

Odds Stiff In Husker Triangular Meet Today

... Records In Danger

Nebraska will meet Houston and Oklahoma State in the Husker's Memorial Stadium plant at 4 p.m. today and records may fall.

Chief candidate to establish a new stadium mark will be Keith Gardner, Nebraska's lithe Jamaican. Gardner has a 14:0 time in the 120 yd. high hurdles.

Courtesy Lincoln Journal which equals Gardner the stadium mark set by Jack Davis of the University of Southern California during the NCAA championships in 1953.

Gardner ran :14.1 in the Kansas Relays Friday and Saturday. His :14.00 clocking is the nation's second best this year according to listings published last week by the NCAA. Chuck Cobb of Stanford is ahead of Gardner with a :13.9 timing.

Another record which may be endangered is in the two mile. Jerry Smart of Houston has run the long race in 9:01.7 over an indoor course. The record, set by Richard Ferguson of Iowa is 9:02.7. Ferguson also got his mark in the NCAA meet.

guson also got his mark in the NCAA meet.

Top Sprinters in 220
One of the top races of the afternoon may develop in the 220 yd. dash. There Oklahoma State's Orlando Hazley has run :21.2; good enough to beat Kansas' Charlie Tidwell. Hazley also beaten Tidwell in the 100 with a :9.6 clocking. Gardner is entered in the 220, and the lean sprinter hasn't made it a habit to be outrun by anyone in any race this year.

The meet will also feature a pair of relays; the 440 yd. and the mile. Oklahoma State will present an outstanding quartermiler in Ken Covert. Should Covert meet Gardner in the mile relay event, another photo finish could develop. Gardner owns a :45.5 clocking in the quarter which stands as another national second best time.

Other Huskers Rated
The meet will also present several other Husker stars whose top performances rank high in the NCAA chart. Ken Pollard is tied for seventh in the pole vault with a 14 foot leap. The 440 yd. relay team, composed of Tom Hodson, Don Phillips, Keith Young and Gardner is fifth in the nation with a :41.3 time.

The 880-yard team stands fourth in national competition with a 1:25.5. The Huskers recently bettered this with a 1:25.2 showing in the Kansas Relays, but Oklahoma State did 1:23.5 to win in the same meet.

Nebraska's hopes for a win will be bolstered by the returns of sophomore distance man, Joe Mullins. Mullins, recently recovered from an operation on an ailing ankle, ran 1:56.3 opening leg in the two mile relay at Lawrence.

Houston's John Smyth, one of the country's top broad jumpers will compete against Nebraska's captain Bill Hawkins. He has come close to 25 feet in previous meets and won the hop, step and jump at the Lawrence relay meet.

Go, Frisby
I have decided to abandon comments on golf this week, for a newer, more exciting game—Frisby!

Everybody knows what frisby is—for example?

Diana Maxwell, Rag slave, said, "Of course, that funny little game." This is true.

I wonder if an intramural frisby tournament could be started. The participation and practicing would be great!

Lincolniters driving through campus any evening are bound to see running, yelling groups of college students on the lawns of every house. They all seem to be chasing a round, sort of flat object—and usually they don't catch it!

Frisby is a great pastime for picknickers, too. In fact, it's becoming dangerous to eat at Pioneer Park anymore. Frisbys (or is it frisbies) fly into the middle of the picnic table, the food, the fire . . . People who forget to bring their frisbies to the picnic have dangerous thoughts. They plot ways to get the frisby away from the people eating next to them! The ingenious methods used in securing a frisby this way aren't available for publication yet, but may appear soon!

Kansas Jabs Fencing Club In Close Tilt

Coach Paul Armato's fencers dropped a 14-13 decision to the Kansas Jayhawks in the Coliseum Sunday.

Nebraska lost the foils and sabre 4-5 but rallied to take the epee 5-4. In the foils, Armato won 2-1, Bill Daily lost 1-2 and Ron Hagen lost 1-2.

The sabre told almost the same story with Frank Tirro nabbing a 2-1 decision and Robert Brethaurer and Wayne Bulhrer losing by identical 1-2 scores.

Huskers Rally
The Huskers fired a rally in the epee which nearly pulled them into a win. Nathan Miller and Dan Trued took a pair of 2-1 decisions but Dr. Harold Horn fell 1-2.

The director of the match was John De Putron of the Lincoln Air Force base.

Scoring System
The match was unusual in that an electric scoring device was used in the epee. The swords of the two fencers were wired and an electric scoreboard flashed whenever contact was made with an opponents body.

Armato said after the match that he used as many men as possible in the contest to afford his squad experience. "Had our best fencers doubled up and fenced more than one event, we probably would have done better," Armato stated.

Jayhawks Defeat Golf Team

The University of Kansas took a 16-5 win over Nebraska in a Big Eight golf match Saturday.

Tom Fulkerson (78), Nebraska, defeated Jim Davies (84), 3-0.
Lynn Kindred (84), Kansas, defeated Larry Hecchie (87), 2-0.
Bob Wood (73), Kansas, defeated Tom Kistler (81), 2-1.
Don Wilson (80), Kansas, defeated Don Wallemath (85), 25-0.
Toalson-Javies defeated Kirkerson-McCulston, 2-1.
Wood-Wilson defeated Kistler-Wallemath, 2-0.

Squeaker Win To NU

Nebraska came from behind to win the last two doubles matches and the meet from Kansas in a Big Eight tennis encounter in the Coliseum Monday afternoon.

Bill North and George Fisk, playing beautiful tennis, took a close 12-9 decision from Kansas' two top players, Lynn Siebverling and Bob Peterson in the first doubles meeting. The win tied the meet at three matches apiece.

Then, Bruce Russell and George Fisk banged out a dramatic 12-10 victory over Bob Mettlen and Gene Kene to hand the Huskers their fourth straight victory, 4-3. The win evened the Scarlet record at four wins and four losses.

Lynn Siebverling (K) defeated Bill North 12-10.
George Fisk defeated Bob Peterson (K) 12-3.
Art Weaver defeated Gene Kene (K) 12-11.
Bob Mettlen (K) defeated Bruce Russell 12-8.
Jerry Williams (K) defeated Charlie Kress 12-6.
North and Fisk defeated Siebverling and Peterson 12-9.
Weaver and Russell defeated Kene and Mettlen 12-10.

Husker Anderson's Score Tops Meet

Kansas State Wins Fifth Annual Rifle Test; Nebraska Fourth

Nebraska came up with the individual grand champion but had to settle for fourth place in the fifth annual invitational Gallery Rifle Championships held on the ROTC range Saturday and Sunday.

Gary Anderson of the Husker squad fired a 291x300 in the team match, and 197x200 in the prone match, to finish with a grand aggregate score of 488x500, good enough to edge ahead of Kansas State's Thurston Banks who got 480x500.

Kansas State took the overall team championship with a combined score of 1,429x1500. The Wildcats topped the record for highest team score set last year by Iowa State by 14 points. The top four teams beat last year's winning mark.

Missouri Takes Second
Missouri University finished second, though pressed closely by Colorado School of Mines. Scores were determined by adding the totals of the best five shooters on each team. The top five scores of both Missouri and the Miners added up to identical totals, so all the scores of individuals firing for the two teams respectively were added together to determine the second place squad.

The tournament was attended by thirteen teams including 112 individuals contestants. Firing started at 8 a.m. Saturday morning and did not conclude until noon on Sunday.

The top five shooters and their scores for the Huskers were: Anderson, 291x300; Don Bell, 284x300; Dave Hillamn, 283x300; Lynn Peterson, 285x300; Richard Woolly, 278x300.
