

Hitchcock Raps Gus I 27-0

Sig Eps Over Sig Chi; SAE, Theta Xi, Newman Win

Hitchcock remained undefeated in Selleck Quad play as they trounced Gus I 27-0. The Hitchcock team, sparked by Bob Leigh, scored all their touchdowns in the second and third periods. Two of the markers were made on intercepted passes.

Bruce Hasch started off the scoring in the second quarter when he intercepted a Gus I pass and scampered 20 yards for the initial six points. Bob Leigh passed to Ron Ericson for the extra point.

when Leigh threw a short pass to Ericson. Leigh again made the one-point with a throw to Howard Ach.

Third quarter scoring started with Ach intercepting another Gus I pass and running 30 yards for the score. Leigh again hit Ach for the extra point.

Leigh continued to harass the Gus I pass defense with a touchdown pass to George Suydan which covered 50 yards. Leigh missed with the extra point pass.

Sig Eps Win
In a Wednesday night headliner, Sigma Phi Epsilon rallied to beat Sigma Chi 14-13.

After spotting the Sig Chi's a 7-6 halftime lead and staving off a fourth quarter rally, the Sig Eps managed a touchdown and a safety to provide the winning margin.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon crushed unbeaten Delta Sigma Pi 38-7 as Wally Bryans threw for six touchdowns and two extra points.

Phil Bauer and Bob Thompson each scored twice. Dick Falconer and Bob Beach were the other two targets for Bryans.

DUs Blanked
Theta Xi showed signs of power as they tripped the DUs 6-0. Fred Howlett passed Charlie Grothe for the winning score.

The DUs threatened with long passes on several occasions, but the receivers could not hold on to the ball.

Navy Sinks
Newman Club had an easy time as they ripped Navy 22-0. Pat Hipp and Lambert Sobon each grabbed touchdown passes and Mike Wieland speared an erring Navy pass and ran for the third tally. Sobon also trapped the Navy tailback in the end zone for a safety.

Farmhouse Wins
Farmhouse razzle-dazzled the Kappa Sigs to the tune of 25-6 in other action last week.

Don Heurman first passed to Don Geisler for two touchdowns, and then Geisler took over the pitching detail to hit Bob Dannert twice. Geisler tallied the only extra point.

Dave Anstine shot a short pass to Bill Brecht to account for the Kappa Sigma scoring.

Two Single Wing Tailbacks Tie For Big 8 Rushing Leadership

Howard Cook, who last year was a replacement for Colorado All-American Bob Stransky, picked up 166 yards in 20 carries against Kansas Saturday to become deadlocked for first place in the rushing department of the Big Eight Conference football statistics.

State 959, and Oklahoma, in two games, has collected 755. Phil Snowden of Missouri stayed on top as the league's best passer and punter. The Tiger quarterback has completed 19 of 36 passes for 241 yards and has lifted 11 punts averaging 46.4 yards.

McDaniel of Oklahoma with one for 86. A tie resulted in punt returning by two players heretofore unlisted, Tony Banfield of Oklahoma State toted three for a 21.6 average, and was matched by Jackie Sandefur of Oklahoma with the same figure. Jim Wiggins of O. S. U., last week's leader, now has a record of five aver-Jackie Sandefur aging 17.6.

Cook advanced into the tie with Dwight Nichols of Iowa State. In three games Nichols has carried 64 times for 222. In two games, Cook has the same aggregate on 30 carries.

Behind them are Max Falk, Kansas State, who has gained 195 yards on 29 attempts, and Melvin West of Missouri, who has tried 31 times for 143 yards.

In the aerial department, Dick Soergel of Oklahoma State trails with 11 of 24 for 179 yards, and Nichols of Iowa State owns eight of 11 for 159 yards.

The punters shifted a bit behind Snowden. Jim Wood of O. S. U. has kicked 10 for 42.3, Terry Lee of Kansas State five for 41.8, and George Harshman of Nebraska has 11 for a 39.6 average.

Bob Harden of Iowa State kept command of the individual scoring lead. He has five touchdowns for 30 points, Jim Wood of O. S. U. and Colorado's Cook are next with 16 points. The latter pair has contributed point conversions and field goals.

Oklahoma State, undefeated along with Oklahoma and Colorado, moved to the fore in team total offense. The Cowpokes, ineligible for the conference crown, have 1,007 yards in three games. Iowa State trails with 986, Kansas

NEBRASKAN SPORTS

Cornshucks

by Larry Novicki

One way to get the houses to report their news to us is to make a mistake concerning that organization—I did. Last week this column said that the Sig Eps won the intramural football title last year, and the Phi Psi's won it the year before. The first part is right, but the Phi Psi's didn't capture the crown in question in '56, it was in '55 that they won. Of course, Sigma Phi Epsilon won in '56, and it was they who stormed the Rag office in quest of this correspondent. I goofed; I admit it. Guess I have been in school longer than I thought. I remember the Phi Psi's used their championship football team as a rushing point the year I matriculated, which was, when I stop to think about it, 1956.

which was discontinued by the IM department several years ago because of pressure from administration and faculty groups. Apparently the competition became somewhat of a rat race, and each year ended up with a lot of hard feelings. The Nebraskan will check into all the possibilities and difficulties (including the financing of the loving cup) of this angle. Maybe something can be worked out that would be a help to the IM program.

Sidelights . . . Gordy Arneson of Delta Tau Delta led qualifiers in the free throw shooting contest with a 47 out of 50 mark . . . Rifle team entries (along with five bucks) are due in the PE building tonight at 5:00 . . . The Betas and the Sig Alphas have reached the semifinals of the double elimination shuffleboard tourney.

Degeneration

National magazine this week comments: "And the Lord said unto Adam(s), 'Behold thou hast eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee that thou shouldst not eat. Cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it. Dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return.'"

"Therefore the Lord sent Adam(s) forth from the Garden of Eden."—Genesis III; 17, 19, 23.

Secret of Fitness Confessed

Asked what kind of exercise he took, a fit looking elderly gentleman answered: "I get my exercise acting as a pallbearer to my friends who exercise."
