

Remedial Dilemma Tackled

The university is experimenting with a possible solution to the problem of remedial college courses this summer.

Beginning July 14, KUON-TV will broadcast a three-week course in remedial English for next fall's incoming freshmen showing weaknesses in English.

University entrance examinations are given in the spring to Lincoln high school students and also in the summer to those who wish to avail themselves of it then. English deficiencies are determined from these examinations.

According to Lee W. Chatfield, director of Junior Division, incoming freshmen scheduled to take the non-credit course, English A, will be encouraged to take the televised course. Successful completion of the course will qualify students for English B, a credit course.

Mrs. Helen Graham, supervisor of English A, will teach the course at 7 p.m. Monday through Friday over Channel 12.

Robert Schlater, assistant producer-director of educational television, said, "Nationally there is a great deal of experimentation in educational television. Studies have shown that television-taught students do as well, and in most cases, somewhat better than the student in the normal classroom situation."

Concert To Air Student Talent

With the downbeat of Emmanuel Wishnow's baton, the Summer Symphony Orchestra will present a concert July 16 at 8 p. m. in the Union ballroom.

The orchestra is comprised of some 55 summer school students who are studying applied music. The concert will be the culmination of the summer orchestra credit course, Wishnow said.

Wishnow will conduct the orchestra in the following selections: Overture to the Ruy Blas by Mendelssohn, The Faithful Shepherd by Handel-Beecham, Three Bavarian Dancers by Elgar, The Red River Gig by Benjamin, Sheep and Goat by Guion, Summer Evening by Delius.

Faculty Wives Fete Mrs. Bedell

A Faculty wives guest luncheon will honor Stella V. Bedell at 12 a.m., July 15, in Parlours XYZ Union.

Mrs. Bedell is the wife of Dr. Ralph C. Bedell, specialist in higher education programs in the United States Office of Education and former secretary-general of the South Pacific commission.

At the luncheon, Mrs. Bedell will give her impressions of life in the South Pacific.

University faculty women, faculty wives, graduate women students and wives of graduate students are invited. Reservations may be obtained by calling 2-7631, extension numbers 4284 or 3135.

And Round You Go In Union Thursday

For students and faculty who have a special love for old western style music there will be a University Square Dance in the Union Ballroom,

July 17 at 7:30 p.m. Bob Handy, Union activities director said that LaVern Rockenback will provide the music and do the calling. Free lessons will be given.
