

ATO Captures IM Swimming Meet

By Tom Davies
Alpha Tau Omega, hard pressed by Phi Delta Theta and Sigma Alpha Epsilon, copped four first places and picked up points in seven events to capture the 1958 intramural swimming meet. Jerry Keown, swimming for the ATO's, took individual honors in a wide open meet in which four new records were posted. Keown set a new record in the 100-yard individual medley, won the 100-yard butterfly, and swam a leg on the ATO medley relay team which took second.

New records were posted in the 200-yard medley relay, the 220-yard freestyle, the 100-yard backstroke, and the 100-yard individual medley. The SAE medley relay team, composed of Gary Keller, Dave Sever, Dick Hemmer, and Ross McGlasson, touched out the ATO's on the last leg for a new record. ATO Jack Fair broke his own backstroke record that he set last year by almost two seconds, but he was pushed by freshman Larry Farrell.

220 Record
Kuni Mihara, swimming for Cornhusker Coop, established a new record in the 220-yard freestyle.

Later in the week while working out with the freshmen, the former Omaha Central star came very close to the Nebraska freshmen records in the 230- and 440-yard freestyle records. He splashed through the 230 in 2:27.4, over three seconds better than his IM performance; and also turned in a fine time of 5:24.7 in the 440.

Scoring in the meet was well distributed, and the final outcome wasn't decided until the final event. Before the swimming events began, however, the Phi Deltas had received a 12 point lead from their divers. Led by former high school All-American Jim Frank, the Phi Deltas copped first, third, and sixth places. The two top point getters, SAE and ATO, placed no one in the diving event. The ATO's cinched the trophy in the final event when their 200-yard freestyle relay finished third.

11 Entries
Altogether, there were 11 teams entered in the meet, and all of them produced some fine swimmers who turned in good races. The main reason that the first three teams compiled such a large lead was due to a shortage of manpower among the other eight teams.

The scoring went as follows: ATO, 56; Phi Delt 53; SAE 39; Beta 18; DU 18; Andrews 16; Cornhusker Coop 14; Kappa Sig 11; Independent 7; Gus II 3; Theta Xi 2; and the Deltas 1.

Individual winners were:
50-yard freestyle — Jim Pickett—ATO
100-yard butterfly — Jerry Keown—ATO
220-yard freestyle — Kuni Mihara—Cornhusker Coop
100-yard back — Jack Fair—ATO
100-yard breast — Joe Stocker—Beta
100-yard freestyle—Roger Bosveld—Andrews
100-yard individual medley — Jerry Keown—ATO
Diving—Jim Frank — Phi Delt

Ranked Bradley and Michigan St. Give Huskers Traveling Weekend

Nebraska's Cornhuskers, with a 4-1 record, face two midwestern powers this weekend — Bradley at Peoria Thursday, and Michigan State at East Lansing, Saturday. The Cornhuskers' four victories have all been accomplished on the Nebraska court.

Rate High
Both of the Husker opponents are in the top national rankings. Nebraska caught a fine Texas Tech team in a shooting slump to win their last victory, Monday night. The Husker zone defense had a definite hand in the result but Tech followers were thumbing the record books trying to find a game in which the Red Raiders had scored as few points as they did against Nebraska, 46. The Texans had a 23.9 percentage mark on 71 shots, as they scored only 17 field goals. Nebraska hit 19 of 49 for 38.8.

Tech Pressed
The Texans unfolded a zone-press that handcuffed the Huskers in the second half but the 1-3-1 Husker zone contained the Raiders sufficiently to give the Huskers a 54-46 margin. Nebraska had built up a 12-point halftime edge at 35-23. Albert Maxey, hustling sophomore from Indianapolis continues to lead the Cornhusker point makers with a total of 83. Herschell Turner, leading rebounder with 48, is second high in the point department with 48. Jim Kowalke, a sophomore, has moved into the second spot as a rebounder, with 36. The scoring chart reflects the balanced scoring of the Nebraskans.

	PG	FT	Pts	RB
Albert Maxey	36-74	23-31	83	39
Herschell Turner	23-28	22-29	68	48
Jim Kowalke	15-27	6-13	36	11
Bill Lundholm	12-22	8-14	33	36
Bob Harry	13-21	6-9	26	9
George Swank	7-18	10-16	24	26
John Cahill	5-14	5-10	15	14
Dick Shipwright	5-21	4-13	15	10
Elmer Walin	2-4	4-4	8	1

These are the ten Huskers who will make the swing to Bradley and Michigan State. Bill Lundholm, hitting field goals at a 61.9 clip with 13 out of 21 tries, hasn't had a chance to try a free throw in five games.
