

College Case To Be Aired

Ike, McElroy
On Harvard Panel

"The Case for College" will be presented on WOW radio Friday at 8 p.m.

Participants on the panel include President Eisenhower, Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy, Senator John Kennedy, Under Secretary of State Christian Herter, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Marion Folsom, columnist Walter Lippmann, Leonard Bernstein and Harvard President Nathan Pusey.

The hour-long show is sponsored by Harvard college.

The program format includes:

1. The nature of a college (what is its main function.)
2. The extent that college contributes to our present civilization.
3. The development of education in Russia and how the United States can and must meet this threat.

In addition, the program will feature the Harvard Glee Club Band, interviews taped in Europe, and live pick-ups from Cambridge, Mass., New York and Washington, D.C.

TV Re-Runs Five Series

Five series of programs will be re-run on KUON-TV, channel 12, starting the week of March 31. Each series will run 10 weeks.

Beginning March 31 at 5:30 p.m. will be "International Geophysical Year", a probe behind the scenes of the world-wide scientific study now being conducted.

Intellectual excitement in mathematics will be the topic of "Mathematics" starting April 1 at 9 p.m.

"The Arts and the Gods," a series about famous Greek plays, will begin April 3 at 5:30 p.m.

National government will be scrutinized on "Camera on Washington", to be seen on Thursdays, beginning April 3 at 5:30 p.m.

The fifth series, concerning man, resources and civilization, will begin April 4 at 9 p.m.

IFC Slate

The Inter-Fraternity Council will interview applicants for the IFC slate for student Council this evening.

Marv Stromer, Nebraska Republican executive secretary, will address the organization.

Film Society Goes Austrian

"The Last Ten Days," an Austrian production, will be shown by the Foreign Film Society Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Nebraska Theater.

"The story of the final week in the bunker, when Hitler, trapped, alternated between deep despair and a madman's wild dreams for relief, is told vividly and realistically in a new Austrian movie, 'The Last Ten Days,'" writes John Lowry of the Kansas City Times.

Erich Maria Remarque wrote the script based on the book of the same title by M. A. Musmanno, an American officer, who, after the war undertook an exhaustive investigation of how the German dictator came to his inglorious end," adds Lowry.

Time Magazine said the movie was "Perhaps the best picture produced in Central Europe since the war."

The three remaining presentations of the Foreign Film Society include: "A Girl in Black," a Greek film, to be shown on April 9; "Wage on Fear," a French movie, to be shown April 23; and George Orwell's "Animal Farm," a British film which will be shown April 30.

Carl Fugate's attorneys asked the Lancaster District Court Monday to reverse the decision of County Judge Herbert Ronin who Saturday refused to transfer her murder case to Juvenile Court.

The Court was asked in the "petition of error" to transfer the case to Juvenile Court as the defense had requested in County Court.

Russia Rejects Note

The Soviet Union Tuesday, as it published its latest conference note, rejected every argument raised by the United States.

Russia rejected an American suggestion that a top level meeting might be used by the Soviets to stage a spectacle rather than reach any decisions.

Sticklers!

WHAT'S A CLOWN WHO SMOKES LUCKIES? (SEE PARAGRAPH AT RIGHT)

BOO-BOOS are a clown's best friend. The clown in question has a penchant for shining his shoes with molasses, arguing with elephants and diving into wet sponges. But he makes no mistake when it comes to choosing a cigarette. He picks the one that tastes best. He puts his money on the only one that's all fine, light, good-tasting tobacco, toasted to taste even better. He selects (The suspense is unbearable.) Lucky Strike! All of which makes him a Brainy Zany! Quit clowning yourself—get Luckies right now!

STUDENTS! MAKE $25

Do you like to shirk work? Here's some easy money—start Stickling! We'll pay $25 for every Stickler we print—and for hundreds more that never get used.
