

Sig Nu's Down Sig Chi's 21-14

Betas, Sig Eps, And Phi Psis Also Win First Matches

By Larry Novicki
Don Wenzl and Yogi Hergenrader provided an effective one-two punch for Sigma Nu in a well-played 21-14 victory over Sigma Chi yesterday afternoon on the intramural field.

Wenzl caught one touchdown pass and harassed the Sigma Chi offense with vicious end play. Throughout the game he kept the opposing secondary on their toes with his faking and catching.

Hergenrader ran for one touchdown from his tailback slot and passed for two more touchdowns.

Jon Erickson was the standout for Sigma Chi. He hit Wes Berry and Al Ellerbrok for touchdown strikes.

The three other games that were played yesterday ended up as one-sided affairs. The Beta's blanked the DU's 19-0; the Sig Ep's downed the Phi Deltas 18-2; and the Phi Psi's blasted the ATO's 39-0.

All stater Dick Place ran for one touchdown and passed for two more for Beta Theta Pi. Charlie Arizumi's hard charging kept the Delta Upsilon passers under such heavy pressure that they could not muster a sustained offensive at any time during the game.

Cork Rowley connected for three TD's as Sigma Phi Epsilon rambled past Phi Delta Theta. Darrel Pinkston was on the receiving end of two Rowley payoff passes, the second of which was a reaching, diving snare.

The final Sig Ep touchdown was a 40-yard shot with Cork Engle hauling in the pigskin. Engle and Chuck Greenwald also turned in some good blocking and defensive work.

Dick Jacobs, the Phi Delta tailback and field general, could not get anything going offensively.

Phi Kappa Psi displayed shades of their 1956 all-University championship team as they overpowered Alpha Tau Omega 39-0.

Don Fricke, 6-0 and 180, sophomore center from Hastings was part of the Husker linebacking corps that was described as nothing short of sensational.

No Layoff For Huskers

Ready Selves For Big Ten Encounter

Nebraska's Cornhuskers won't be relaxing this week enjoying the fruits of their 14-7 victory over the Penn State Nittany Lions. When they travel to Lafayette, Indiana, this weekend they will be meeting one of the top ranked teams in the Big Ten in the Purdue Boilermakers.

First Test

It will be Purdue's first test. Unlike Penn State, the Boilermakers have been warned that the Cornhuskers deserved a higher ranking than the experts accorded them in preseason placings.

Before the season opened, Coach Bill Jennings told Husker followers: "We promise only one thing, we'll field a bunch of lads who will hit."

His team bore out his words in a slam bang battle with the Nittany Lions of Penn State, rated as one of the top four in the East.

More good news came from the Husker camp when it was discovered that the paper-thin ranks of the Huskers had held up.

Good Fall Camp

The intensive fall camp the Huskers went through was probably responsible for the lack of injuries and the good condition the Huskers were in during the crucial final period.

"We've got an awfully hard row ahead, Coach Jennings said after the game. "But I feel sure the squad will continue the fine efforts it showed in the opening game. We've got another club just as big and just as strong as Penn State coming up this week when we meet Purdue at Lafayette."

The Huskers will go into the Purdue game again as underdogs.

Saturday's game will mark the first meeting between Nebraska and Purdue in football.

It will be the 103rd game between Nebraska and a Big Ten team since the Huskers started playing football in 1890.

Nebraska has won 38, lost 55 and tied 10. Prior to World War II Nebraska had an edge. Through 1950, the Huskers were on top 35-31-8.

The intramural season is getting into full swing as football, fall golf, shuffleboard and tennis lead the way into the most elaborate and complete IM season ever at the University of Nebraska.

Intramural director Ed Higginbotham has plans for around forty different competitions. Nearly every sport imaginable is included in the program, making Nebraska the top IM school in the Big Eight conference—perhaps even in the entire country.

With all the activity going on intramural lines the Daily Nebraskan has decided to devote quite a bit more space to them—in fact nearly half of every sports page.

We Want Reporters

What we'll need to do this properly is reporters and plenty of them. We're really hurting for a man out on Ag campus who can phone in results of events that are taking place out there. If you think you can write, drop down to our office in the basement of the Student Union and we'll see what we can do for you.

Also, if anyone or any team doesn't think they're getting good coverage, just tell us. We won't know what you want unless you clue us in. There's a letter drop right inside our front door. Address your mail to either Randy Lambert or me.

In this weekly column I'll try to run down a few of the highlights and peculiarities of the IM campaign. If anyone has anything newsworthy or unusual, drop me a note, and you'll probably see it in the paper the next day.

More News To Come

Right now I'll have to be heading over to the PE field to take in the first touch football game. I'll be back again next week with a little more news and not so much idle chatter.

Two Omahans Lead I-State

Two former Omaha athletes led Iowa State to a wild 33-0 victory over the Drake Bulldogs. The two Nebraskans, Bob Harden and Pete Goeser, were either responsible or partially responsible for four of the five Cyclone touchdowns.

Harden, former Omaha Benson prepster, plunged from the one-yard line twice to score and once from the two for a score. Goeser, junior tailback also from Omaha Benson, replaced Dwight Nichols and connected with a 52 yard pass for another Iowa State score.

Big Eight Roundup—

Golden Herd Lay In Wake For Sooners

By Randall Lambert

Far out west where the Buffaloes run rampant 45,000 thousand fans eagerly await Nov. 1. On that day the most highly-touted Colorado football squad in history will match strides with Oklahoma in a game that has been sold out since last summer.

It was two years ago on Folsom Field amid blizzard conditions that the Sooners came from behind to nudge the Buffs in the last half 27-19.

Again last year at Norman the Sooners pulled it out of the fire winning in the last half 14-13.

This year the Buffalo coaches have one aim in mind and that is to beat Oklahoma. The Buffs even brought in "Slingin'" Sammy Baugh, pro football's greatest passer, and Phil Bengston, San Francisco 49-er defensive coach, to Boulder to work with the Buffs in spring practice.

Baugh Says
After spring drills had closed, Baugh had this to say about the Buffs. "Colorado has the horses to put a screeching halt to Oklahoma's win skein in the Big Eight conference. Colorado has the finest single wing-back running attack I've ever seen and they've got tremendous depth. I really believe that they can beat Oklahoma this fall." Baugh went on to say, "Colorado has an outstanding back in Bill Flowers from L'ville, Texas. He is one of the finest backs I have ever seen."

This past week four sophomores occupied first unit berths with six more on the second team.

This is in sharp contrast with Coach Dal Ward's expressed opinion of Sept. 1, when the Buff coach commented he didn't feel more than five first year men would show up on the top 22.

Dowler Disappointing

One of the big disappointments has been Boyd Dowler, first string quarterback last year. Last year Dowler was a mainstay in the backfield which contained Bob Stranisky, who has departed to the Baltimore Colts. Dowler was the leading pass receiver in the Big Eight with 25 catches for 376 yards. He also was the second leading punter with a 40.2 average for 32 punts. He ranked eighth in passing with 15 completions out of 47 throws which were good for 271 yards.

At the present time Dowler is running with the second team behind Ralph Herbst.

Only three Buffaloes have maintained their starting jobs consistently in the first two weeks. They are LG John Wooten, RE Kirk Campbell and RH Eddie Dove.

Campbell has been hampered by a badly swollen elbow. But he has hung on as number one right end. The Denver junior has had an up-and-down fall with the elbow plaguing him almost from the start. But big Kirk is a resilient soul and bounced back big after Saturday's scrimmage as he eloped to Raton, N. M., to marry his high school sweetheart.

Weiss

Weiss unfurled the most dazzling play of Saturday's scrimmage as he bolted through the line from his line-backer spot to pick off a stray pitchout and ramble 65 yards for a touchdown.

Tackles, Guards Weak

The two weakest-appearing Colorado positions are left end and center.

Of the two, center now looms as the most critical by a good margin.

Coach Dal Ward has had three different men operating on the first team thus far. No one has stepped forward to take charge. This has Ward worried.

"Frankly, I thought we'd at least have a pretty good line on who the man would be by this time," he commented Monday. "But no one has done much so far except move ahead for a day or so then fall back. Our big problem is speed. We started the fall with Tom Siratovich running number one. The second week we moved Terry Smotherman up because he looked like he was starting to come and also because he's probably the fastest center candidate—although he's no speed demon. But Smotherman didn't do too well Saturday so we'll give Robin Cherp a try with the first unit this week."

The speed factor at center was the item causing the most concern as practice be-

The Man Who Thinks for Himself

Knows... ONLY VICEROY HAS A THINKING MAN'S FILTER... A SMOKING MAN'S TASTE!

Now answer this one: Do you really think about the filter cigarette you choose? YES  NO

If your answer is "Yes"... well, you're the kind of person who thinks for himself. You can be depended on to use judgment in everything you do.

The fact is, men and women who really think for themselves usually smoke VICEROY. Their reason? Best in the world. They know for a fact that only VICEROY—no other cigarette—has a thinking man's filter and a smoking man's taste.

*IF YOU HAVE ANSWERED YES TO 6 OF THESE QUESTIONS, YOU ARE A PERSON WHO THINKS FOR HIMSELF!
