

Herd Hits Hustling Huskers Mizzou Is Homecoming Foe

A supposed rout turned into a narrow 27-16 victory for the Colorado Buffs and set the stage for Nebraska's homecoming game with Missouri.

Nebraska held the reins for three quarters, but on a fourth down play Howard Cook, brilliant Buff tailback, hit Boyd Dowler in the end zone for the go-ahead score, early in the fourth quarter.

If Dowler had not made the catch the Huskers would have taken over possession of the ball and possibly the tables would have been turned on the herd.

Individuals like George Harshman, Dennis Emanuel, Don Fricke, Dick Kosier, Guy Sapp, John Poseigo, and others showed well for Nebraska, but in the end it was the overall team strength and depth of Colorado that paid off.

Nebraska will now turn its attention to their homecoming fray with the Missouri Tigers.

Missouri will be hoping to get a lot of north and south mileage out of West-Mel West, that is—against the Huskers on Saturday. West is the easy-running sophomore who led the league last week in yardage with 374 yards for a 5.3 rushing average in 71 tries. West is chunky and quick at 5-8 and 186 pounds. He has rambled from the No. 1 left-half position ever since Hank Kuhlman, all conference incumbent, injured an ankle against Idaho.

Nebraska Frosh At Home Against K-St.

Nebraska followers will get a chance to see Warren Schminkel's Cornhusker freshmen in action Friday, November 7, when they entertain the Kansas State frosh.

The Husker yearlings won their first test with Iowa State by a score of 21-14. They came from behind in the fourth quarter to get the edge, and had two other touchdowns called back.

Pat Clare of Sioux City, Iowa, played a standout game both offensively and defensively. Allen Fischer, tackle from Princeton, Minnesota, was a standout in the line. Two quarterbacks, Ron Meade of Canby, Minnesota, and Bill Leifur of Bismarck, North Dakota, both called a good game from the quarterback slot. Monte Kiffin of Lexington played a steady game in the line and Dave Robert,

Warren Schminkel
Longview, Washington, was effective at a halfback position.

Ladies Day

The girls' intramural soccer baseball tournament ended last week as Chi Omega squeezed past Alpha Phi to capture first place.

For some unknown reason, migration seemed to be a bigger attraction last week end, so the archery finals, were postponed until this week. They will be held this Thursday night.

In freshman soccer baseball, action last week, Kappa Alpha Theta defeated Alpha Chi Omega. Alpha Phi beat Zeta Tau Alpha, and Delta Gamma beat Pi Beta Phi. Tomorrow the Tri Deltas will play the Delta Gammas, the AOPis meet the Alpha Xis, and Ag girls play the Kappa Deltas. The Wednesday schedule is Thetas vs. Kappas, Chi Os vs. the winner of the Alpha Xi-AOPi game, and Alpha Phi vs. the winner of the Ag-KD game. Semifinals will be held Thursday.

If he did, the odds are he'll be hotfooting it right back for America's most popular cigarette. Nothing else gives you the rich tobacco flavor and easy-going mildness of Camel's costly blend. It stands to reason: the best tobacco makes the best smoke.
