

CAMPUS CHATTER

Janet Hoepfner

Fashion is the fabric, cut and color of an outfit, and in the way you wear it. Here is a pert summer style glowing in a fine cotton finish. The blouse has the ever popular roll up sleeves and the collar is accented with rick rack.

The matching pants are in combed cotton, styled by Shelby. They come in colors of blue and katie and have rick rack on the cuffs. These pants sell for $8.98.

Gold's campus shop has many new and exciting styles for casual wear. Be sure to stop and try on these fashionable outfits.

See you soon,

Sigma NU's Win Both 'A', 'B' Fraternity Basketball Crowns

The hour was 6:00 and it belonged to the Sigma Nus. They had just won two divisions in the Fraternity Basketball Championships. The Snakes won an overtime 40-38 "A" game over the ATOs while the Sigma Nu "B" team copped a close 37-33 contest from the ATO "B" team.

The "A" game was tough and go all the way with neither team able to gain a lasting advantage. Jerry Wagner opened the scoring for the Sigma Nus with a free throw in the first few seconds. Both teams were careful and the scoring was light, but Sigma Nu held a 6-4 first quarter lead.

In the second quarter, both teams were again unable to find the range and the half ended with a 13-13 tie. Don Kleiber for the ATOs and Don Wenzl for the Sigma Nus topped the first half scoring with six apiece.

The third quarter was a scoring free for all with the ATOs potting 13 and the Sigma Nus getting 12. Dick Beecher broke the tie with a jump shot and then hit another to give the ATOs a quick four point lead, but Don Wenzl flashed back for the Sigma Nus with two jump shots to tie the game again. Both teams then traded baskets until the final seconds of the third quarter when Beecher hit a long jump shot just as the buzzer sounded to give the ATOs a 26-25 lead.

The fourth quarter was much like the third with both teams trading baskets, but with 40 seconds left to play in the game, the ATOs held a two point advantage. Bob Sullivan then calmly turned and hit a long jump to tie the score and send the game into overtime.

Ron Seymour drew first blood in the overtime for the Sigma Nus with a free throw and Wenzl dropped in a quick basket to give the Sigma Nus a three point lead. But the ATOs were by no means through.

Bob Brandis and Beecher tossed in two baskets and the ATOs were ahead. The Sigma Nus tied it up on free throw and with only a few seconds remaining to be played in the period, Bob Sullivan flipped in a long jump shot to win the game he had earlier saved.

Sullivan topped the Sigma Nu scoring with 16, followed by Don Wenzl with 14. Don Kleiber sank 11 for the ATOs.

In the "B" game, the Sigma Nus were also in serious trouble. Dick Schmoker opened the scoring with two free throws for the Snakes and the first quarter ended with the Sigma Nus in command 9-8. At the close of the first half, the Sigma Nus led 19-17. Schmoker rimmed 11 points for the Snakes in the first half and Wayne Gunderson added five for the ATOs.

Dick Koeler, who garnered no points in the first half, suddenly found the range for the Snakes in the second. He pumped in 12 points and gave the Sigma Nus the needed scoring punch to win. The third period closed with the Sigma Nus in the lead 29-25.

Schmoker got six points in the second half to give him a total of 17 and Koeler grabbed 12.

Turner on All-Big 8 Team; Maxey Named to 3rd Five

Bob Boozer Only Unanimous Selection

Herschell Turner of Nebraska was the only junior named on the UPI All-Big Eight Conference team.

The Husker scoring ace was named to the mythical five along with Bob Boozer and Don Matuzek of Kansas State, Arlen Clark, Oklahoma State, and Gerry Schroeder of Colorado.

Boozer Unanimous Boozer, already named to several All-American teams, was the only player to be named to the team on all the first team ballots that were cast. The poll included coaches, sportswriters, broadcasters and college publicists. Gerry Schroeder had the closest call as he barely edged out Dennis Price of Oklahoma and Ron Loneski of Kansas. Loneski and Price were on the second team along with Wally Frank, Kansas State, Don Walker, Colorado and Bill Bridges of Kansas.

Albert Maxey of Nebraska received third team honors along with Al Abram of Missouri, John Krochieski and Ron Baulok of Iowa State and Alan Donoghue of Kansas. Maxey and Bridges of Kansas had the distinction of being the only sophomores listed on the first three teams. K. St. To NCAA Everyone named on the team has finished the season except for Boozer, Matuzek and Frank of Kansas State.

Bob Boozer

The trio will lead the Wildcats into the NCAA regional at Lawrence, Kansas.

Jack Braley Named Husker Football Asst.

Jack Braley, former Husker letterman, was named as an assistant football coach. He is filling the vacancy left on the Husker staff when John Gordy resigned to re-enter professional football.

The appointment was approved by the Board of Regents, upon a recommendation by Athletic Director Bill Orwig.

Braley is advancing from the position of graduate assistant in football, which he has held for two years. He lettered as an end in 1954 and 1955 under the departed Bill Glassford.

The new Husker coach will probably work with the ends, while Don Scarbrough, who previously coached the ends, will be working with the tackles.

"We feel fortunate in having available a young man of Jack's ability," Head Coach Bill Jennings said. "We have watched him the past two years and we know what he can do. He is capable and will make a top flight coach."

Orwig said the entire staff was impressed with Braley's coaching ability in his capacity as a graduate assistant. "When we have a capable person who is one of our own boys we like to give him an opportunity to advance in his coaching career."

Army Rifle Team Places Second

The Army ROTC Rifle team placed 2nd out of 15 teams in the Midwest Camp Perry Smallbore Rifle Matches held at Kemper Military Academy in Booneville, Missouri.

Purdue University won the match with a total score of 741. The Cornhusker team finished a close second with a score of 737.

Michael Flannigan of Omaha was top shooter for the Cornhuskers with 190. William Holland, Overton, shot a 188; Conley Cleveland, Superior, fired 186 and Howard B. McNiff of Franklin shot a 173.
