

Folk Singer Billed For 3rd 'Artist' Show

A young folk singer, Dylan Todd, will appear July 2, 8 o'clock, at the Union Ballroom in the third concert of the Summer Artist Series.

The Kentuckian is a product of the Cincinnati Conservatory and for two years, he travelled through New York, Florida and California doing odd jobs and playing where he could.

Todd returned to New York in 1954, and began appearing on such shows as "Camera Three", "The Garry Moore Show", and "The Ernie Kovacs Show".

Admission to these Summer Artist Series concerts is free. More than 700 people attended the concert last week, according to Bob Handy, Union Activities Director.

Chilly Party Takes To Ice

A special summer session ice skating party for all students, faculty, administrative personnel will be held at the Lincoln Pershing Municipal Auditorium June 30 at 7 p.m.

Special reduced rates of 35 cents will be charged and skate rental will be 35 cents.

Ice skating parties are similar to roller skating parties with special music and games, professional instructor and refreshments.

The party is limited to 100 people so it is wise to sign up immediately on the bulletin board in the Union Activity office said Bob Handy, Union Activities Director.
