Sooners Rock Huskers 65-54; Turner Breaks Scoring Mark

By Hal Brown

Oklahoma hit 19 of 22 free throws in the second half as they took a 65-54 decision over the Husker cagers.

Nebraska's Herschel Turner scored 21 points to break the Nebraska season scoring record of 400 points by all Big Seven guard Jim Buchanan. Turner scored his record-breaking point on a free throw with 31 seconds remaining in the first half. The free throw gave the Huskers a 25-24 halftime advantage.

The lead see-sawed back and forth during the first few minutes of the second half until Oklahoma's Bob Stoermer put the Sooners ahead to stay with a set show with a little over 16 minutes remaining in the game.

With 4:43 left in the game and leading 50-43, Oklahoma started a ball-control type of game. The Sooners waited for the easy lay-up and took advantage of Husker fouls to increase their lead. A lady sitting about four rows behind the Sooner bench described the situation perfectly as she shouted, "They're just wasting time."

The Sooners made good on 13 of 14 free throws in the closing minutes of the game as Nebraska had to foul in an effort to get the ball.

Oklahoma had good scoring balance with four players in double figures. Dennis "The Menace" Price led the OU scorers with 19 points. He was followed by Joe Lee Thompson with 17, Bob Stoermer with 12 and Ray Lewis with 10. Joe Lee Thompson had scored only 15 points all season prior to last night's game.

As Oklahoma coach Doyle put it after the game: "We had balance and Nebraska didn't."
