

YW Circulates Cyrano Coupons

Coupons with the picture of Jose Ferrer made up for his part in the movie, "Cyrano de Bergerac," are being circulated by YWCA members as part of a money-earning project.

The movie will be playing at the Nebraska Theatre one week beginning Thursday.

Twenty cents of each adult admission that is accompanied by a coupon will be donated to the YWCA.

Coupons are available at Rosa Bouton, from YW members, at the dorms and Greek houses, according to Terry Mitchem, president.

"Churches doing this have cleared $400 so we hope to clear a similar amount," commented Miss Mitchem. "We would regard it as a favor if people would trouble themselves to take a coupon along to the movie with them."

Nearly 10,000 coupons have been distributed on campus and an equal amount in the downtown area.

Crippled Helped By AUF Drive

AUF drive has a part in the fight to help crippled children and adults, according to Dr. Leroy Laase, chairman of the speech department.

Laase, Lancaster County chairman of the Nebraska Society for Crippled Children, said, "The Lancaster County Committee will provide the salary for a vocational coordinator for a Lincoln Rehabilitation center if there are funds enough."

AUF will insure this, Dr. Laase pointed out.

Among events scheduled to help raise funds is an Easter Lily Parade in which sorority girls will dress in bunny costumes and solicit funds, Laase said.

In addition a Talent Parade is scheduled for TV.

'Tea and Sympathy' Is Sunday Movie

Tea and Sympathy, a Broadway hit that was made into a movie, will be shown Sunday night in the Union Ballroom.

Deborah Kerr and John Kerr star in this story of a seventeen year old who falls in love with his housemother.

The movie starts at 7:30 p.m. and is free to University students and faculty members with identification.

Mr. Magoo in Fuddy Duddy Buddy will also appear.

Feeders Day Slated At Ag

Current and anticipated research of interest to cattle feeders will occupy a prominent spot on the program at the 46th annual Feeders Day April 18 Ag Campus.

Approaches in selecting and producing the "meat type steer", will be outlined by Vincent Arthaud, of the University animal husbandry staff.

Dr. John Matsushima, also a University staff member, in animal husbandry, will review five phases of cattle experimental work during the morning period.

Projected areas of research in beef production will be revealed by Dr. Donald Clanton, animal husbandry staff member specializing in beef nutrition research.

The event is sponsored by the University animal husbandry department and the Nebraska Live Stock Breeders and Feeders Association.

Robinson Gets Fellowship

A former University student has received a Rockefeller Brothers Theological Fellowship enabling him to attend a "trial" year at a seminary. Eugene Robinson, who received his master's degree in agronomy in 1957, will attend Union Theological Seminary in New York City.

The annual fellowship was established to enable men or women, not presently planning to enter theological work, spend a year at a recognized seminary.

Robinson was a member of Innocents, Sigma Xi, and Sigma Delta while at the University.

He is presently doing graduate work in agronomy at Purdue University.

Boston Group Highlights Season

From Tchaikovsky to "Look Sharp—Feel Sharp."

That's what'll be on the program during the second Lincoln Community Concert when Arthur Fiedler and the Boston Pops come to town.

The Community Concert series, open to students at a special season rate of $4 and to adults for $7.50, will begin next year with a November performance of Robert Iglesias and his Spanish Dance Company.

"But one of the highlights of the season," says Bob Handy, publicity director for the Series, "will be the Boston Pops program January 29."

Handy indicated that the Pops, first and only RCA Victor Red Seal orchestra to sell over a million copies of a single record, is one of the oldest organized orchestras in the country.

On the program the night the Pops in Lincoln will be such numbers as "Polonaise" from "Eugene Onegin", "Greensleeves", "On the Trail" from the "Grand Canyon Suite" and "Look Sharp, Feel Sharp."

Fiedler, a native of Boston was educated at the Boston Latin School before continuing his education at the Royal Academy in Berlin.

Twenty-nine year old Harry John Brown will be assistant director and Ruth Sienczynska is the piano soloist with the Pops.

The other two programs scheduled for the 1958-9 Community Concert Series are The Robert Shaw Choral and concert orchestra in February and the Chicago Opera Ballet in March.

Season memberships are available in the Union main office or at the Pershing Municipal Auditorium.

Farm Fair Includes Aggie Ball, Rodeo

"Aggie Royal and Rodeo" will be the theme of the Farmer's Fair to be held May 14-17, according to Roger Hubbard, president of the Farmer's Fair Board.

Events will include: Dairy Royal Night on May 14.

Block and Bridle Showmanship Contest on May 15.

Aggie Ball on May 16 featuring the crowning of the Goddess of Agriculture and the Whisker King.

Rodeo and the Block and Bridle Quarter-horse Show on May 17.

Spring Day Workers

Workers are needed on four Spring Day committees, according to Bob Smidt, chairman.

Applications are due Friday in the Union Activities office. Committees are registration, men's events, womens events and parade.

Sigma Tau Picks Kinnier

John Kinnier, senior in engineering, has been elected president of Sigma Tau, national engineering fraternity.

Kinnier is vice president of Student Council, president of the Inter-Coop Council, a member of American Society of Civil Engineers, Innocents and Cornhusker Coop.

Other newly named officers are Dwaine Rogge, vice president; Dale Isaacson, secretary; Gary Frenzel, Pyramid correspondent; Jim Jacobs, treasurer; Arthur Witte, historian, and Keith Newhouse, associate professor of mechanical engineering, faculty adviser.

Ag Lab Will Try Swedish Tractors

A record number of tractors, including the first tractors from Sweden ever tested here, will be tested at the University tractor testing laboratory this season.

Lester Larsen, engineer-in-charge of tractor testing, said that 45 applications are on file. The laboratory is beginning its 39th year of activity, carrying out a state statute that tractor must be certified by actual tests before tractors may be offered for sale in the state.

Despite adverse weather conditions, testing began earlier this year to accommodate all tractors scheduled for testing, Larsen said.

About 40 hours of actual engine running time, in addition to computations, are necessary to test a single tractor model. The season will end about December 1.

There were 32 tractors tested in 1957. The total has steadily increased over the years, with 16-20 tractors once being average numbers for a season.

Diabolique Tonite

The Foreign Film Society will present "Diabolique," a french film and mystery drama, tonight at 8 at the Nebraska Theatre.

This is the fourth film in a series of eight to be shown this season. The next film, "The Last Ten Days," will be March 26.

Communists Say Pfeiffer Can Return

A former University student whose sabrejet was shot down by North Korean Communists when he violated the demilitarized zone will be returned to the United States.

U.S. Air Force Capt. Leon Pfeiffer, formerly of Scribner, Nebraska, is a member of Kappa Sigma and was an Innocent and president of Kosmet Klub at the University.

Pfeiffer, after being turned over by Reds to U.N. control, was taken to Seoul for questioning about his experience.

A spokesman for the U.N. command declined to say whether Pfeiffer will receive disciplinary action for his accidental violation of the truce line.

Pfeiffer's parents who had not seen their son for two years expressed delight at the news of his release and return home.

Phalanx to Hear South Poler

One of the seventeen men who have spent a winter at the South Pole will discuss his experiences tonight.

Herbert L. Hansen will speak at the monthly meeting of Phalanx, professional and military fraternity at 7:30 p.m. in Military and Naval Science 206.

Preparations are under way for the annual Phalanx drill squad competition in April.

Each squad member on the winning team will receive an award cup for his participation, Alan Rosen Public Information Officer said.
