

New Anglican Chapel Will Be Erected

University Episcopal students will have a new chapel and student center located at the present site of their chapel, according to the Right Reverend Howard Brinker, D.D., Episcopal bishop.

The present building will be razed during 1958, he said. A building fund campaign will be conducted in mid-March to provide funds for the new chapel.

"The need for a new chapel to replace the present 75-year-old building is evident. The building is unsuitable for a good program with and for the students, but of even greater concern is the fact that the present structure is now beyond repair," the bishop added.

The chapel will seat about 200 students. Attached to the chapel will be study rooms, student affairs room, kitchen, dining area, lounge. A music rehearsal room plus a rumpus room and a storage room.

The yard of the chapel will contain a reflecting pool, a statue of St. Nicholas.

Estimated cost for the structure, which will face R Street and the Love Memorial Library is $200,000, he said. The chapel and student house will be located at the present church site plus the adjoining lot of the Acacia Fraternity, bought earlier this year.

NU Band Passes

Lentz Says No To Fair Offer

Brussels may wait but the band won't play on. The University Band at least will not do the playing. Though invited, the NU Band has declined an offer to take part in the 1958 Brussels World Fair—due to lack of funds.

The invitation to participate in the American presentation at the Fair was made by the Office of the U.S. Commissioner General, U.S. Department of State.

Professor Donald Lentz said that the invitation would have to be declined because of the cost of the trip. "The band would love to go, of course, but it just involves too much money," he commented.

In this letter to Professor Lentz, Jules B. Farber, special events officer, said:

"As part of the overall impression this country will make on this world stage, we would be most honored to present America's best college bands in marching demonstrations and outdoor concerts at the Fair."

"I am writing to you, as a band director of one of the great college bands in this country, in the hope that you will find some way to schedule a concert tour of Europe that could include a stop at the Brussels World's Fair, or, perhaps, the possibility of a trip over solely for the Fair."

There are 85 members in the concert band.

Sunday Movie

An advance showing of sequences from THE BIG KNIFE, starring Jack Palance, Ida Lupino, Rod Steiger, Shelley Winters and Wendell Corey, will be presented in addition to THE BAREFOOT CONTESSA at the Sunday Nite Movie.

Applications for the annual Union Photo Contest are available in the Union Activities office, according to Polly Doering, Arts and Exhibits chairman.

Any person regularly enrolled in the University may enter the contest, Miss Doering said. Pictures will be judged in four classifications: news and sports, human interest, portrait and character sketches.

No photographer may enter more than four prints in any class or more than twelve in all. Pictures must be 8 by 10 inches and must be mounted on 16 by 20 boards.

Miss Doering added that pictures must have been taken within the period of May 1, 1957, and April 7, 1958. All pictures remain the property of the photographer except the winner's entry which becomes part of the permanent Union Photo Exhibit.

All pictures must be turned in at the Union Activities office no later than 5 p.m. April 10, she added.

Ag Dinner Set Sunday

Pots 'n Tales Order Of Day

Pot luck and tall tales will be the order Sunday, March 16, at a complimentary supper for Ag students and faculty members.

The supper, to be held in the Ag Union Lounge, will feature entertainment by the Ag Campus Chorus, directed by William Bush. A "tall tales" contest will also be held for faculty members.

Students may register for the supper at Mrs. Kathryn M. Peters office or at the hall booth in the Ag union any time next week.

Faculty hosts and hostesses for the evening are Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Boosalis, Mr. and Mrs. Lavon Sumption, Mr. and Mrs. John Orr, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Crowe, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Grace, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Chesnin, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Eckert, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Clare Porter, and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Sals, faculty chairmen of the event. Students committee members are Keith Glaubius, Chairman, Pat Schlueter, Sally Miller, Judy Sieler, Bob Paine, and Bob McNeff.

Elliott Is Guest

Dr. Curtis Elliott, professor of insurance, was the guest speaker at the monthly Delta Sigma Pi Professional Dinner Monday, Feb. 24.

Dr. Elliott spoke on what the University graduate should look for in a job upon graduation.

"Jockey brand T-Shirts helped me make varsity!"

"There were at least twenty of us unknown freshmen at basketball practice that day. Suddenly, the coach was pointing at me. 'Hey you!' he called. 'You in the good looking T-shirt, get in there and show me what you can do!' That's how Jockey T-shirts opened my door to stardom.

"I'm sure that Jockey T-shirts are the big reason I'm such a big star today. The twin-stitch collar that lies flat and smooth, the body of the shirt that fits just right—not too tight or loose—these are the reasons I'm such a comfortable star."

Jockey T-shirts are tailored extra long to stay tucked in. Free, comfortable arm movement guaranteed.

JOB FACTS FROM DU PONT

BETTER THINGS FOR BETTER LIVING THROUGH CHEMISTRY

LIBERAL EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PROGRAM AT DU PONT INCLUDES INSURANCE, SAVINGS AND STOCK PLANS

WHAT'S YOUR LINE? DU PONT NEEDS ALL KINDS OF ENGINEERS

DuPont has always needed chemists and chemical engineers, and still does. But today, there's critical need for engineers in almost every other field—civil, mechanical, electrical, instrumental and industrial engineering, to name a few.

Expansion is the major reason. In 1957, for example, sales at DuPont were nearly two billion dollars. Four new plants were being built. New research programs were being launched. New products were moving into the production and marketing stages. Engineers and scientists of all kinds work in 75 DuPont plants and 98 laboratories in 26 states. All of this tends to broaden opportunities for the young scientist and engineer at DuPont.

If you're interested in finding full scope for your ability, and this includes a great many special fields, DuPont offers you plenty of opportunity to move ahead.

PERSONALIZED TRAINING

By F. L. Johns
Du Pont Representative

When you join Du Pont as a scientist or engineer, you're given an actual project assignment almost at once and begin to learn your job by doing it. That's the essence of our training philosophy at Du Pont.

Our objective is to give you responsibility at the outset and qualify you quickly for more, because the more we grow, the more we need trained leaders.

Although there is no one training program at Du Pont (each of our many departments runs its own), all have several basic features in common. All are personalized—tailored to the new man's background and interests. All involve close supervision on an informal, day-to-day basis. And all permit periodic evaluation of the new man.

This flexible system helps the new man to move ahead according to his abilities. He gets to know Du Pont and his job quickly. He gets a head-start on future responsibility.

You probably have questions about this program and how you'd fit into it. I'll be glad to try to answer them when I visit your campus. Why not sign up for a Du Pont interview at your placement office now?

Means More Security, Greater Real Income To Young Graduates

Du Pont believes that the employee builds his own job security by the way he does his work, by his contributions to the progress of the Company and by his readiness to accept responsibility.

But Du Pont meets the employee more than halfway with a program of benefits designed to help him as he advances.

Your employee benefits go to work the day you join the Company. They grow and build equity for you as the years go by. Vacations, life insurance, group hospital and surgical coverage, accident and health insurance, pension and bonus plans are all part of the program.

Let's look at a special example, the Thrift Plan. You become eligible for it after one year with the Company. For each dollar you invest in U. S. Savings Bonds, the Company contributes twenty-five cents toward the purchase of Du Pont common stock in your name. Roughly 65 per cent of the Company's 90,000 employees are now participating in the plan.

When you're deciding on a career, security is only one consideration. But it's an important one to you and your family. At Du Pont, security is a bright part of the future awaiting the college graduate.

More than 700 of the some 1100 degree-granting colleges and universities in the U. S. are represented at Du Pont. Of these 700, more than half are the smaller liberal arts colleges.
