

Lake, Sharp Selected 1957 Outstanding Nebraskans

... Duane Lake ...

Duane Lake, Managing Director of the Union, has been named by the Daily Nebraskan as the Outstanding Nebraskan of the 1957-58 semester, according to Jack Pollock, Nebraskan editor.

The letter nominating Lake cited him for his "amazing sensitivity to student needs and tireless efforts to satisfy those needs and create a better university — for outstanding ability and admirable character."

"Since Lake came to Nebraska ten years ago, he has revamped the activities program completely. He was also twice elected president of the National Association of College Unions and is past regional director of College Unions," the letter continued.

Lake's most recent contribution to the University and the student body have been his efforts to secure the new $1,250,000 addition for the Union. Ground breaking ceremonies for the structure initiated its construction Thursday.

Lake was born Sept. 5, 1917, in Devils Lake, North Dakota. He attended the University of Minnesota where he got his degree in Business personnel. He attended law school there for two years while serving as Assistant Director of the Minnesota union.

While an undergraduate on the Minnesota campus, Lake was active in Union activities, serving on the Union Board. He also was a member of the Minnesota marching band and was active in many

An additional feature, the Dog Snatcher (A Magoo cartoon) will be shown. Admission is free with an identification card.

Red Cross Board

Red Cross board interview times have been extended from 2:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, according to Carolyn Novotny, president.

Final Fling Dance Scheduled Friday

"Winter Wonderland" will be the theme of the Union Final Fling Dance Friday at 9 p.m. in the Union Ballroom, according to Sally Downs of the Union Dance Committee.

Tuffy Eptien's band will provide the music. Tickets are available at the door for 50 cents.

The Coed Trio and Geru Keyes will provide the intermission entertainment.

other campus organizations. He was instrumental in obtaining the Kauffman Memorial Union while at Minnesota. The Union was considered one of the most modern in the Big Ten and is still one of the best student facilities in the nation.

In 1940, Lake was named manager of the student union at South Dakota State University where he served until receiving his commission as an ensign in the Navy in 1943.

Upon leaving the active service of the Navy in 1945 as a Lieutenant Senior Grade, he returned to South Dakota State. Lake remained active in the Naval Reserve, however, and is presently ranked as a Lieutenant Commander. He will appear before the Naval Reserve Promotion Board next month for promotion to full Commander.

Lake received his present appointment at the University in 1947. In 1951 the University began trying to realign fee structures to make the new Union addition possible. One of the highlights of his career here has been the retirement of the bonds for the original Union in 1952.

In 1950, Lake was elected to the first of two terms as president of the Association of College Unions. The organization is an international association which began in England as one of the earliest groups of its kind. Its present membership is over 400 and it has recently added new members in Puerto Rico and Australia, according to Lake.

"Thirty new unions opened while I was president," Lake said, "and it kept me busy just getting around to dedications and ground breaking ceremonies."

Lake was married in 1939 and has two sons. The oldest is fifteen and the youngest six.

... Barb Sharp ...

Barbara Sharp has been named the student "Outstanding Nebraskan" by the Daily Nebraskan paid staff for her "high capabilities and worthwhile projects."

Miss Sharp was chosen on the basis of her activities in the Hungarian Student project, which was originated following a resolution in the City Campus YWCA which expressed the desire to take specific action in relieving the plight of Hungarian student refugees.

At the time Miss Sharp was named chairman, she served 20 hours per week on the project during second semester 1957. From her many hours of work, the results were numerous.

Five students arrived at the University and were provided with wardrobes, textbooks, room and board, and part time jobs.

Gary Rodgers To Attend 5 Day Seminar

Gary Rodgers, sophomore in Business Administration and ex-board member of Young Republicans, will leave Jan. 27 to attend a five-day Young Republican Leadership Training School in Washington, according to Bob Krohn, president.

Students at the school will tour the White House and will have the opportunity to see Congress in session, Krohn said.

Speakers at the School will include, Secretary of Labor, James Mitchell; Secretary of Agriculture, Ezra Benson; Congressman Joseph Martin and GOP National Chairman, Meade Alcorn.

Over 300 people from all parts of the country will be attending the session, Krohn said.

"I believe the trip and school will be both enjoyable and educational," Rodgers said when contacted by the Daily Nebraskan.

The brevity of today's column indicates that the coming week of finals has discouraged activities for this weekend. An engagement and a marriage, omitted unintentionally from the Tuesday column, are announced below.

Engagement — Jane Odell, a Gamma Phi Beta sophomore in Teachers from Lincoln, to Dee Ehrlich, Lincoln.

Marriage — Cynthia Barber, a Kappa Alpha Theta junior in Music from Lincoln, to Tom Olson, an Alpha Tau Omega alumnus from Lisco.

Friday — University Square Dance Club.

Saturday — Pi Kappa Phi Rose formal, Lincoln Hotel.

Rho Chi Initiates Six NU Students

Six students at the University were recently initiated into Rho Chi, national pharmacy honorary society.

To be admitted to membership in this society, undergraduates must have a scholastic average of 83 per cent and have completed three-fourths of their hours in the College of Pharmacy.

Graduate students must have completed not less than 15 hours on their master's degree and be recommended by their faculty supervisor.

New members are: Joseph Langgan, Vija Uptis, and Inese Ziedins, all juniors; Donald D. O'Neil and Kathleen McCullough, both seniors; and George Thompson, a graduate student in hospital pharmacy.

They are Sara Laszlo, Karoly Nemeth, Steven Takacs, Julius Szabo and Lajos Molner.

Money was raised for the project by University students, individual gifts, donations from civil organizations throughout the state and the Lincoln Y-teens.

Then representatives from campus organizations met to take action on the project—AUF, YWCA, Corn Cobs, BABW, Ag YWCA, Coed Counselors and Ag Executive Board were a few.

Besides this project, Barb is a senior in arts and sciences and is past president of YWCA, and a member of Theta Sigma Phi, journalism honorary and Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman scholastic honorary.

She is also a member of Mortar Board and past vice president of Alpha Xi Delta.

University students have turned out to be an award-winning bunch. And the list of Huskerites named queens, princes, and Miss This and That bears the statement out.

Bruce Russell, junior in Arts and Sciences, has the distinction of being the only male on campus to make the grade. He was named Prince Kosmet at the annual Kosmet Klub Fall Review.

Kosmet Klub also named Ruthie Gilbert, junior in Teachers as Nebraska Sweetheart.

Reba Kinne, junior in Teachers, had the honor of presiding over the Military Ball with Nadine Calvin, Junior in the College of Agriculture and Ann Reynolds, senior in Teachers, as her attendants.

Mary Patrick, sophomore in Teachers, was named The Girl Most Likely to Stop a Colorado Buffalo.
