GRADUATES
A General Motors Representative will be on campus to answer questions about job opportunities with GM on October 30 and 31
No matter where your interests lie in the vast field of engineering, there's a better-than-good chance you'll find your place in the sun with one of the 35 Divisions of General Motors.
For these GM Divisions run the gamut of virtually every field of engineering and science—from engineering, designing and producing automobiles, trucks and hundreds of important industrial products to helping to solve the unknown challenges of the Space Age.
Choosing an engineering career with GM means teaming up with some of the world's finest engineering and scientific brains. It means working in pleasant, modern surroundings such as GM's fabulous Technical Center near Detroit, equipped with every conceivable research facility.
Best of all, it means a future as big as you want to make it at GM's 35 Divisions and 126 plants in 71 cities and 19 states. A future in which your training, your inventive ability, your inquiring mind, your desire to get ahead will receive quick recognition and unlimited opportunities.
You owe it to yourself to investigate the kind of future General Motors is offering young engineers. Make an appointment with the GM Representative next time he visits your campus or write: General Motors Corporation, Personnel Staff, Detroit 2, Michigan.

Mass Red Cross Meeting Tonight

Red Cross will hold a mass meeting tonight at 7 p.m. in Room 315 of the Union.

Miss Maydell Smith, Director of Junior Red Cross and Educational Relations, will be the featured speaker. Miss Smith will talk about her work in Red Cross, much of which has been overseas.

Red Cross Board members will be introduced, and the duties of the various committees will also be explained.

All students interested in working with the Red Cross College Unit may attend this meeting.

Christianity Inter-Vars Topic

Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in Union 315. A student panel, composed of students from the various colleges within the University, will discuss the topic "What is Christianity?"
