

NEBRASKAN SPORTS

Peru State Bobcats Hit Husker Freshmen 78-69

Mike Roach Sparks Cat Attack With 30 Points

Nebraska freshmen dropped a 78-69 decision to the Peru State Teachers frosh in the preliminary contest before the CU-NU Varsity march.

The Bobcats were sparked by the outstanding shooting and floor play of Mike Roach, a former Husker student at the University. Roach pumped in thirty points to lead both teams in the scoring department. Roach was followed by 6-8 Bob Buettgenbach with 18. Buettgenbach is a former Beatrice High School star.

During the second quarter Nebraska led most of the way, but never by more than two points except for the final seconds. Sid Stacy sank three buckets in the final minute and the Huskers left the floor with a 34-30 lead.

Ivan Grupe opened the NU scoring the second half with a jump shot to put the Huskers ahead 36-30. Then with 3 minutes gone in the half Phil Barth dropped in two free throws to make it 40-32 for the largest Husker margin of the game.

the Bobcats ahead for good. Most of the Bobcat scoring in the closing minutes came on free throws and goals by Roach. Sid Stacy copped Husker scoring honors with 14 followed by Bernt Elle with 11 and Ivan Grupe with 10.

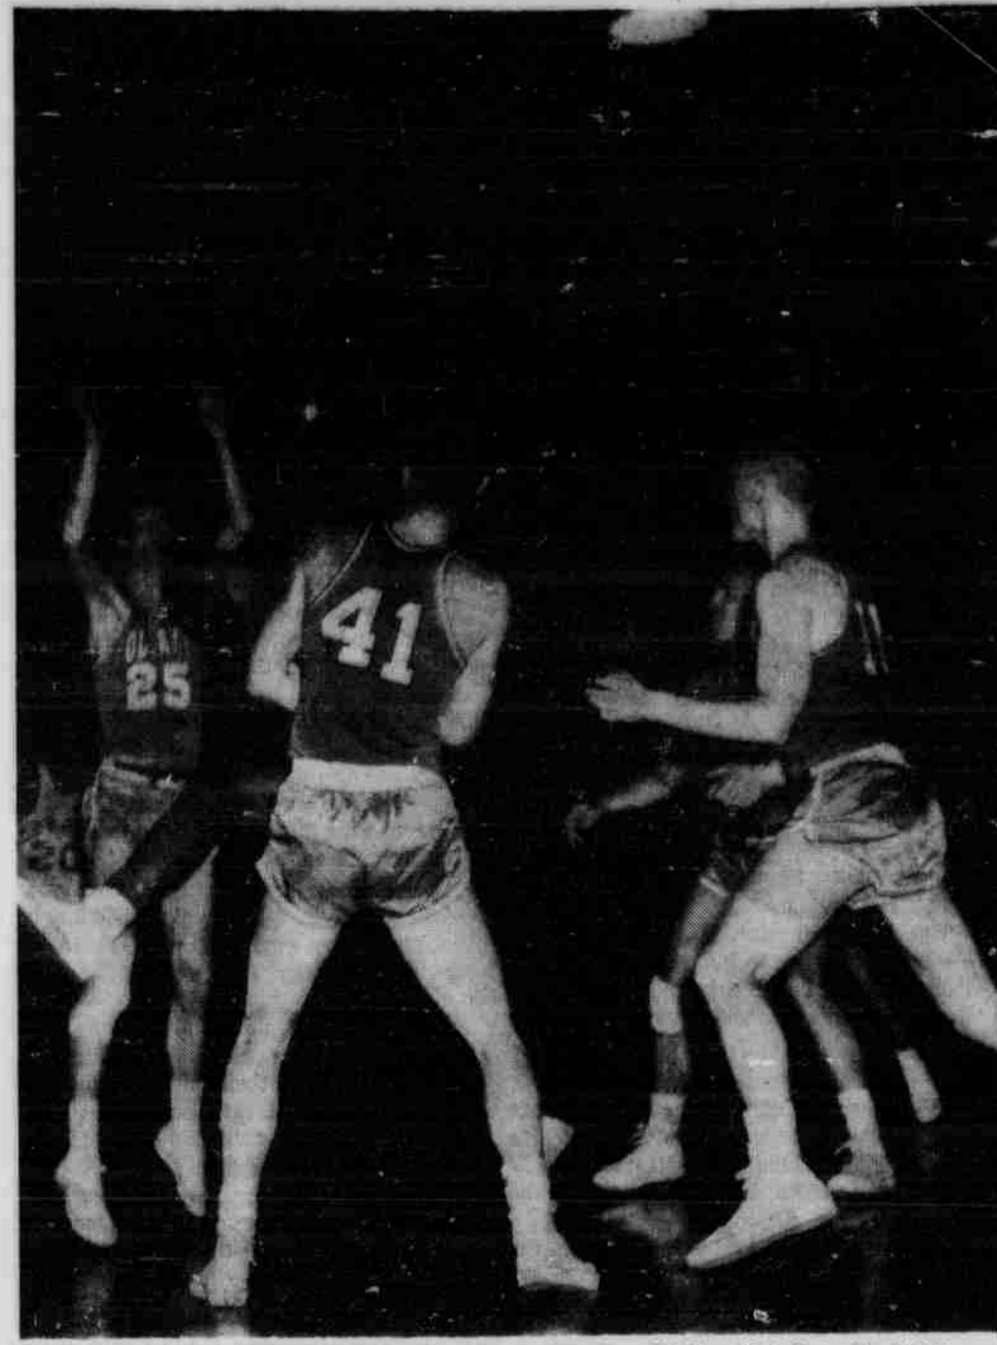

PERU	#	F	R	NEBRASKA	#	F	R
White	1	1	3	Elle	4	3	4
Rathe	1	4	8	Wall	3	2	5
Gibson	1	2	12	Bowers	1	0	0
Rhodus	1	1	3	McWilliams	3	0	0
Buettgenbach	8	4	18	Barth	2	4	8
Roach	11	6	30	Simmons	0	0	0
Poase	0	0	0	Solte	0	1	1
				Sweet	0	1	1
				Grupe	4	2	10
				Olsen	0	0	0
Totals	24	30	42	78	28	12	31
Halftime	Nebraska 34, Peru 30.

Turner's 40 Foot Jump Shot Quells Colorado Rally 62-61

Shot in Last Four Seconds Breaks 5 Game Losing Streak

By Randall Lambert and Hal Brown
The Huskers pried and pried, but they couldn't get the lid off. It wasn't until Herschell Turner hit two jump shots in the last half minute that the Huskers were able to score a field goal and cut down a Colorado rally 62-61.

Nebraska led 58-50 with five minutes left when the Buffs began to slowly crawl up on the Huskers until they had reversed things and went ahead 59-58. Harry Fouls Out
During this time Husker center Bob Harry had fouled out while repeated Nebraska shots flirted with the rim and fell out.

FOUR COLORADO DEFENDERS, Glen Piper (25), Don Walker (41), Russ Lind (11), and Gerry Schroeder, stand watching Herschell Turner and wondering which way the deceptive Husker playmaker will go next.

Finally Turner hit a short jump shot to put Nebraska in command 60-59. However, Gerry Schroeder was fouled when the Buffs brought the ball down the floor and promptly hit both his shots to give Colorado back the lead with 12 seconds left.

Nebraska took it out-of-bounds and began looking for the shot. With about seven seconds left Al Maxey passed the ball to Turner, who was between the half court circle and the free throw circle. Hirsch eyed the bucket, hesitated momentarily, and let go with the basket that brought the Nebraska bench and fans to their feet.

Kowalke Opens Scoring
Nebraska had led most of the game after Jim Kowalke opened the first half with a jump shot. Colorado bounced back to tie it at 2-2, but two consecutive jump shots by Bob Harry and Turner gave the Huskers a lead they never lost until the last minutes.

Albert Maxey proved that persistence pays off when he nabbed the ball twice in succession just before the half. Colorado guard, Russ Lind tried to pass the ball in after a Nebraska basket, but Maxey snagged the ball and laid it in for two points.

The frustrated Lind tried again but this time he threw it into the supports under the basket. Nebraska took the ball out and passed it to Maxey who hit with a short jump shot.

Wayne Hester did an outstanding defensive job on Colorado's star guard Gerry Schroeder. He held Schroeder to 8 points, four of them coming from the free throw line.

SIDEIGHTS: Herschell Turner's only thought as he fired the winning basket was, "Let it go."
The first thing Gerry Schroeder did, when fouled with 12 seconds remaining in the game and Colorado trail-

IM Volleyball Tournament

The closing date for entries in the all-University volleyball tournament is March 10, at 5 p.m. Entries for teams of fraternities, residence halls and independents must be made in room 102 of the PE building.

Matches will begin at 6:30 p.m. on March 16. All teams must fill out a roster sheet before their first match is played.

Husker Gymnasts in All College Meet, Capt. Charles Ellis Hobbled

By Keith Bland
Charles Ellis, Husker gymnastics team captain, will be

BILL HAMMOND, 6-6, 215 pound Oklahoma forward, will be seeing action against Nebraska when the Sooners face Nebraska in the Husker's last home game on Thursday, March 5. The big junior has become rather a disappointment after he set a new Oklahoma field goal percentage record last year by hitting 40 of 86 shots for 465 percent.

seeing limited action in the All-College Gymnastics Meet held this week-end at Boulder, Colo., due to sustained knee injury. Ellis, was second in line last year for the all-around performance trophy and will be competing in only four events this year due to his injury. He has seen little action for the last two weeks while his teammates have been practicing for the oncoming event.

Kohler Out
Ken Kohler, two years letterman and side horse event veteran, will not make the trip this year due to an illness. Phil Hall, one year letterman, will be the only Husker vying for the all around performance award this year as he has been entered in all except one event.

The team will also be competing to accumulate enough points to again win the team trophy that was won here at Nebraska last year. Nebraska has been strong enough in the last ten years to win the trophy seven times.

Teams in competition with Nebraska will be: Kansas, Kansas St., Fort Hays State, Air Force Academy, Denver U., Colorado State College, Colorado U., Colorado State University, and Mankato State.

Last Saturday Husker gymnasts took a decisive victory over Kansas 73½ to 36½ in a duel meet here. The Kansans were unable to win a single first place from Nebraska in the Jayhawks second year of competition.

NU Firsts
Preliminary events will be held Friday and the finals will take place on the following Saturday. Participating individuals for each event will be as follows:

Free Exercise—Dennis Antine, Phil Hall, Larry Brown.
Trampoline—Larry Brown, Phil Hall.
Side Horse—Phil Hall, Dennis Antine, Dick Byers.
Horizontal Bar—Phil Hall, Dennis Antine, Charles Ellis.
Parallel Bars—Dennis Antine, Charles Ellis, Phil Hall.
Flying Rings—Phil Hall, Herbert Hamich.
Still Rings—Phil Hall, Charles Ellis, Herbert Hamich.
Long Horse—Dennis Antine, Phil Hall, Tumbling—Phil Hall, Larry Brown.
Hoop Climbs—Dick Byers, Charles Ellis.
All-around—Dennis Antine, Phil Hall, letterman.

LAST CHANCE!

TO enroll under your Student Insurance Plan

Applications must be in the mail by March 1, 1959

Enrollment will not be open again until September 1, 1959

If you are planning to be married before Sept. 1, 1959, enroll now as a single student. You may include your spouse when married.

Enrollment cards are available at the Administration Building, Room 113, or Student Health Center.

Women's Rifle Matches Open

The women's intramural rifle tournament started last Saturday, with twelve teams participating — four girls on a team. Each girl shot two targets, each with a value of 100 points. The results:

- Delta Gamma defeated Alpha Theta, 738-708
- Alpha Chi Omega defeated Alpha Phi #1, 677-671
- Terrace Hall defeated Zeta Tau Alpha #2, 660-652
- Alpha Phi #2 defeated Delta Delta, 716-689
- Kappa Kappa Gamma defeated Independents, 701-691
- Sigma Kappa defeated Zeta Tau Alpha #1, 724-595

The three highest team totals, out of a possible 800 points, were: Delta Gamma, 738, Sigma Kappa, 724, Alpha Phi #2, 716. The three top individual scores, out of a possible 200 points, were: Carol Graves, Delta Gamma, 193, Gloria Tietjen, Sigma Kappa, 192, Pat Vincent, Sigma Kappa, 189. On one target, Pat Vincent shot 99 out of a possible 100 points.

Matmen Lose and Tie in Matches Against Iowa Teachers and S.D.

By Hal Brown
Nebraska's matmen gained a tie with South Dakota State and were beaten by Iowa State Teachers College in action the past weekend.

The outstanding match of Friday night's meet with South Dakota State was in the 177-pound class where NU's Harold Thompson went out of his class to wrestle George Alfredson. Thompson, a 147-pounder, was beaten, 4-3, as the scarce crowd was on its feet throughout the final two periods. Alfredson is unbeaten this year.

Baum Wins
Nebraska lost the first three matches before Gail Baum took a 4-2 decision over Dick Kuhns. Norlin Cooper won a decision and Ken Lott of Nebraska pinned Don Streseman of South Dakota State to tie the meet at 11-all.

Alfredson's decision over Thompson gave State the lead again but Pat Fitzgerald, NU heavyweight, came through with a victory over Ben Motis to gain the tie, 14-14.

Nebraska was hampered by a lack of personnel as they dropped a 27-3 decision to Iowa State Teachers College. Dennis Aten, 137-pounder, and Pat Fitzgerald, heavyweight, were unable to make the trip.

braska lost a 3-2 decision to Patten of Iowa Teachers on riding time.

Kent Walton, a 157-pounder from Nebraska, was forced into action as a heavyweight and was pinned by Van Voorhis of Iowa Teachers.

17 Straight
Nebraska has never beaten Iowa Teachers in 17 outings but there was a determined look in Coach Bill Smith's eyes as he said, "We have never beaten them but we will before this thing is over; in fact, the next time we go over there." Smith is a graduate of Iowa Teachers.

Nebraska goes against Iowa State, the defending Big Eight Champions, at the Coliseum, Friday at 7:30 p.m.

Mastacchiole Spaghetti Lasagne Revoli 3457 Holtzberg Closed Mondays

Pizza $.75 $1.50 $2.00

Valentine's

Ph. 8-1472

ATTENTION STUDENTS FREE

HELP YOUR ORGANIZATION WIN A BEAUTIFUL COLOR T.V. FOR THE STUDENT UNION

Buy L&M-CHESTERFIELD & OASIS SAVE THE EMPTY PACKS

Organization saving the greatest number of empty packages of above brands will be judged winner. Winner will present set to Student Union. Winning Organization's name will be inscribed on bronze plaque and placed on this beautiful Color T.V.

Contest Feb. 23, 1959 to April 23, 1959