By Larry Novicki
 Dick "Yogi" Hergenrader and Charley Arizumi led selections for the 1958 all-University intramural football team.
 Hergenrader, who had never played football before this year, caught on to the game fast as he led the ever-improving Sigma Nu's to the University championship. Yogi's main sport is baseball. He attends school during the Fall term and plays professional baseball in the Boston Red Sox chain during the Spring term.

Arizumi Outstanding
 Arizumi was the outstanding defensive lineman in the leagues. His consistent hard charging kept opposing passers in hot water all season. His efforts helped Beta Theta Pi compile the best defensive record in the leagues. Charley hit his peak against Phi Kappa Psi as the Beta's checked Chuck Stacey and held the Phi Psi's scoreless in a tight 1-0 victory.

Seven other players were chosen for first team berths.
 Intramural teams play with only seven men on a team, but due to the several leagues and the abundance of outstanding men, the Daily Nebraskan added a couple of players to the all-star roster.

Bryans and Stacey
 Assisting Hergenrader in the dream backfield are a couple of "Star of the Week" choices, Wally Bryans of SAE and Chuck Stacey of Phi Kappa Psi. Both were tailbacks and signal callers for their respective teams. Bryans piloted the Sig Alphas to fourth place in the Daily Nebraskan final ratings as they wound up the season with only one loss. Under the leadership of Stacey, the Phi Psi's lost only two games and finished seventh in the ratings.

Art Dewey, blocking back for SAE also made the first backfield. The rugged all-star from Norfolk was the best offensive blocker in the league. He was one of the main reasons Bryans' passing was so effective throughout the season.

Besides Arizumi, the top choices for line positions went to ends Don Wenzl of Sigma Nu and Bob Leigh of Hitchcock. Wenzl proved to be the most adept pass receiver in the league. This is the second all-university honor Don has received. He was also a member of the Daily Nebraskan's basketball all-star team last year.

Leigh
 Leigh earned a "Star of the Week" award for his backfield play, but he also played a good deal of the time at end. Hitchcock swept through

Harriers Finish Fifth

Nebraska finished fifth in the Big Eight Conference cross country test at Norman, Oklahoma, as Kansas won its 12th straight title.

The Huskers were led by their previously undefeated distance star, Joe Mullins who finished eighth in the field.

117 Points

Nebraska had a total of 117 points. This compared with the winner's 37 points, followed by Iowa State's 92 points, Colorado's 98 points, Oklahoma's 111, Nebraska, Oklahoma State's 130, Kansas State's 138 and Missouri's 145.

The individual title was won by Gail Hodgson of Oklahoma. He was followed by Miles Eisenman of Oklahoma State, and defending champion Tom Skutka of Kansas. Others ahead of Mullins were Billy Mills of Kansas, Ernst Kleyhaus, Oklahoma State; Tom Rodda and Duane Holman, Kansas State. Mullins had defeated both Rodda and Holman during a dual meet between Nebraska and Kansas State.

Kier IM Harrier Champion

Richard Kier of Benton House posted a new record for the intramural cross country run held last Wednesday. Kier toured the mile and a half course in the time of 7:21.

The race for second place proved to be the most interesting feature of the event. Tom Ash of Avery nosed out Paul Nielsen of Bessey as both runners were clocked in 7:47.

Fourth place went to Larry Patterson of Hitchcock; fifth was Dick Stuckey of Delta Tau Delta, and a close third was Alpha Gamma Rho.

Hawkeyes Smell Roses

The Hawkeyes of Iowa University are looking at the world through rose colored glasses as result of their resounding 28-6 win over Minnesota. The Hawks are now the Big Ten champions and have won the right to represent the conference in the Rose Bowl.

Husker Loss To KU Frustrating

Kansas proved to Nebraska Saturday that you can control the ball, but still lose the game if the other team in this instance Kansas, can capitalize on their breaks. The defeat, the largest ever run up by a Kansas team, left Nebraska in a fifth place tie with Kansas State. The Huskers may have to settle for a last place tie if Iowa State beats Kansas State this weekend.

Beat Oklahoma?
 The only way the Huskers can better their present position is to beat Oklahoma, which is no small task. The most frustrating thing about the Husker loss at Kansas, the Husker's fourth in the long series at Lawrence, was the fact that they outgained the Jayhawks 298-294, and out-downed them 14-12. However, it was to no avail as Jack Mitchell corps were on the long end of the score and kept alive his hopes of a .500 season, something he has never dipped below in his coaching career.

Next week the Huskers face the mighty Pittsburgh Panthers. Last week Pitt managed to defeat Notre Dame 29-26. The Panthers had tied Army before that and are rated one of the top in the East. The Pitt game will be played on the Huskers' home playing grounds and will be the second eastern power they have met at home this year. The other was the season's opener against Penn State which Nebraska won 14-7. The Pitt game will be the season's home finale for the Huskers. They travel to Norman to play Oklahoma in the last game of the season.
