis downed the Pi Phis; and the Thetas, team 1, were beaten by the Chi Omegas, team 2.

Tomorrow's schedule of semi-final games goes as follows: the A O Pis will play the Gamma Phis; the Tri Deltas, team 2, compete against the winner of the preceding game; and the Alpha Phis meet the Alpha Chis, team 2. If possible, the finals will be played on Thursday.

Volleyball in Full Swing
The volleyball tournament, which is a double-elimination contest, is now in full swing.

Results of last week's games were as follows: the A O Pis defeated the Chi Omegas; the Thetas beat the Pi Phis; the Gamma Phis, team 3, were downed by the Independents; the Delta Gamma team, team 1, defeated the Alpha Xis; the Gamma Phis, team 1, were victorious over the Delta Gamma team, team 2; the A O Pis were beaten by the Alpha Xis; Wesley Foundation downed the Thetas; the Independents defeated the Pi Phis, team 1; and the Tri Deltas beat the Women's Residence Halls.

Bowling contests are still progressing . . .

Co-rec volleyball started on Thursday night.

Each team had to win two out of three games in order to win their set. The Gamma Phis and the Sig Eps defeated Women's Residence Halls and Bessey House; the Pi Phis and the Sigma Nus beat the Chi Omegas and the Kappa Sigs; Newman Club downed the A O Pis and the Phi Deltas; the Tri Deltas and the A T Os defeated the Alpha Phis and the Sig Alphas; and the Alpha Xis and the Sigma Chis beat the Chi

Os, team 2, and the Kappa Sigs.

Games will continue Thursday night, with all teams competing again, since the contests are set up on the round robin league basis. Four teams are in each of four leagues and each team plays every other team in its own league (Continued?) Then the top two teams in every league play off in a single elimination tournament or, in other words, these eight teams compete in the finals for the championship.

Strictly Ten Pins
We're using all ten pins in bowling now! It really makes the game complete. We do have a good time in bowling though, it may be a class, but . . . at least you don't have to take notes.

By the way, last time I had all-red bowling shoes. I think the "management" heard about my quality-of-bowling-shoes complaint and decided to get even. I didn't mean anything by it . . . honest . . .

I had a particularly interesting evening last Tuesday, playing co-rec volleyball. The Pi Phis and the Sigma Nus turned out to be a winning team (for some strange reason, considering the tremendous athletic abilities which the Pi Phis always seem to display). I'm afraid I wasn't too much help to the team, but I cheered whenever somebody else got the ball over the net . . . oh, well, at least I tried . . . there's just a certain limit on the amount to be expected from some of us less fortunate and less coordinated ones . . .

Hard Work Required For Job

By LOUIS ENGEL
Special Writer

The job of a good equipment manager is to make the equipment work for you, according to Nebraska equipment manager Floyd Botoroff.

Floyd's job includes ordering and taking care of all football, baseball and track equipment. He has to see that all suits are cleaned and returned to the players. He keeps the suits in the stock room until shortly before the game on home games and then he places them in the players lockers. He packs them in the players bags on games away from home. These bags are taken on the plane with the players while the extra equipment they may need for the game is packed in trunks and shipped ahead.

Floyd keeps a record of the shoe sizes of all freshmen and returning varsity players. He orders these sizes and the incoming freshmen are issued the used equipment. All new equipment is given a permanent issue number. Floyd says that everything in his stock room can be found immediately.

Floyd confers with the coaches on the different types of equipment to order. He says that several opinions are better than one when it comes to the protection and comfort of an athlete.

Floyd is no new hand at his job. He has been on the Nebraska bench for every football game for the past 28 seasons.

Missouri's Frank Broyles Named Arkansas Coach

After only one year at Missouri, Frank Broyles has accepted the head coaching job at Arkansas.

The position, vacated 11 days ago by Jack Mitchell who moved to Kansas, has been the cause of much speculation.

Broyles, former Georgia Tech aide, had accepted a 3-year contract at Missouri last January for an annual salary of $13,500. His new contract at Arkansas calls for five years at $15,000 a year.

Missouri started strong this year gaining a 7-7 tie with Vanderbilt in a season opener. The team, playing a stout defensive game week after week, went into its big tilt with Oklahoma Nov. 9 with a record of 5-1-1. Highlights were victories of SMU and Colorado and a loss to Texas A&M. Then came successive losses to Oklahoma, Kansas State and Kansas.

Broyles' statement said: "I consider this appointment a definite advancement. I am hoping to have a complete staff formed in two weeks. We will move to Arkansas and begin work right away."

University of Arkansas officials apparently ignored a strong sentiment in the state in favor of hiring an Arkansas native for the job. Several groups have adopted resolutions urging that a man with strong Arkansas ties be hired. Arkansas has lost its last two head coaches, Mitchell and Bowden Wyatt in 1955, because they wanted to return to their native states.

Missouri will start immediately to look for a successor to Broyles, Don Faurot, Athletic Director said, adding, that it was "too early tonight (Saturday)" to talk about it.

Notre Dame Overwhelms Wisconsin

The Fighting Irish crushed a determined Wisconsin five Saturday night to grab a 75-53 victory.

Paced by their sensational scoring star Tom Hawkins, the Irish applied a fast break to wear the Badgers down.

Notre Dame appeared to have the game in the bag at half time with a 37-23 lead, but Wisconsin came back strong in the second half to edge to within five points, 50-45 with nine minutes gone.

Hawkins led all scorers with 26 points, while Bob Litzow was high man for Wisconsin with 18. John McCarthy added 22 points to the Notre Dame total.

77 Straight

When Iowa defeated Arizona 80-63 at Iowa City Saturday night, it was Iowa's 77th consecutive non-conference victory at home. Quite a record for any club.
