NU Track Wins Challenged By Colorado and Oklahoma

By Hal Brown

The NU thinclads will have their work cut out for them Saturday, as they attempt to win their 10th straight indoor track meet at home. Furnishing the opposition will be Oklahoma and Colorado.

Frank Sevigny stated, "Points will be mighty hard to get and we will take them anywhere we can get them." Oklahoma and Colorado have been picked as the teams with the best chance of dethroning the Kansas trackmen in the Big Eight Indoor Championships at Kansas City later this month. The Jayhawks have been Big Eight Indoor champions the past seven years.

Millers Tops

One of the top races of the meet could develop in the mile between Gail Hodgson, Ernst Kleynhans of Oklahoma, Joe Mullins and Joe American Horse of Nebraska. Hodgson ran a 4:16 mile in defeating Tom Skutka of Kansas in a dual meet earlier this month. Mullins turned the mile in 4:15.2 on his leg of the distance medley relay at the Michigan State Relays last Saturday. Also in the MSU Relays, Kleynhans ran the 3/4 mile in 3:04 and American Horse did it in 3:06.

The Nebraska Stadium indoor record in the pole vault could go by the boards, Saturday, with three 14 feet-plus vaulters, Ken Pollard of Nebraska and Larry Neeley and J. D. Martin of Oklahoma. Pollard vaulted 14:4 at the MSU relays but a rule interpretation cost him the height.

The broad jump field will be led by Bill Toomey of Colorado, Bob Knaub, Bob Lamme, and Don Phillips of Nebraska. Bill Toomey has the best jump of the group with a leap of 24:64 recorded against the Colorado freshmen.

London won the Michigan State Relays with a toss of 57:11". Dan Erwin, Lindsay's roommate should give Oklahoma 1:2 in the shot put. Erwin had a 56:4" toss against Kansas.

The 880-yard run could develop into a three man race for the wire between Mike Peake of Colorado, Joe Mullins and Knolly Barnes of Nebraska. Peake has run a 1: winter. Mullins ran the event in 1:57.9 two weeks ago and Barnes ran a 1:56 in the medley relay at East Lansing last Saturday.

Nebraska will be stronger in the high hurdles, with the addition of Roger Brede and Milt Haedt, than they were against South Dakota State and Drake. It is doubtful, however, whether Nebraska can match the 1:2 punch of Colorado's Eddie Dove and Boyd Dowler. Haedt has been kept out of action because of an ankle injury suffered in a gym class.

Frakes

The 2-mile run will pit Bernie Frakes of Colorado against Hodgeson of Oklahoma with Kleynhans of Oklahoma, American Horse and Bill Melody of Nebraska also battling for points. Frakes is the defending Big Eight indoor and outdoor champion and at Chicago during Christmas.

Shot Put

The stadium indoor shot put record is sure to be broken when Mike Lindsay of Oklahoma steps into the circle. The current record of 53:10" was set last year by Phil Delavan of Iowa State. Lindsay, a 6-2, 250 pounder from

Improved Kansas Jayhawks Present Troublesome Foe

NU Out to Repeat Last Year's Upset

By Zean Carney

Much improved Kansas will be in town Saturday night seeking revenge against the Nebraska basketballers who upset them on their last visit.

Kansas, who has improved since early season, met arch-rival Kansas State Tuesday evening, 82-72. The Huskers will be out to cut a three game losing streak.

Fourth Place

A victory would move Nebraska into fourth place in the Big Eight ahead of Kansas.

Big Bill Bridges, Kansas center, has improved considerably since the season opener. Tuesday against Kansas State he poured in 28 points. This is well above his 12 point average.

Ron Leneski, speedy Kansas forward, who has been hampered by an injured leg, was held to 14 points against Kansas State. He has been averaging around 20 points a game.

Maxey Leads NU

Both Al Maxey and Herschell Turner continued to hit in double figures Monday against Oklahoma. Maxey is hitting 16.1 points a game average.

Bridges, Hester, Maxey, Turner

and Kowalek are the leading scorers.

Bob Cerv, former Husker basketballer, now with Kansas City in the American League, will coach the alumni.

while Turner has tossed in 15.8 points.

This will be the first meeting between the two clubs this season. The clubs have met 118 times previously with the Jayhawks holding a big edge, 76 to 41.

The Jayhawks have excellent size in Bridges, Leneski and Donaghue," Coach Jerry Bush pointed out.

Improving

After their performances since the first of the year, Coach Bush figures it will take a top performance to repeat the victory that the Huskers scored last year.

The starting time for the game has been changed to 8:35 p.m. because of the Nebraska Alumni - Freshman game which starts at 6:30.

Besides Maxey and Turner, other probable Nebraska starters will be Wayne Hester, Bob Harry, and Jim Kowalek. Hester is averaging 6.3 points a game, Harry has 5.0 while Kowalek is hitting 5.7 points per contest.

Neither team will have a height advantage. Bridges, the Jayhawk center, stands 6-5 1/2 while the Husker center, Bob Harry, is 6-6. Other positions, man to man, range about the same in height.

Kansas: Maxey (6-4 1/2) 6-3 1/2 Kowalek (6-4 1/2) 6-3 1/2 Maxey (6-5 1/2) 6-3 1/2 Bridges (6-5 1/2) 6-6 Harry (6-2 1/2) 6-2 1/2 Hester (6-1 1/2) 6-2 1/2 Turner (6-1 1/2) 6-2 1/2

Minnesota Gophers Meet NU Gymnasts

The Nebraska gymnastics team will be meeting their roughest competition of the year today, when they host Minnesota at 4:30 in the Physical Education Building.

Even at full strength the Huskers would have their hands full, but without Captain Charles Ellis, their leading scorer, the Nebraska team's prospects don't look too bright.

Twists Knee

Last week Ellis twisted his knee while dismounting from the high bar in a triangular against the Air Force Academy and Colorado. At that time Ellis was leading the Husker point makers with 147 points.

Trying to take up some of the slack will be junior letterman, Phil Hall, who is second in line with 141 points. Both men are all-around competitors, meaning they compete in all seven gymnastics events. This includes tumbling, free exercise, horizontal bar, trampoline, still rings, parallel bars, and side horse.

The Huskers figure to be strongest in the tumbling and the sidehorse where Karl Byers is undefeated this year.

Gopher Record 196

Minnesota has defeated

Western Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Ohio State and the Air Force Academy. The Air Force Academy is the only team to defeat Nebraska in seven starts this season. Minnesota has lost to Illinois (last year's Big 10 champions), Michigan and Iowa.

The Gophers are led by all-around Captain Wayne Hoerner and Bob Schwartzkopf, unbeaten on the still rings.

The Huskers will tangle with Minnesota State of Mankato, Saturday at 2 p.m.
