Grad Lectures Slate Blegen

Dr. Theodore Blegen, dean of the University of Minnesota Graduate School, will deliver the first Graduate College Lecture Wednesday at 3 p.m. in Love Library auditorium.

The topic of Blegen's address will be graduate education, research and its problems and progress.

Dr. John Weaver, dean of the Graduate College, will introduce the Minnesota dean. Weaver has expressed hope that the Graduate College Lecture will become an annual event in order to explore the advantages and problems of graduate school in an age demanding highly educated citizens.

Blegen holds an honorary doctor's degree from the Royal Frederick University in Oslo, Norway, as well as doctorate degrees from St. Olaf College, Hamline University and Augustana College.

Debate Teams Range Nation

Two University debate teams traveled over the weekend to Evanston, Illinois and Denver, Colorado, for intercollegiate competitions.

At Evanston, the debate team of Sara Jones and Eileen A'Wren won three matches and lost three. Miss Jones was rated among the top twenty speakers in quality points. Dick Shugrue and Ernie Hines won two debates and lost two.

At Denver University, the debate team of George Moyer and Don Epp won four and lost two. Renny Ashleman and Don Binder won two and lost four. Both teams finished the term with 42 points.

In discussion, Binder received an excellent rating after five rounds. Moyer received a good rating for five rounds. Ashleman and Epp entered extemporaneous speaking but neither qualified for the finals.

Air Age Clinic Set For March

The annual Air Age Clinic, sponsored by the University and scheduled for March 20-22 in Lincoln, is expected to draw some 200 to 300 participants.

Lt. Col. George Keegan of Davis Mountain Air Force Base in Tucson, Ariz. will head the program. Keegan, an authority on Russian aviation, will speak at the March 21 banquet.

An evaluation of the clinic will be given on its last day by Lt. Col. Merlyn McLaughlin of the Air Reserve Center at Des Moines, Ia.

The head of the State Aeronautics Department Roland Harr will speak on aviation in Nebraska today at the March 21 noon luncheon.

Fair Sign-up Ready

Committee worker sign-up sheets are now posted for Farmers Fair, according to Merca Bonde, publicity chairman.

Sheets are located in the Agronomy Building, Ag Hall Home Ec Building and the College Activities Building.

Committees for which workers may sign are: Publicity, Events, Tickets, Dance, Decorations, Parade and Barbecue. Miss Bond urged a large sign-up of workers for these positions to insure a successful Farmers Fair.

First Big Eight Variety Show Spotlights College Talent

Talent from the Big Eight Universities will present a two hour variety program here Saturday.

Nebraska, Kansas State, Colorado and Iowa State are participating in the first Big Eight Intercollegiate Talent Show.

Performers from other Universities will be guests in campus houses during their stay.

The Talent show is scheduled at 8 p.m. in the Union Ballroom.

NU Talent
Three acts are from the University.

Cliff Soubler, who placed first in the "All University Talent Show," will sing folk songs. He is a graduate student in speech therapy.

The Silhouettes, consisting of Mich Adams, Clay White, Dick Lenington and Kent Murray, placed second in the "All University Talent Show" and will participate in the program.

A vocal and instrumental duet by Barb and Duke Coonrad is the third Nebraska act.

Other acts in the show include Delano Lewis, a tap dancer from Kansas University; the Don Conrad Quintet, a jazz group from Kansas and the Triads, a female trio also from Kansas. Oklahoma's participants include Schwartz and Bledsoe, a comedy team and the Four Dells, a vocal and instrumental variety group.

Hula Dancer

Jan White, a mirimba player, and the Nite Caps, a vocal ensemble, are from Kansas State. Hula dancer Winifred Kaneshiro and popular blues singer Barbara Crawford are participants from Missouri.

Dipak Shah, of Iowa State and Bombay, India, is a folk and al-lad singer.

Roger Brown of Kansas University will be master of ceremonies. Brown, a speech major who has appeared in "High Society," "Picnic," "The Rainmaker," "Henry IV" and other plays during his four years at K.U., was sent to Europe by the Department of Defense to present a variety show on a USO Tour a year ago last summer.

Tickets for the show may be purchased from house representatives and at the Union ticket booths. They are 75c.

"Tickets are limited," according to Barb Meston, Union Activities chairman, "so we suggest you buy yours soon."

Thorpe Named ASCE Head

The American Society of Civil Engineers has elected new officers, according to newly elected president, Doug Thorpe.

A joint meeting with the state section is scheduled for Feb. 19, in the Union at 6:30 p.m.

New officers include John Ficke, vice president; Ron Reed, secretary; and Dean Carlson, treasurer.

Old officers were Melvin Ernest, president; Gordon Warner, vice president; Ron Hazard, secretary; and Darrel Albee, treasurer.

Sig Nus Undertake Help Week Project

Help Week gained its literal meaning Saturday morning as the pledge class of Sigma Nu Fraternity at the University gave a helping hand to Robin Dale School at 70th and Adams.

The pledges spent the morning painting, repairing windows, laying linoleum and plastering among other duties.

The project was a part of an annual "Help Week" started by Sigma Nu Fraternity on campus many years ago.

THE MAN FROM ALLIED HAS FACTS YOU NEED
Thinking hard about what's ahead after graduation? You probably have some idea about industries, companies, jobs... futures. But you need facts.
Check that date below—the Allied interviewer will be here soon, ready to do some straight talking about your future. It's worth a half-hour to look into a company that has a dozen research laboratories, over 100 plants, and a nation-wide network of sales offices. It's worth learning about the room to grow at a company that makes more than 3,000 products... chemicals, plastics, fibers, and new ones every year.
What kinds of jobs? Which locations? Which products? What sort of future? For the facts you need.
