NU Swim Team Hosts Defending Big 8 Champs

Huskers Face Oklahoma Wednesday Night

By Hal Brown Matt Mann, Oklahoma swimming coach, will bring his Big Eight Champions to the Coliseum Pool for a meet with Nebraska at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Since coming to Oklahoma three years ago, Mann's teams have been Big Eight Champs all three years. Oklahoma had won 22 straight duals under Mann's tutelage before Southern Methodist scored a 51-35 victory at Dallas this winter. The Sooners gained revenge, however, when SMU came to Norman. The Sooners won the return match 48-38.

NCAA Record Breaker Oklahoma is led by Gordon Collet, sophomore breaststroke. Collet broke both the American and national collegiate short course records for the 200-yd. Breaststroke with a 2:22.9 clocking.

The Sooner's top diver Johnny Williams is being withheld from competition the rest of the season because of a head wound suffered in the Oklahoma AAU meet. The 5-5, 132-pound, junior suffered the cut which required 30 stitches while attempting an inward cutaway 2 1/2 somersault.

Oklahoma has 9 swimmers returning who scored points in the Big Eight Meet last year. These include Larry Lermo, Chuck Lechner, Carlyn Cruzan, Don Jobson, John Janovy, Bob Connor, Alan Wilcox, Ernie Drowatzky and Harry Klug.

Returning Champions Larry Lermo of Bend, Oregon, won the 400-yd. and 1500 meter freestyle races. Chuck Lechner, a 6-5 backstroke captured first place in both the 100 and 200-yd. backstroke. Carlyn Cruzan swept the 100 and 200-yd. breaststroke races. The Sooners won 13 of 16 first places in the Big Eight Championships.

Oklahoma defeated Iowa State 58-27 in their last outing. The Sooners have a 6-1 season record.

Nebraska has posted an 8-4 record this season and the past week-end they scored a 49-37 victory over previously undefeated Grinnell. The Huskers shattered three Nebraska records and two pool records in posting the victory. New Nebraska records were set by Frank Tomson in the 200-yd. backstroke, Joe Stocker in the 200-yd. breaststroke and the 440-yd. medley relay team. The times in the 400-yd. medley relay and the 200-yd. breaststroke were also pool records.

Big 8 Meet The two teams will meet again Thursday, Friday and Saturday as Nebraska hosts the Big Eight Championships. There are only six schools in the meet because Oklahoma State and Missouri do not field swimming teams.

Oklahoma won last year's championship easily outdistancing the rest of the pack. Oklahoma had 179 points, followed by Iowa State with 47 1/2, Colorado with 45, Kansas State with 23 and Nebraska with 13.

Sooner coach Matt Mann figures Kansas and Iowa State will be the chief contenders this year. He also thinks Nebraska will be tougher with Colorado and Iowa State somewhat weaker than a year ago.

Nebraska Stops Mizzou 81-79 To End 21-Game Road Drout

By Randall Lambert Nebraska staved off a Missouri rally in the last five minutes to whip the Tigers 81-79.

The Husker's three-fold scoring attack consisting of Herschell Turner, Wayne Hester, and Al Maxey was more than the Missourians could handle. Turner ripped in 29 points, while Hester got 22 and Maxey had 17.

Jerry Bush's cagers had to fight an uphill battle to win their fifth conference contest of the year.

First, Al Maxey fouled out midway through the second half. Then it was Wayne Hester who got the axe via the foul route with almost five minutes left. Jim Kowalke, who had suddenly found the scoring range and scored all Turner Hester his points during the last ten minutes, had to leave the game with an injury when he was fouled with less than two minutes left.

Missouri took a 44-42 lead to the dressing room at the half mainly behind the 22 point-production of their 6-7 center, Charlie Henke, and red hot shooting from the free throw line. They hit 22 of 25 attempts at the charity stripe.

Big Bob Harry hit a long set shot to open the second half after the Huskers controlled the tip.

The lead see-sawed back and forth until five minutes had elapsed. It was then that Turner, Maxey, and Hester hit shots to give Nebraska a 62-59 lead that they never lost.

Leading the Tigers and all scorers for the night was Charlie Henke, who hit 30 points, one more than Herschell Turner, who was high with 29 for Nebraska.

Next game for the Huskers will be at home against Oklahoma on Thursday night, March 5.

Phil Barth Leading Frosh Roundballers

By Hal Brown Phil Barth, originally from Indiana, the basketball center of the world, is currently leading the Nebraska freshman basketball team in scoring. Barth has scored 170 points, just seven more than teammate Rex Swett, for a 13.1 per game average. This includes the 18 points he scored in a losing cause against Iowa State's frosh Saturday night.

Three Championships Barth was born in Indianapolis, Indiana, but moved to Omaha during the summer between his freshman and sophomore year in high school. Omaha Central fans were mighty glad he came to Omaha as he led the Eagles to the Inter-city championship in basketball, baseball and the co-championship in football during his senior year.

He chose Nebraska over Kansas, Iowa State, South Dakota, and other eastern schools for the same reason so many others have, the Nebraska coaching staff. He is a business administration major.

Barth, a 6-3, 190-pounder, was named to the Omaha All-Intercity team in basketball, football and baseball last year. He was the only player who was named to both the basketball and football all-star teams.

Leads B. T. Upset He scored 19 points to lead Omaha Central to a 53-50 victory over Boys Town in the opening round of the State Class AA basketball tournament last year. The Eagles had to settle for the runnerup spot, however, as Lincoln High set their defense to stop Barth in the championship game.

Barth was named to the all-tourney and all-state teams and was called, "The best all-around player in the tourney," by Gregg McBride, World-Herald prep expert. Gregg added, "The Omaha Central whiz played the floor with authority and scored under unusual pressure. When the Eagle defense sagged, he gave valuable assistance policing the boards."

He could have had a football scholarship at Nebraska, but chose to devote his time to basketball and baseball. He will be playing the infield for the freshman baseball team this spring.

Scoring big with slick ideas like the Electronic Secretary answering unit, product of America's second largest telephone system

Your phone is always "tended" when an Electronic Secretary unit is on your "line." For it answers calls in your absence and takes messages as well! Here's how it works. When your phone rings, a recorded voice informs the caller that you are out—and invites him to leave his name, number and any information he wishes you to have. When you return—or when you phone in—all calls are repeated to you word for word. Result: no more "missed" messages, no more lost business, no more worrying about leaving the phone unattended any hour of the day or night. This is just one of many ways Gen Tel is adding new dimensions to telephone communication. We know that, in an America which is expanding fast on all fronts, it is imperative to expand both telephone service and telephone versatility. And we're meeting the challenge by developing new products and better methods for bringing more and more people together. GENERAL TELEPHONE
