

Huskers Want Another Upset; Six Seniors Will End Careers

By Norman Beatty
The smallest squad ever to represent the Nebraska Cornhuskers will take the field at Norman, Oklahoma, Saturday, to meet the power-laden Sooners. Due to injuries and sickness there will only be 32 making the trip.

Coach Jennings will be returning Saturday, to his home town of Norman, Oklahoma as head coach of a foreign football power. Fresh from a 14-6 upset of Pittsburgh, which had beaten Notre Dame and had an impressive season record, the Huskers will be out to try to send another team down from the top ranks.

Ending their football careers, Saturday, will be six senior Huskers. Left Guard Dennis Emmanuel will be among this group. He is 6 feet tall and 205 pounds. He started his career as a Cornhusker in 1951-'52 and 1953-'54. He then joined the service and completed tour in February, 1956. He played two years of service ball in Germany. Denny is married.

man played nine of ten games in 1956 for a total of 215 minutes. George also is married. Larry Naviaux, is a half-back who logged the ball for 371 minutes last season. Left-handed passer and kicker he is also sturdy on defense. Naviaux was rated "Star of Week" twice, once while a sophomore and once this year on his performance against Pittsburgh. Larry is married.

Orange Bowl
Oklahoma must win Saturday to clinch the Big Eight Conference Championship (which would be their 11th consecutive) and gain a bid to play in the Orange Bowl next New Year's day. (Pitt was a top contender for a bowl game coming into last Saturday's game.)

Harshman
George Harshman who hails from Dickerson, Pa., is back after a year lay-off. George handles the ball very well and does a good job calling signals. He is a punting, kickoff, PAT, and field goal specialist. Harsh-

O-State Wins Frosh Big 8 Run

The Big Eight's newest member, Oklahoma State, ran away with the conference freshman postal two-mile run this week.

The Cowboy runners finished 3-4-5-6-7 to finish with a low score of 25 to beat Kansas U., perennial champion.

Nebraska finished in a tie for fourth with Iowa State. Both teams recorded 105 points.

Dick Kier, New York City, was the top Nebraska finisher. He was 13th with a time of 10:01.6.

Although Oklahoma State finished on top, Kansas claimed the first and second place runners. Bill Dotson and Bob Lindrud ran 9:19.7, and 9:21.3, respectively.

Other Nebraska finishers were: Tie for 19th—Tom Ash, Omaha (North) and Paul Nielson, Western; 23—Larry Patterson, Cozad; 31—Dick Stuckey, Lexington.

The finish:

- 1. Oklahoma State 25
- 2. Kansas 64
- 3. Oklahoma 76
- 4. Nebraska 105
- 5. Iowa State 105
- 6. Kansas State 119
- 7. Colorado 204

Frosh Show Promise, But Varsity Wins Easily 73-46

By Randall Lambert
The expected close battle between the Freshmen and the Varsity lasted only eleven minutes as the Varsity walked off the Coliseum maps with a 73-46 win.

The Varsity combined a moving offensive attack with a tight, and sometimes pressing, man-to-man defense to stop the frosh cold, except for occasional scoring spurts.

Hoosier Hot-Shots
Two Hoosier hot-shots, Herschel Turner and Al Maxey, paved the way for the Varsity by scoring 21 and 18 points respectively. Time again, to the delight of the crowd, the former prep opponents collaborated to put on an exhibition of pin-point shooting and passing wizardry.

Although the pair left the game early, with 9:20 left in the second half, their names were still on the lips of the crowd as they fled out of the Coliseum.

The frosh were down only 21-19 with 9:09 left in the first half when the Varsity exploded with two free throws by George Swank and field goals by Runer and Maxey. Al Roots, frosh guard, hit a long set shot to draw the score to 27-21. However, the Varsity drove back with a sparkling fast break to score another basket and begin a fatal five minute period that saw the frosh score only one point until the half. The half ended with the Varsity in command 43-22.

Second Half
The second half was a little better for the frosh as they were only outscored 30-24.

This was primarily because Coach Jerry Bush swept the bench. The second half was also significant because it showed the weak bench Nebraska possesses.

Even though the score was one-sided, the frosh did show promise at times. It was evident that they lacked the confidence and polish that is gained only through experience.

An estimated crowd of 5,000 was on hand for the game.

offense and defense and has provided the needed spark for the Big Red.

Carroll Zaruba, a recently switched fullback is now playing strong at left half. Zaruba has seen action in the Marine Corps in Korea. He is 5-9 and 200 pounds. He has terrific speed for his size. His home is Fullerton. Carroll set a scoring record when he attended Doane college in 1951.

Dean Flock, a small, but speedy halfback, hails from Ericson, Nebraska. Dean has been plagued by injuries most of his career at Nebraska. Flock saw action at start of the season, but has been hurt since mid-season. He also doubles as a baseball pitcher counted on heavily this season.
