

Iowa State Next Nebraska Foe

Loss Of Kubacki, Karle Dim Husker Chances

The Nebraska baseball team boarded a bus Thursday afternoon and journeyed to Ames, Iowa for a three game series with Iowa State starting this afternoon. The two fourth place clubs will be battling to "stay alive" in the conference race.

Iowa State, the defending conference champions and third place finishers in the collegiate world series last year, dropped two out of three games to Kansas last week-

State will send his ace right-hander Gene Lafferty against the Huskers today. Lafferty, who pitched the Cyclones to their only win over Kansas, had a 7 win 1 loss record last year. He shut out the Huskers last year in Lincoln.

Timm will probably come back Saturday with two more right-handed pitchers, Jim Kudlinski, 3-2 last year, and Prentiss Lamont, 0-2 last year, but with a 2.81 earned run average for the year.

Cyclones Pack Punch

The hard-hitting Cyclones will be led at the plate by capt. Dan Peters, outfielder who batted .364 last year, and third baseman Doc Brink, who hit at a .379 clip last year. The Cyclones will complete the outfield with Doug Broth, .206 last year and newcomer Roger Spaulding. Besides Brink at third base, Iowa State will start either Terry Ingram or Jerry McNertney, who batted .302 last year, at shortstop. They will have basketballer Ron Baukol at second and either McNertney or Omahan Bob Harden, who hit .300 last year, at first base. Two sophomores, Bob Locker and Bill Willard, will share the catching duties.

Siebler Opens

Coach Tony Sharpe has elected right handed Dwight Siebler to try stopping the Cyclones today. Siebler has a 3-0 win and loss record and a very good 1.35 earned run average. The lanky right-hander has fanned 13 men in the 20 innings he has pitched. Charlie Ziegenbein, 2-0, and Lefty Hevner, 0-1, are the likely starters Saturday.

Kubacki Out

The Huskers will seriously feel the loss of Jim Kubacki, who will have to sit out the season because of a knee injury suffered during the basketball season. Kubacki, who was batting .286, played third base and pitched. Jerry McKay will take the third position. Doug Sieler, .259, will be at short and either Gil Dunne, .167, or Bill Fisher, .357, will be at second if Al Karle's bruised heel keeps him benched. Sophomore Ken Ruisinger, .240 will be at first. The catching duties will be taken care of by Jim Kane, .242. The outfield will consist of veterans Gene Torczon, leading hitter at .414, Gary Reimers, .290, and Larry Lewis, batting at a healthy .378 clip.

Biggest Mid West Rifle Meet Slated

The University will play host this weekend to the largest intercollegiate small bore rifle contest in the midwest, according to Captain Clarence Barry of the University ROTC Department.

Twelve schools and 110 individual participants will be on hand Saturday and Sunday for the tournament, the fifth annual Invitational Gallery Championship Rifle Match. Teams will fire on the ROTC range in the Military and Naval Science Building. Over $600 worth of prizes will be awarded to teams scoring well in the meet, Captain Barry said.

Nebraska stands a good chance of upsetting last year's champion, Iowa State, according to Barry. "Our top shooter, Gary Anderson, won the Kansas small bore championship this week, and we stand a good chance of winning if he can stay hot."

Barry said.

Firing will begin Saturday at 8 a.m. and will continue until 8 p.m. with finals scheduled for Sunday. Each firer will shoot from prone, kneeling and standing positions for team matches and prone and standing for individual matches.

No Spectators

"Unfortunately, the size of the rifle range precludes spectators," Barry said. "This is really too bad, because this meet is roughly comparable to a major relays meet in track, and some top competitors will be firing," Barry said.

Kansas State Favored

Teams entered in the meet include Coe College, Iowa; University of Colorado; Iowa State College; University of Kansas; University of Missouri; Colorado School of Mines; South Dakota State College; University of Wichita; University of Omaha; Creighton University, Omaha; and the University of Nebraska. Kansas State is the favorite.

Spring Practice: Latest Fischer Peps NU Spring Drilling

Duck the rest of you folks in the Big Eight: Here comes another one of Nebraska's Fischer boys.

The latest edition of the Fischer family to storm onto the Cornhusker grid scene is Pat, an ex-stater from Omaha Westside. Pat roared 50 yards up the middle for one touchdown, passed twice to freshman ends Mike Eger and Clay White to set up another, and in general terrorized Nebraska's second spring practice scrimmage Wednesday.

Nebraska's first string backfield combination opened with George Harshman at quarterback. Harshman missed last year because of scholastic difficulties but retained his year of eligibility.

Other members of the first string backfield combo included Dick McCashland at fullback and Larry Naviaux and Jim Hergenreter, halfbacks.

Jennings made two promotions in the top three lineups Wednesday. Allen Wellman, 208 pound freshman got the call at a tackle slot and Roland McDole, 204 pound freshman, opened at an end.

From The Outside

If you think you are in pretty good condition because you can play eighteen holes of golf once a week then listen to this. Joie Ray, one of the nations top millers in the 1920s, celebrated his sixty-fourth birthday by running a mile in 5 1/2 minutes. Ray, an eight-time A.A.U. mile champion and three-time United States runner in Olympic meets, set a sensational mile record of 4:12 in Madison Square Garden in 1925. He has been running a mile on his birthday for several years. This year he had some foot trouble which hampered his training schedule. He hopes to break five minutes next year.

Big Ten To Cotton Bowl?

Cotton bowl officials have been talking with the Big Ten about a possible hook-up between the Big Ten champs and the Southwest Conference champions. They are hoping the Big Ten will break its Rose bowl pact since the Pacific Coast conference has folded.

Short Fence

Rod Dedeaux, Southern Cal baseball coach whose players knocked 11 home runs over the 42 foot barrier in the Los Angeles Coliseum in a half hour's drill says "They're going to rain home runs over that screen. That's awful." When Pee Wee Reese was told about the incident, his only comment was "Who was pitching?" If players in the coliseum begin to bombard the screen with home runs, people around the country may start petitioning the baseball commissioner to protect Babe Ruth's record of 60 home runs. It would be a shame to see such a long-standing record broken because of a left field that is only 250 feet down the line.

end. The Cyclones won the first game 5-1, but dropped a Saturday doubleheader 13-4 and 8-3. They have also lost both of their non-conference games to Iowa Teachers and to Minnesota, a perennial baseball power. The Cyclones have been hampered by lack of workouts and a slim non-conference schedule.

"He claimed he was a good driver..."

"And probably he was—most of the time. But just this once he was careless..."

Last year, nearly 40,000 people were killed in traffic accidents. Traffic officers will tell you that most of those responsible were good drivers—until that one fatal moment!

The good driver just doesn't take chances—with the lives of others or his own. He plays it safe all the time!

Help stop senseless killing on our highways. Drive safely yourself. Insist on strict law enforcement for your own protection. Work actively with others to support your local Safety Council. Remember—where traffic laws are strictly enforced, deaths go down.
