Need A Carpet? A Coat? Try the Nearly New

The Nearly New, a miscellaneous exchange shop for married University students, will open Thursday at 8 p.m.

The shop will be open until 9:30 p.m. in Rm. 104, Temporary G.

"So much has been donated that the original room was so crammed that we had to move to a new location," Mrs. John Weaver, publicity chairman for the shop, explained.

To date, items for sale in the shop have been collected by donations from the University Dame's Club and the Faculty Women's Club. Later, the Faculty Women's Club hopes to make city-wide drives.

Among the unexpected items donated was a mouton coat.

Most of the prices are around $2. The maximum price is $5.

Offered for sale will be such things as baby beds, carpeting, a washing machine, a snow suit and many woolen things.

Profits from the shop are to go to the Emergency Student Loan Fund.

Only University students with identification cards are eligible to buy the items.

This Hell Week Is Delightful!

Sigma Nu pledges at Kansas University had a new Hell Week duty.

Expecting a swat from the actives' paddles and a lick from the fraternity's dog, the pledges received instead kisses from five coeds.

Literary Entries Due Friday

Entries for the Prairie Schooner award for fictional short stories and the Lone Gardner Noyes Memorial award for poetry will close this Friday. Entries should be turned in to 221 Andrews.

The Prairie Schooner award for fictional short stories is sponsored by Mari Sandoz, noted author of western history and Indian activities. She will present the award to the winner while at the University to present a series on writing and western history on KUON-TV.

Last year's winners of the award were: Ervin Krause, first prize of $50; Robert Almqvist, second prize of $30; and Mrs. Glenna Luschei, third prize, $20. Honorable mention went to Vernon Bloemmaker. This is the fourth annual contest.

The Lone Gardner Keyes Memorial Award for proficiency in poetry is given by Laurence Noyes, husband of the late Mrs. Noyes, and Mrs. Harold L. Meier, Mrs. Noyes' sister, in honor of Mrs. Noyes, who was a graduate of the class of 1924 at the University. This award originated in 1954.

Last year's winner was Jerry Petsche. Barbara Millnitz won second place.

THINKLISH

English: SCANDAL MAGAZINE

Thinklish translation: This magazine is put out by a bunch of troublemakers. Their other monthly offerings: a horror series (feariodical), pin-up pictures (leeriodical) and a fortune tellers' gazette (seeriodical). Naturally, none carries ads mentioning the honest taste of fine tobacco. Who'd want Lucky Strike mixing with that crowd? As for the scandal sheet, it's a smeariodical which deserves nothing but snublicity.
