Outside World

President Eisenhower said there is seemingly no present prospect for the opening of schools in Little Rock, Ark., and Point Royal and Charlottesville, Va. Eisenhower said the closing of schools in the two states can eventually have disastrous effects on the nation. The president's statement came while a Little Rock judge declined to advise the school board whether it could legally lease four high school buildings as private schools.

Nationalists Capable

The Nationalist Chinese are capable of holding the offshore islands of Quemoy and Matsu against Communist attack unless the Reds are willing to go all out, according to Col. Douglas Lane, U.S. military advisor on the besieged Nationalist territory. Col. Lane said that the critical supply problem is being licked.

And Why Not?

A German mindreader was acquitted of charges of defrauding clients by giving them news of missing relatives. Gerhard Belgardt answered correctly six questions including one by a city detective on subjects which he couldn't have previously known anything about to win his case. Belgardt commented after the trial, "I knew I would be acquitted."

Troops To Go?

The new pro-Nasser premier of Lebanon, Rashid Karami, predicted American troops would leave his country by Oct. He told newspapermen that the withdrawal of troops would be of first importance and would be discussed at his first cabinet meeting.

Attention Gourmets

The latest thing in palate ticklers is seasoned-bumble bee, according to a London newspaper. The bees are guaranteed stingless and sell for a mere 70 cents a can.

Trial Set

The trial date of 15 year old Caril Ann Fugate will probably be in late October or early November. Caril is charged in connection with the murder spree of her boyfriend, Charles Starkweather, last spring.

Reporter Attacked

A reporter for the Chicago Daily News, assigned to investigate Chicago's pornography racket, was hospitalized Thursday when his face was slashed 4 times by a hoodlum's straight razor. The reporter, Miller Davis, 37, was lured to a street-corner rendezvous, then dragged into a darkened doorway where the attack occurred.
