Frats Name McClain, Johnson Sweethearts

By Sue Healey

Members of royalty graced the campus last weekend as two queens were revealed.

Reigning as SAE Sweetheart was CeCe McClain. She was crowned at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Formal held Friday night. CeCe is a Kappa Alpha Theta sophomore in Teachers from Fremont.

On Saturday evening Sigma Phi Epsilon pledges crowned Pat Johnson as their Pledge Sweetheart. Miss Johnson is a Chi Omega freshman in Teachers from Mullen. Her attendants were Phyl Grube and Mary Sullivan.

Four pinnings and three engagements were announced Monday evening.

Pinnings

Mimi Fitzpatrick, a Delta Gamma senior in Teachers from Lincoln, to Andy McMullen, a Sigma Nu grad student from Stella.

Alma Heuermann, a Love Memorial Hall junior in Home Ec from Phillips, to Norm Rohlfing, a Farm House junior in Agriculture from Talmage.

Mildred Arnold, a Fedde Hall freshman in Home Ec from Lamar, to Pat Wright, an Alpha Gamma Rho junior in Agriculture from Bidgeport.

Susie Moulton, a Kappa Alpha Theta senior in Teachers College, to Bud Plummer, a Phi Delta Theta alum from Glenwood, Ia.

Engagements

Jane Mahoney, a Delta Delta Delta sophomore in Teachers from Lincoln, to Joe Neal, a sophomore at Doane College from Lincoln.

Sandra McCaslin, a Love Memorial Hall freshman in Home Ec from Broken Bow, to Don Anderson from Broken Bow.

Doris Best, a Terrace Hall freshman in Bizad from Valentine to Gary Greder, Alpha Gamma Sigma freshman in Agriculture from Ainsworth.

Rats Grow—Soybean Oil Meal Does the Job

Researchers at the University have found that antibiotics when added to a ration of raw soybean oil meal increase growth of rats by 25 per cent.

The primary goal was to find something which would equalize the growth rate of rats on raw and cooked soybeans. Since the growth rate varied more from experiment to experiment with raw soybean oil meal, cooked soybean oil meal ration was used as a control.

The addition of small amounts of penicillin and streptomycin, both antibiotics, resulted in approximately equal gains by rats fed raw and cooked soybean oil meal.

Research has indicated that the factor in raw soybeans causing this growth affect is a metabolic inhibitor, which is destroyed by heating

Square Dance

The All-University Square Dance Club will not meet Friday.

Yvonne Young Picked Miss REA

Yvonne Young, junior in education, was named Miss REA Tuesday night at the National Rural Electric Association convention in Washington, D.C.

Miss Young won over about a dozen other contestants. For her win she received a $500 scholarship and several other prizes.

She will remain in Washington through Sunday with a round of television and other appearances scheduled.

Miss Young, a speech major, entered the REA competition in Custer County and later won the Nebraska crown. She is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi.
