 - Harry Tolly Sigma Chi
- SECOND TEAM
- Ron Seymour Sigma Nu

 - Ron Peters Beta Sigma Psi
- HONORABLE MENTION: Bob Sullivan, Sigma Nu; Zeke Niebaum, Kappa Sigma; Bob Krommenhauk and Steve Finn, Delta Upsilon; Sere Catigliano, Theta Xi; Dick Cottrell and Lefty Heyner, Phi Delta Theta.

Paced by ace playmaker Don Wenzl, the champion Sigma Nu five placed three of their starting members on the balloting of All-Fraternity basketball members.

The Sigma Nu's placed Wenzl, a unanimous choice for the position, on the first team; freshman sharpshooter Ron Seymour on the second team and freshman Bob Sullivan, stellar postman on the Honorable Mention list.

Delts Contribute
Following the Sigma Nu's array of contributions to the mythical squad comes Delta Tau Delta with Larry Naviaux and Bob Aden. Naviaux was the sharpshooter that kept the Delts in contention to the final game of the playoffs and it was Aden's strong defensive work and rebounding that earned him a spot on the "phantom" second team.

ATOs Land Two
Also sharing the spotlight with the Delts were two members of the Alpha Tau Omega team. Bob Brandeis' tremendous all-around effort and Dick Kleiber's steady pace racked up two berths on the top two teams for these players.

Kjeldsen
Members of the mythical first five were Wenzl, Naviaux, Brandeis, Harry Tolly and Nels Kjeldsen. Tolly was the big gun for the Sig Chi's throughout the year and repeatedly kept them in the show for top honors. Kjeldsen, smoothy center for the Phi Delta Theta squad earned a place for his steadiness under the boards and his defensive work.

Beta Sigs Place Peters
The second five is composed of Seymour and Dick Place, both sharp shooting freshman that consistently headed their respective teams in field goals. Seymour is a Sigma Nu while Place is a member of Beta Theta Pi. With these two are Aden, Kleiber and Ron Peters of Beta Sigma Psi. Peters is the only member from a smaller fraternity but his outstanding floorwork and scoring earned him his niche in All-Fraternity honors.

Huskers Prepare For Texas Meet

The University of Nebraska track team will concentrate on the sprint relays at the Texas Relays March, 28-29, Coach Frank Sevigne said.

Because of the absence of Joe Mullins, brilliant sophomore, Sevigne's thinclads will concentrate on the shorter events. The Huskers were winners in the mile, 2-mile, and shuttle hurdle relays at the Michigan State indoor meet earlier in the year. This was a feat accomplished only once before in the history of the meet.

Keith Gardner, the sparkling record setter from Jamaica, will probably anchor the Husker foursomes. Gardner's best marks in the hurdles have been a :06.7 in the lows on Colorado's dirt track and a :07.1 on the boards in the high hurdles at the Chicago Daily News Invitational.

Other Huskers being readied for the Texas test include Tom Hodson, a junior from Deming, N.M., Don Phillips, a junior from Burwell, Keith Young, also from Jamaica, and Dick Jahr, a junior from Hillsboro, N.D.

Drishaus Rates PE Scholarship

A new $100 freshman physical education scholarship for women has been awarded to Mary Drishaus, Beatrice high school senior.

Dr. Dudley Ashton, chairman of the physical education department, said efforts of the alumnae of the department have already assured the awarding of the scholarship again in 1959.

The award, made possible by contributions from the alumnae, is given on the basis of scholarship, participation in service activities, interest in physical education and character, Dr. Ashton said.

Bowers also said that Harrison and Oliver would join a foursome to tour the Hillcrest greens and that teeoff time has tentatively been set for 1:30 p.m.

Popcorn, Cokes, Coffee: State Tournament Sets Confection Sales Mark

By George Moyer Sports Editor

Popcorn, cokes, candied apples, coffee—you can't enjoy the games without refreshments.

That seems to be the idea with fans who attended the Nebraska State Basketball Tournament last weekend at the Coliseum for University athletes did a land office business in these commodities during the tournament's three day stay on the campus.

Nebraska basketball fans bought approximately $1,139 worth more of the "circus food" this year than last, according to L.F. "Pop" Klein, who handles the Coliseum's vending department. The money, Klein stated, goes to the University athletic scholarship fund after expenses are deducted, of course.

"The fans just about payed for one more tackle on the football squad," Klein said referring to the increase.

"The tournament is a good money maker, but it sure is a hectic time for the boys and I," Pop said. "You know, I have to get up at 6 a.m. and be down here (at the Coliseum) by 7 during the tournaments. A fellow has trouble unwinding after an event like that. I got up at six again on Monday just out of habit. It will take me about a week to unwind."

"I think Nebraska fans get hungrier every year and every year we get more fans at the tournament," Klein said viewing the unofficial totals. Basketball rooters bought over 3,000 cones of popcorn, over 4,000 bags, (the corn comes packaged in two
