Geier To Open Tenth Season As Husker Gymnastics Coach

By Louis Engel
The Nebraska Gymnastics team will open its tenth season under the direction of coach Jake Geier this Saturday.

This year's edition of the gymnastics team will have a big load on their hands to keep up with the Geier coached teams of the past nine years. Geier coached teams have won the All College Invitational tournament six times and have finished in the runner-up position in the other three tournaments. They have also won the Midwest AAU tournament five times.

Last year they were Class B champions of the Northwest Invitational tournament. The 1957-58 team also won the All College Invitational and the Midwest AAU tournaments.

Geier has coached teams that have compiled a 42 win-

18 loss record in dual meet competition and have competed in 8 triangular meets through the years and have won 6 of them and have placed second in the other two.

This year's team will have five returning lettermen and two promising sophomores.

The team is captained by Charles Ellis. Ellis, a two-year letterman from Beatrice is the team's all-around performer. He will compete in the free exercise, sidehorse, horizontal and parallel bars, flying rings, tumbling, trampoline, and the rope climb.

Brown Returns
Also returning will be two-year letterman Larry Brown from Lincoln. Larry will compete in the free exercise, tumbling, trampoline, and rope climb.

Two-year letterman Ken Kohler from Beatrice will be back to compete on the sidehorse.

Don Pakieser, a senior letterman from Omaha will perform on the horizontal bar and Philip Hall, a letterman junior from Beatrice, will be an all-around man and compete in all the events except the rope climb.

Letterman Karl Byers, a Lincoln junior will compete on the sidehorse and rope climb.

Two Sophs
The two sophomores that round out the team are Dennis Anstine of Hastings and Herbert Hanich of Lincoln. Anstine will perform on the sidehorse, horizontal bar and parallel bar. Hanich will compete on the flying rings.

The squad travels to Fort Hays, Kansas, on Saturday, to open their season in a triangular meet against Colorado U. and Fort Hays.

Big Ten Proposal For Ban On Foreigners May Grow

By Elmer Kral

Racial segregation — could this happen in the colleges of the North in this country? It seems unlikely, but if the present controversy between U.S. Track officials over participation of foreigners in track boils over into a smear campaign against foreigners, then it could happen.

The controversy was started last week by Big Ten Track coaches who, out of apparent jealousy toward the success of Big 8 and other track teams, proposed legislation to ban foreign athletes from competing in NCAA championships.

Sevigne

According to Nebraska's Coach, Frank Sevigne, the Big Ten coaches are jealous because the other teams in the country are winning with foreigners whereas the Big 10 is not.

Just what do the foreign athletes think of all this petty bickering between coaches of this country?

Keith Gardner, former star hurdler-sprinter at Nebraska believes that the proposed legislation, if passed, could eventually lead to abolition of foreigners from the U.S. track scene except for the Olympics.

Foreign Athletes

Few people in this country realize the importance of athletics in foreign countries. A track star there, is idolized like Mickey Mantle is here. If the foreign trackmen are banned from competition in this country, then possibly there will be extreme bitterness toward the U.S. Naturally this would pour cold water on this country's attempts to improve foreign relations and we might then become super hypocrites in the eyes of the world.

An analysis of the good points of the present track program must be mentioned.

Keith Gardner pointed out that most of the foreign athletes who come here are here because they cannot afford to attend college without scholarships. Thus, track is a means toward a better education.

Another aspect often overlooked is the fact that competition and interest in track has been improved in the U.S. because of the very presence of good athletes like Gardner, Delaney, Davis etc. The influx of foreign stars should create more incentive for the American athletes to do better, therefore, the quality of track should improve because keener competition produces better performances.

Iron Curtain

The fact that this country allows foreigners to study and participate in athletics serves as topnotch propaganda material. As far as it is known, foreigners are not allowed to participate behind the iron curtain except during the exhibitions and Olympic games. Even more important, though, the presence of foreign athletes does create good will between countries.

Perhaps nothing more will develop out of this controversy except for some round-table discussions by several track coaches and officials of the U.S. As Keith Gardner put it, "the trouble has started because of jealousy on the part of a few petty individuals who are, fortunately, a minority in this country."

Let us hope that no smears will be made and that the good reputation of track and of this country will continue and that the sports fans of Nebraska will always have an opportunity to watch more athletes like Keith Gardner and others attending the university.

Husker Swimming Team Hosts Creighton Saturday

By Tom Davies

Coach Hollie Lepley's Husker swimming team will be shooting for their second victory of the season when they host Creighton University of Omaha Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Coliseum pool.

The Huskers, fresh from their 66-19 victory over Ft. Hays Kansas State last Friday, will be favored to win; however it should be a very close meet.

Lepley is planning to change his lineup slightly for this meet. He said, "We are going to make some changes in our lineup in order to give some of our other boys a chance to see how they do in competition."

Again this week, the outcome of the meet could depend upon the performance of the sophomores, all of whom turned in sparkling performances in their first varsity outing last week.

The Creighton contest will be the last for the Husker swimmers until Jan. 10 when Kansas comes here. However, in order to keep the squad in shape, Lepley has scheduled a Freshman-Varsity meet Dec. 18.

Huskers Head For Minnesota

The Nebraska basketball team will hit the trail for the northlands and a Saturday night engagement with Minnesota.

The Huskers are slated to leave the Coliseum at 11:40 this morning and fly to Minneapolis shortly afterwards.

The Gophers are 1-1 for the season. After opening up with a win over Vanderbilt, they fell before Iowa State 81-75 in two overtimes at Minneapolis.

Ron Johnson heads a host of potent Gopher scorers. Last Monday, the 6-7 junior, hit 27 points against Iowa State. As a sophomore the big Delt averaged 17.5 points per game.

Tony Sharpe, who scouted the Minnesotans against Iowa State, says Johnson is one of the best big men he has ever seen.

The Gophers also have two other probable front-line starters that stand 6-8 and 6-6.

In the backcourt will be 6-0 Whitey Johnson, the Minnesota captain. Johnson, a dead outside shooter, runs the teams.

Coach Bush will be taking ten men with him. They include Albert Maxey, Wayne Hester, George Swank, Herschell Turner, Bob Harry, John Cahill, Elmer Walin, Dick Shipwright, Bill Lundholm, and Jim Kowalke.

Turner, Maxey Pacing Husker Basketballers

Two Indianapolis lads have paced the University of Nebraska basketball team in a fast dash out of the gate in the 1958-'59 season.

Herschell Turner, 6-2 junior and a graduate of Shortridge High School at Indianapolis, has been the playmaker who has led the Huskers to three victories over Northwest Missouri, Montana U., and Marquette. Marquette had defeated Wisconsin and Illinois of the Big Ten before dropping a 62-60 decision to the Huskers.

Turner's ball handling has brought him the nickname of The Magician.

After three games, Turner was the leading ball hawk with 27 rebounds and was second in scoring.

Al Maxey, second member of the Indianapolis duo, is a sophomore and 6-3. He graduated from Crispus Attucks High School. He is the Husker's leading point maker with 53, an average of 17.6.

He is perpetual motion on a basketball floor.

"I'm convinced," Coach Jerry Bush says, "that Maxey's hustling tactics rubs off on all the other members of the squad."

Turner, last season, would not take a shot from the outside. This season he's hitting from all distances with a hanging jump shot.

Maxey's best offensive weapon is a fall-away jump.
