Seven Outstate Footballers Start For Promising Yearlings

By Norm Taylor

Seven states will be represented in the starting lineup for Nebraska's freshman footballers Friday afternoon, when the Husker yearlings square off against Iowa State at Ames.

Three Minnesotans — QB Ron Meade, Canby, RG Al Fischer, Princeton, and RE Roger Cole, Granite Falls — are slated to open Friday.

A pair of Ohians — LG Pete Williams and Bill Slacas, Cleveland — will be on the field for the opening kickoff.

Lexington Grads

Two Lexington graduates are the Nebraskans ticketed for opening duty. They are LH Dallas Dyer and RT Monte Kiffin.

The first unit will boast a team average of 200 pounds. They scale 214 from tackle-to-tackle, 210 in the line and 180 in the backfield.

A traveling squad of 54 players was announced today by Coach Warren Schmackel. They will leave Lincoln by bus at 6:45 a.m. Friday, stopping enroute at Denison, Ia. for a pre-game meal at 10:00 a.m., and will arrive in Ames at 1:00 p.m.

They will return to Lincoln following the game, arriving at about 11:30 p.m.

Sig Eps Lose To Sig Nu

Defending Champions Ousted 15-13, Betas Win Easily, SAM, SAE, Hitchcock, and MacLean Win

By Larry Novicki

A new intramural football champion was assured as first round tournament action got under way. Defending title holder, Sigma Phi Epsilon, was ousted in the single elimination tourney by Sigma Nu 15-13.

The game went into the last period with the Sig Eps leading 6-2.

The teams exchanged touchdowns, and the score stood at 13-9 the Sig Eps still leading with only three plays remaining in the game and Sigma Nu in possession of the ball. Bob Sullivan, who had scored the first Sigma Nu touchdown, backed up and fired a desperation pass some 50 yards into the arms of Tom Mathews to cinch the victory and upend the two-time champion Sig Eps.

In other tournament action the Betas won handily over Sigma Chi 34-13. They will face Sigma Nu late in this week.

Phi Kappa Psi remained in contention by smothering Alpha Tau Omega 41-12. The Phi Psi defense was on its toes as three intercepted passes went for touchdowns.

Sig Alphas

Last night Sigma Alpha Epsilon kept its unbeaten slate clean by lambasting Delta Sigma Pi 46-0. Wally Bryans ran for two td's and passed for four more. SAE will face the potent Phi Psi's in second round play.

Farmhouse came from behind after trailing Alpha managed 12 yards.

Hitchcock downed Gus II, while Maclean's victim was Seaton I.

Boucher won their opening game in the tourney when they defeated Avery 1-0.

After battling to a scoreless tie for four quarters, Avery took the ball for their four downs on their 15. They to Dwight Boesiger for 18 yards, they won the game.

Injured Huskers Head For Syracuse

By Norman Beatty

Nebraska footballers will travel to Syracuse, N. Y. with an injured, but spirited squad this week end.

Squadman Bohannon will be left at home. He is confined to the Student Health with a case of bronchitis.

Underdogs

Although being the underdog, the Huskers aren't conceding a thing as they look for win number three. "They won't beat us 55-0 as they did Cornell last week", commented Coach Jennings.

Saturday's line-up at the kickoff may include several players who haven't seen much action this year. This will be due to injuries or sicknesses.

The Scarlet and Cream have spent the week remedying mistakes made in the K. State game and watching films of the Syracuse Orangemen. The team came through a limited scrimmage Wednesday afternoon with no ill effects.

Return

The Cornhuskers will leave today at 8:30 and return Saturday.

Concession Vendors

All athletes that sold concessions at the Penn State game may pick up their checks at room 109 in the Coliseum.
