

Rugged Spring Day Contest Ends In Tie

The Nebraska freshmen football team battled the soph-junior squad to a 6-6 tie in a hard-hitting Spring Day feature at Memorial Stadium.

The contest was marked by strong defensive play which restricted the majority of action to midfield. Each squad came up with its share of touchdown threats only to see them stymied by a clenched defense.

The freshmen opened scoring in the first period on a 77-yard march engineered by quarterback Dean Cozine. Fed by Cozine, Clay White, Pat Fischer, and John Minnick chewed up yardage in the sustained drive that culminated in a one-yard touchdown plunge by White. Key play in the march was a 15-yard pass from Fischer to Roland McDole. Extra points as well as kickoffs were eliminated in the scrimmage. Reds Drive 70 Yards Quarterback Roy Stinnett sneaked two yards for the lone upperclass touchdown after he led a frosh-spiked team in a 70-yard trek in 14 plays. Two speedy halfbacks, Roger Brede and frosh Dick Place as well as hard-running Carroll Zaruba boosted the effort. Again the largest single chunk of yardage came on an aerial, this a 19-yard pass from Stinnett to Larry Naviaux.

Other game features in addition to sparkling line play included a 57-yard touchdown run by Zaruba that was nullified by a clipping penalty. Fischer was passing effectively. He rifled one pass to McDole for a 41-yard gain.

Martz Hurt
On the darker side of the picture the scrimmage produced one casualty, Max

Martz, swift halfback from Beatrice. Martz, who had been outstanding in earlier workouts, was helped from the field after being hit hard early in the game. Authorities Saturday reported that the extent of the injuries was limited to bruised neck and shoulder muscles. The injury was not considered serious.

Coach Bill Jennings held off on comments and did not cite any individuals for outstanding play. He had his men working again on Saturday morning. The team is preparing for the annual All Sports Day Alumni-Varsity skirmish to be held this Saturday.

Jennings did not reveal his single-wing offense to any great extent as his squad stood by the split-T for most of the afternoon.

Rough Landing Coming Up

An unidentified white player makes a falling catch of a pass thrown by halfback Pat Fischer in Friday's Spring Day Scrimmage. Closing in on the receiver are Larry Naviaux (11) and Dick McCashland (40). The scrimmage ended in a 6-6 tie as spirited defensive work featured the play of both squads.

Oklahoma State Hits Husker Pennant Hopes

Cowboys Sweep Series As Siebler Loses First

Oklahoma State's Cowboys virtually eliminated Nebraska from Big Eight baseball title contention by sweeping a three game series in Stillwater Friday and Saturday.

The Cowboys, never known as a strong hitting club, bashed Husker ace Dwight Siebler 8-1 in the nine inning Friday affair and then collected eleven hits off left-hander Charlie Ziegenbein in the first half of the Saturday double header for a 6-1 triumph. Lefty Hevner and Gil Dunne held Oklahoma State to six hits in the final game, but the Huskers couldn't score any runs of their own while losing a 2-1 decision.

Siebler Falls

In the first game, Siebler who has gone the distance four times this season, didn't get past the fourth inning. The big righthander gave up seven hits, seven runs and added a balk while losing his first in six decisions this year.

The Huskers collected seven hits off Oklahoma State's Joe Horley but tight infield work by the Cowboys and the Husker's inability to bunch their blows spelled the difference. Horley got nine strikeouts while going the route. The win was his fourth against two defeats.

The disaster continued in the Saturday doubleheader. In the first game, Roy Peterson tossed a nifty four hitter and his mates backed him with near perfect fielding. Bob Sloan slammed two hits for the Okies, one of them a triple.

Best Game

The finale was the best game of the series Husky wise. Hevner and Cowboy pitcher Dick Soergel duelled for five innings before the Nebraska lefthander's old nemesis caught up with him. Catcher Bill Holderman smashed a long home run pinch hitting for Jim Jech with one away in the fifth to give the Cowboys a momentary 1-0 lead.

In Nebraska's sixth, Gary Reimers opened with a single and moved around on Al Karle's sacrifice. A long signal by catcher Jim Kane scored Reimers and the Huskers were back in the ballgame.

Oklahoma State came right back in their sixth when Don Doergel laid down a perfect squeeze bunt to send shortstop Jerry Adair home with the winning run.

The loss was the third against no wins for Hevner. Again the Huskers collected seven hits, but couldn't capitalize. The trio of wins moved Oklahoma State back into the conference second slot behind Missouri. The Tigers took a tight 5-4 win from Oklahoma in a Friday game and then were rained out of the Saturday doubleheader.

Eight Records Set; Huskers Keep Dual Slate Clean; Track Margin Downs Colorado

Nebraska continued their mastery of the cinders in dual track meets this year by smacking a good Colorado squad 79-57 in Memorial Stadium Saturday.

New meet records were a dime a dozen as the Huskers compiled their winning margin on a 52-30 bulge in track events. The two teams finished even up at 27 in the field.

Keith Gardner, as usual, played a big part in the new records as eight meet marks went by the boards. The Jamaican Jet romped to a new 100-yard dash record of :09.6. He also anchored the 440-yard relay team which finished in :42.4. The time will go into the books as the record since this is the first running of the event.

Gardner topped off a busy day by edging teammates Keith Young and Bill Marten in the highs with a slow time of :14.6. Intermittent showers which forced other Ivy Day festivities indoors, made the track heavy and hampered the performances.

Colorado cracked the mile relay record with a 3:22.3 time, bettering the old standard of 3:23.7 set by Nebraska in 1952. Nebraska's Ken Polard won his specialty, the pole vault, with 14' 3/4", nearly eight inches higher than Don Cooper's old record.

Mike Fleming lost in his scheduled duel with Mike Peake, Colorado's ace, in the half mile, but came back to establish a new record in the mile with 4:20 flat. The new mark was three seconds faster than George Fitzsimmons ran in 1950.

Bernie Frakes, Colorado established a new two mile record, running 9:30.5 to wipe out the old mark of 10:43.3 held by Nebraska's Don Yocum since 1946.

Bill Tesar — V. Pres.

We're proud to be No. 2

The people who live in the United States have more of almost everything—including telephones.

Therefore it's possible, in such a fabulous country, to be the No. 2 communications system in size—and still have a great opportunity for service and growth.

General Telephone serves, for example, more telephone customers than the total number of telephones in such a country as France.

And this list is growing—at the rate of 1,000 new customers every working day—partly because so many of the areas we serve are suburban areas, which are the fastest-growing areas in this country.

All of which confronts us with many challenges.

If we cannot be the largest, we can surely aspire to be the finest—to do whatever we do better than it has been done before.

So we're happy to be No. 2. It keeps you on your toes.
